A Clockwork Orange Text Only By A Burgess:

Aldous Huxley and Utopia Jerome Meckier, 2022-11-30 Within the cycle that runs from Erewhon to Island British literary utopias compete with one another to form the most persuasive picture of what the future might or should be like At issue for Butler Wells Zamiatin Orwell and others is whether utopia be it positive or negative is essentially prediction or hypothesis Huxley contributed to this debate at roughly fifteen year intervals his three utopias becoming its key texts In addition Aldous Huxley and Utopia examines ironic cure scenes the obsession with golf in the brave new world attitudes towards death in Brave New World and Island problems with names and history in the former the role of islands in both the detrimental impact of Madame Blavatsky and young Krishnamurti on the story of Pala and the significance of a zoological conclusion of Island

Stanley Kubrick's A Clockwork Orange Stuart Y. McDougal, 2003-07-07 Stanley Kubrick's A Clockwork Orange brings together critically informed essays about one of the most powerful important and controversial films ever made Following an introduction that provides an overview of the film and its production history a suite of essays examine the literary origins of the work the nature of cinematic violence questions of gender and the film's treatment of sexuality and the difficulties of adapting an invented language nadsat for the screen This volume also includes two contemporary and conflicting reviews by Roger Hughes and Pauline Kael a detailed glossary of nadsat and stills from the film

Adapting the Novel for the Stage Naciye Sağlam, 2025-09-30 Adapting the Novel for the Stage Translation in Intermedial Circulation proposes an integrative framework for understanding novel to stage adaptations Through a translational lens it introduces a twofold model that examines creative dynamics through intersemiotic translation and sociocultural dynamics through Bourdieusian sociology It expands Bourdieu's theory of international circulation into adaptation studies and introduces the concept of intermedial circulation Through case studies of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland A Clockwork Orange and Frankenstein the monograph offers a framework for understanding how novels are transformed into performance through signs agents and institutions It aims to provide a fresh perspective for researchers working at the intersection of translation theatre adaptation multimodality media and literary studies

Waiting for the End Earl G. Ingersoll, 2007 Waiting for the End examines two dozen contemporary novels within the context of a half century of theorizing about the function of ending in narrative That theorizing about ending generated a powerful dynamic a quarter century ago with the advent of feminist criticism of masculinist readings of the role played by ending in fiction Feminists such as Theresa de Lauretis in 1984 and more famously Susan Winnett in her 1991 PMLA essay Coming Unstrung were leading voices in a swelling chorus of theorist pointing out the masculinist bias of ending in narrative With the entry of feminist readings of ending it became inevitable that criticism of fiction would become gendered through the recognition of difference transcending a simple binary of female male to establish a spectrum of masculine to feminine endings regardless of the sex of the writer Accordingly Waiting for the End examines pairs of novels one pair by Margaret Atwood and one by Ian McEwan to demonstrate how a writer can offer endings at either end of the gender spectrum Anthony Burgess, Stanley Kubrick and A Clockwork Orange Matthew Melia, Georgina Orgill, 2023-01-01 This book brings together a diverse range of contemporary scholarship around both Anthony Burgess's novel 1962 and Stanley Kubrick's film A Clockwork Orange US 1971 UK 1972 This is the first book to deal with both together offering a range of groundbreaking perspectives that draw on the most up to date contemporary archival and critical research carried out at both the Stanley Kubrick Archive held at University of the Arts London and the archive of the International Anthony Burgess Foundation This landmark book marks both the 50th anniversary of Kubrick's film and the 60th anniversary of Burgess's novel by considering the historical textual and philosophical connections between the two The chapters are written by a diverse range of contributors covering such subjects as the Burgess Kubrick relationship Burgess's recently discovered sequel The Clockwork Condition the cold war context of both texts the history of the script the politics of authorship and the legacy of both including their influence on the songwriting and personas of David Bowie Text W.

