A Mediterranean Society An Abridgment In One Volume:

A Mediterranean Society Shelomo Dov Goitein, 1999 S D Goitein's five volume work on Jewish communities in the medieval Mediterranean world has been abridged and reworked into this volume that captures the essential narratives and contexts

Mediterranean Society, An Abridgment in One Volume Goitein/Lassner, 2001 S D Goitein's magisterial five volume work on Jewish communities in the medieval Mediterranean world offers an unparalleled view of how people lived traveled worshiped and conducted their economic and social affairs Living under Muslim rule the Jews became increasingly urbanized and played a significant part in an expanding world economy As major actors in the flourishing intellectual life of the period they forged much of what constitutes traditional Judaism today and served as a conduit of Islamic learning to the Christian West Goitein's masterpiece is now abridged and reworked by Jacob Lassner in a single volume that captures the essential narratives and contexts of the original To understand the value of this distillation we need to picture the remarkable all but impenetrable cache of unique letters and documents found by accident in a geniza or repository of sacred writings in Old Cairo These materials unlike historical chronicles and literary texts of the time represent the living experiences of people in a wide variety of settings throughout the entire Mediterranean and stretching as far east as the Indian subcontinent Goitein explored and interpreted these texts as no other scholar had Lassner in turn makes Goitein's findings available to a wide audience and then moves on to raise a host of new and tantalizing questions about the Jews of the Geniza and the relationship of their community to the hegemonic Muslim society

The Business of Identity Phillip I. Ackerman-Lieberman, 2014-01-15 The Cairo Geniza is the largest and richest store of documentary evidence for the medieval Islamic world This book seeks to revolutionize the way scholars use that treasure trove Phillip I Ackerman Lieberman draws on legal documents from the Geniza to reconceive of life in the medieval Islamic marketplace In place of the shared practices broadly understood by scholars to have transcended confessional boundaries he reveals how Jewish merchants in Egypt employed distinctive trading practices Highly influenced by Jewish law these commercial practices served to manifest their Jewish identity in the medieval Islamic context In light of this distinctiveness Ackerman Lieberman proposes an alternative model for using the Geniza documents as a tool for understanding daily life in the medieval Islamic world as a whole

Iberian Crusade Fiction and the Mediterranean World David A. Wacks, 2019-09-06 Reading crusader fiction against the backdrop of Mediterranean history this book explains how Iberian authors reimagined the idea of crusade through the lens of Iberian geopolitics and social history The crusades transformed Mediterranean history and inaugurated complex engagements between Western Europe the Balkans North Africa and the Middle East in ways that endure to this day

Narratives of crusades powerfully shaped European thinking about the East and continue to influence the representation of interactions between Christian and Muslim states in the region The crusade a French idea that gave rise to Iberian North African and Levantine campaigns was very much a Mediterranean phenomenon French and English authors wrote itineraries in the Holy Land chronicles of the crusades and fanciful accounts of Christian knights who championed the Latin Church in the East This study aims to explore the ways in which Iberian authors imagined their role in the culture of crusade both as participants and interpreters of narrative traditions of the crusading world from north of the Pyrenees The Routledge

Law and Identity in Colonial South Asia Mitra Sharafi, 2014-04-21 This book explores the legal culture of the Parsis or Zoroastrians an ethnoreligious community unusually invested in the colonial legal system of British India and Burma Rather than trying to maintain collective autonomy and integrity by avoiding interaction with the state the Parsis sank deep into the colonial legal system itself From the late eighteenth century until India's independence in 1947 they became heavy users of colonial law acting as lawyers judges litigants lobbyists and legislators They de Anglicized the law that governed them and enshrined in law their own distinctive models of the family and community by two routes frequent intra group litigation often managed by Parsi legal professionals in the areas of marriage inheritance religious trusts and libel and the creation of legislation that would become Parsi personal law Other South Asian communities also turned to law but none seems to have done so earlier or in more pronounced ways than the Parsis

