A Belief System from Beyond the Box Edgar K. DeJean, 2009-04 As I go back to the first blog that I released into cyberspace I discover that the date was May 27 2005 and the title was It s Beyond Me As I scan forward through all the postings I find that two major themes have developed synergistically 1 That segment of the formal religious establishment described loosely by the term church is under stress The extreme nature of this stress is demonstrated by the current often quoted fearsome phrase The Church must change or it will die 2 The most frequently offered response to this dilemma is the admonition We must think beyond the box Pragmatism indicates that The Church must change or it will die phrase is hopelessly destructive Might this prediction be more approachable if rephrased as The Church must morph then survive Survival indicates that it is essential that we determine what it is in the box that we must think beyond What should be changed so that our belief systems can morph thus equipping the church to morph to survival It is my conclusion that my past conceptualizations of God my core beliefs have been formed by inhibiting Climates of Cultures deposited in the box over the ages in an attempt to make God comprehensible It is my emerging discovery that when we think beyond the box we recognize the Atmosphere of Possibilities the Incomprehensible God of the Universe Though our core beliefs may differ we all should be encouraged to hold beliefs that give us the joy of being response able to Incomprehensible God the Atmosphere of Possibilities and responsible to with comprehensible humanity including ourselves

A Leap to Everyday Spirituality Edgar K. DeJean, 2011-12-19 This book is directed toward fulfilling the wisdom of Yogi Berra as stated in the Preface of the book You got to be very careful if you don't know Where you're going because you might not get there There are some readers whose traditional beliefs may lead them to question the direction the book is taking The author concedes this but hopes that his integrity of purpose where he's going will lead to consideration as opposed to consternation Here in no rigid linear sequence are some not all of the areas the book explores The primate as animal evolved to become the primate as human first through an awareness of compassion responsible to species and later through an awareness of religion response able to God Why then has the human forsaken the value and purposefulness of compassion that permitted humanity to evolve and survive and has become obsessed with taking religious beliefs too seriously e.g. religious chaos religious wars In keeping with Yogi Berra's advice the book was given a sense of direction First it would explore examples of taking life too seriously Then expand to observations of taking one's beliefs too seriously followed by taking religion too seriously religiosity and finally arrive at taking theology inappropriately where the author suggests that traditionalism and theism have brought Christianity today The book offers the thought that two essential human capabilities within the purpose for existence are underutilized by humanity compassion and spirituality It concludes with the question Could the intentional utilization of these two possibilities as capabilities support the morphing of Christianity This book A Leap to Everyday Spirituality In the Eternal Atmosphere of Possibilities is a candid invitation to readers to explore their beliefs not a request to agree with the author Response-Able to the

Incomprehensible Edgar K. DeJean, 2013-11-25 For more than seventy years author Edgar K. DeJean practiced a conditioned belief system in the form of Orthodox Presbyterianism Now in the twenty-first century he explains how his searching and exploring of spirituality and religion has led him to a more candid belief system that is casual flexible and logical as opposed to one that is conditioned cultural rigid and traditional In Response Able to the Incomprehensible he delves into his mission which centers on the possibilities within being response able to the incomprehensible metaphysical energy through spirituality and compassion Through a series of short essays originally created as blog posts he describes this belief system he deems more appropriate and responsive to today's times While studying the core beliefs and traditions of Christianity DeJean focuses on explaining and defining the statement of purpose be spiritual do compassion Response Able to the Incomprehensible discusses the search for spirituality in everyday life and appraises and tests existing traditions and compassion in that same sphere The Power of Vital Force Rajshree Patel, 2019-10-01 By contemplating and applying the

Abrams,2012-07-10 A JOURNEY TO ENLIGHTENMENT is a journey to the light within each of us Most people instinctively know there is a greater power at the core of creation We have named that power God and have created many religions to celebrate God Religions at their basis teach love and the Golden Rule but unfortunately because mankind has interjected their opinions into the mix there has been great separation between religions and people on this planet Most of the wars have been fought because of the differences in interpretation that religions have Each religion believes they are the one true path to God But with all of the many religions which one is the one true way We have learned to give our power to people outside of ourselves thus making ourselves powerless It is time we turned within to the power inside of each of us our heart Soul and God within For it is there and only there that our true power lies God is not outside of us as many religions have inferred When we wake up and remember our authentic self as an aspect of the Creator is when the Journey to Enlightenment happens We are much more than these bodies we inhabit We are an Eternal Spirit focused in these human forms having a human experience with powers and abilities far beyond our imagining One of these powers is the ability to co create with all of creation Have you heard the expression Thoughts become things What we think goes forth from us and it takes form in this world we live in At this time we are moving from the third dimensional frequency to the fifth which is assisting us to remembering our Divine self Allow me to assist you on your Journey To Enlightenment The Integrated