Speed Hill, Edward M. Burns, Peter Shillingsburg, 1998-12 The newest volume in the distinguished annual Fictional Languages in Science Fiction Literature Israel A. C. Noletto, 2024-05-31 Fictional Languages in Science Fiction Literature surveys a large number of fictional languages those created as part of a literary world to present a multifaceted account of the literary phenomenon of glossopoesis language invention Consisting of a few untranslated sentences exotic names or even fully fledged languages with detailed grammar and vocabulary fictional languages have been a common element of English language fiction since Thomas More's Utopia 1516 Different notions of the functions of such fictional languages in narrative have been proposed as rooted in phonaesthetics and contextual features or as being used for characterisation and construction of alterity Framed within stylistics and informed by narrative theory literary theory literary pragmatics and semiotics this study combines previous typologies into a new 5 part reading model comprising unique analytical approaches tailored to science fiction's specific discourse and style exploring the relationship between glossopoesis world building storytelling interpretation and rhetoric both in prose and paratexts The Wolf at the Door Geoffrey Cocks, 2004 Discovers a Holocaust subtext in Kubrick's films culminating in his 1980 adaptation of Stephen King's horror novel The Shining Maintains that this is reflected in his depiction of harsh struggles with and over power and violence Several of his films deal with war and state power The Shining is seen as an artistic and philosophical response to the horrors of World War II Among the influences on the filmmaker are Hilberg's The Destruction of the European Jews Kubrick's Jewish past and his early years that were affected by fascism and war Kubrick's marriage into an artistic German family also contributed to his preoccupation with the history of Nazi Germany and the Holocaust which were indirectly reflected in his oeuvre Profiling the European Citizen Mireille Hildebrandt, Serge Gutwirth, 2008-05-01 In the eyes of many one of the most challenging problems of the information society is that we are faced with an ever expanding mass of information Based on the work done within the European Network of Excellence NoE on the Future of Identity in Information Society FIDIS a set of authors from different disciplinary backgrounds and jurisdictions share their understanding of profiling as a technology that may be preconditional for the future of our information society Narrative Concerns Todd Davis, Kenneth Womack, 2025-08-20 Bridging existing gaps between postmodern theory fiction and ethics Narrative Concerns Ethical Criticism in Literature Music and Film offers an innovative critical analysis of the ways in which fictional narratives impact our lives as well as of the evolving nature of our understanding of the ethical possibilities inherent in postmodern humanism The wide array of writers directors and musicians examined in Narrative Concerns include Steven Spielberg Quentin Tarantino Jean Rhys John Irving Norman Maclean Anthony Burgess Kurt Vonnegut James Cameron Beyonc and Mary Oliver These creators frequently explore our postmodern preoccupation with the void in new and often innovative ways from their challenging perceptions of the family humor and narrative design to their examinations of the past the power of history and the redemptive nature of humanity Davis and Womack read their works to demonstrate a fascinating assortment of literary characters in the act of generating new conceptions of selfhood underscore how a given text's construction affects our understanding of the ethically motivated acts of authorship and storytelling and address the powerful bonds of human community By challenging the very nature in which we conduct literary and theoretical studies ethical criticism thus offers useful forays into a wide range of disciplines from feminism and gender studies to cultural criticism and the dynamics of race and ethnicity Speaking Science Fiction Andy Sawyer, David Seed, 2000-12-01 This wide ranging volume explores the various dialogues that flourish between different aspects of science fiction academics and fans writers and readers ideological stances and national styles different interpretations of the genre and how language and voices are used in constructing SF Introduced by the acclaimed novelist Brian W Aldiss the essays range from studies of writers such as Robert A Heinlein who are considered as the heart of the genre to more contemporary writers such as Jack Womack and J G Ballard

Only Imagine Kathleen Stock, 2017 Only Imagine offers a theory of fictional content or as it is sometimes known fictional truth The theory of fictional content Kathleen Stock argues for is known as extreme intentionalism the idea that the fictional content of a particular work is equivalent to exactly what the author of the work intended the reader to imagine Historically this sort of view has been highly unpopular Literary theorists and philosophers alike have poured scorn upon it The first half of this book attempts to argue that it should in fact be taken very seriously as an adequate account of fictional truth better in fact than many of its more popular rivals The second half explores various explanatory benefits of extreme intentionalism for other issues in the philosophy of fiction and imagination Namely can fiction give us reliable knowledge Why do we resist imagining certain fictions What in fact is a fiction And how should the imagination be characterised Language and World Creation in Poems and Other Texts Elena Semino, 2014-09-25 Language and World Creation in Poems and Other Texts introduces an interdisciplinary and practical approach to the analysis of poetry which focuses on text worlds namely the contexts scenarios or types of reality that readers construct in their interaction with the language of texts The book demonstrates in detail three ways of approaching poetic text worlds namely as discourse situations possible worlds and mental constructs Clear and detailed introductions to linguistic theories of definiteness and deixis possible world theory and schema theory are included making the book accessible to readers who are unfamiliar with these frameworks