The Long Divergence Timur Kuran, 2012-11-11 How religious barriers stalled capitalism in the Middle East In the year 1000 the economy of the Middle East was at least as advanced as that of Europe But by 1800 the region had fallen dramatically behind in living standards technology and economic institutions In short the Middle East had failed to modernize economically as the West surged ahead What caused this long divergence And why does the Middle East remain drastically underdeveloped compared to the West In The Long Divergence one of the world's leading experts on Islamic economic institutions and the economy of the Middle East provides a new answer to these long debated questions Timur Kuran argues that what slowed the economic development of the Middle East was not colonialism or geography still less Muslim attitudes or some incompatibility between Islam and capitalism Rather starting around the tenth century Islamic legal institutions which had benefitted the Middle Eastern economy in the early centuries of Islam began to act as a drag on development by slowing or blocking the emergence of central features of modern economic life including private capital accumulation corporations large scale production and impersonal exchange By the nineteenth century modern economic institutions began to be transplanted to the Middle East but its economy has not caught up And there is no quick fix today Low trust rampant corruption and weak civil societies all characteristic of the region s economies today and all legacies of its economic history will take generations to overcome The Long Divergence opens up a frank and honest debate on a crucial issue that even some of the most ardent secularists in the Muslim world have hesitated to discuss The Talmud - A Biography Harry Freedman,2014-10-14 The story of the Talmud is the story of the Jewish people a thrilling insight into Jewish culture and a devastating account of the history of anti Semitism The Mamluk Sultanate Carl F. Petry,2022-05-26 An engaging and accessible survey of the Mamluk Sultanate which positions the realm within the development of comparative political systems from a global perspective Coming of Age in Medieval Egypt Eve Krakowski,2019-03-19 Much of what we know about life in the medieval Islamic Middle East comes from texts written to impart religious ideals or to chronicle the movements of great men How did women participate in the societies these texts describe What about non Muslims whose own religious traditions descended partly from pre Islamic late antiquity Coming of Age in Medieval Egypt approaches these questions through Jewish women s adolescence in Fatimid and Ayyubid Egypt and Syria c 969 1250 Using hundreds of everyday papers preserved in the Cairo Geniza Eve Krakowski follows the lives of girls from different social classes rich and poor secluded and physically mobile as they prepared to marry and become social adults She argues that the families on whom these girls depended were more varied fragmented and fluid than has been thought Krakowski also suggests a new approach to religious identity in premodern Islamic societies and to the history of rabbinic Judaism Through the lens of women s coming of age she demonstrates that even Jews who faithfully observed rabbinic law did not always understand the world in rabbinic terms By tracing the fault lines between rabbinic legal practice and its practitioners lives Krakowski explains how rabbinic Judaism adapted to the Islamic Middle Ages Coming of Age in Medieval Egypt offers a new way to understand how women took part in premodern Middle Eastern societies and how families and religious law worked in the medieval Islamic world Confronting Allosemitism in Europe Eliezer Ben-Rafael,2014-04-17 Only a few decades after the Holocaust Belgian Jews like most European Jewries are under the attack of forces stemming from a variety of sources How do they confront and stand these new hardships Research done all over Europe from 2012 through 2013 tried to answer this question Among the cases investigated the Belgian Jewry is one of the most interesting It is both versatile and representative revealing essential components of the general experience of European Jews today Conceptual considerations pave the way to the study of their plight that has been by any criterion anything but usual Belgian Jews it appears are like many other Jewries in Europe but a little more They highlight the question is allosemitism at all surmountable The Sheikh's House at Quseir al-Qadim Katherine Strange Burke,2021-04-30 This study of a thirteenth century dwelling on Egypt s Red Sea Coast draws on multiple lines of evidence including texts excavated at the site to reconstruct a history of the structure and the people who dwelt within The inhabitants participated in Nile Valley Red Sea Indian Ocean trade transported pilgrims sent grain to Mecca and Medina and wrote sermons and amulets for the local faithful These activities are detailed in the documents and fleshed out in the botanical faunal artifact and stratigraphic evidence from the University of Chicago's excavations 1978-82 This compound eventually consisted of two houses and a row of storerooms and became the center of mercantile activity at Quseir al Qadim Over time as the number of named individuals who received shipping notes addressed to the warehouse of Ab Mufarij increased living rooms and storerooms were added to accommodate this expansion of commerce While most merchants were dealing in textiles dates and grains additional commodities traded included perfumes gemstone decorated textiles resist dyed textiles and porcelains Specialist studies by Steven Goodman on the avian faunal remains and Wilma Wetterstrom on the macrobotanical finds reveal that the compound's occupants enjoyed a diet of chicken and Nile Valley produce such as grapes and watermelon and they were supplemented by high priced imports nuts and fruits from around the Mediterranean along with medicinal plants from as far away as India indicate the wealth and status of this family of merchants The evidence from this small portion of Quseir al Qadim yields a rich local story that is a microcosm of Nile Valley Red Sea Indian Ocean trade under the last Ayyubid sultans of Egypt