Translations In Times of Disruption David Hook, Graciela Iglesias-Rogers, 2017-10-06 This book throws light on the relevance and role played by translations and translators at times of serious discontinuity throughout history Topics explored by scholars from different continents and disciplines include war the disintegration of transnational polities health disasters and revolutions be they political social cultural and or technological Surprisingly little is known for example about the role that translated constitutions had in instigating and in shaping political crises at both a local and global level and how these events had an effect on translations themselves Similarly the role that translations played as instruments for either building or undermining empires and the extent to which interpreters could ease or hamper negotiations and foster new national identities has not been adequately acknowledged This book addresses all these issues among others through twelve studies focused not just on texts but also on instances of verbal and non verbal communications in a range of languages from around the world This interdisciplinary work will engage scholars working in fields such as Translation Studies History Modern Languages English Law Politics and Social Studies

Recreation and Style Brigid Maher, 2011-05-18 This volume explores the translation of literary and humorous style including comedy irony satire parody and the grotesque from Italian to English and vice versa The innovative and interdisciplinary theoretical approach places the focus on creativity and playful rewriting as central to the translation of humour Analysing translations of works by Rosa Cappiello Dario Fo Will Self and Anthony Burgess the author explores literary translation as a form of exchange between translated and receiving cultures In a final case study she recounts her own strategies in translating the work of Milena Agus exploring humour creation and recreation from the perspective of the translator and demonstrating the benefits of critical engagement with both the theory and the practice of translation This unique contribution to the study of humour and literary style in translation will be of interest to scholars of translation humour comparative literature and literary and cultural studies

The Palgrave Handbook of Intermediality Jørgen Bruhn, Asun López-Varela Azcárate, Miriam de Paiva Vieira, 2023-12-01 This handbook provides an extensive overview of traditional and emerging research areas within the field of intermediality studies understood broadly as the study of interrelations among all forms of communicative media types including transmedial phenomena Section I offers accounts of the development of the field of intermediality its histories theories and methods Section II and III then explore intermedial facets of communication from ancient times until the 21st century with discussion on a wide range of cultural and geographical settings media types and topics by contributors from a diverse set of disciplines It concludes in Section IV with an emphasis on urgent societal issues that an intermedial perspective might help understand

Stanley Kubrick Elisa Pezzotta,2013-07-25 Although Stanley Kubrick adapted novels and short stories his films deviate in notable ways from the source material In particular since 2001 A Space Odyssey 1968 his films seem to definitively exploit all cinematic techniques embodying a compelling visual and aural experience But as author Elisa Pezzotta contends it is for these reasons that his cinema becomes the supreme embodiment of the sublime fruitful encounter between the two arts and simultaneously of their independence Stanley Kubrick s last six adaptations 2001 A Space Odyssey A Clockwork Orange 1971 Barry Lyndon 1975 The Shining 1980 Full Metal Jacket 1987 and Eyes Wide Shut 1999 are characterized by certain structural and stylistic patterns These features help to draw conclusions about the role of Kubrick in the history of cinema about his role as an adapter and more generally about the art of cinematic adaptations The structural and stylistic patterns that characterize Kubrick adaptations seem to criticize scientific reasoning causality and traditional semantics In the history of cinema Kubrick can be considered a modernist auteur In particular he can be regarded as an heir of the modernist avant garde of the 1920s However author Elisa Pezzotta concludes that unlike his predecessors Kubrick creates a cinema not only centered on the ontology of the medium but on the staging of sublime new experiences Portraits of the Artist in "A Clockwork Orange" Anthony Burgess,2003 The Desperado Age ,
