A Problem From Hell America And The Age Of Genocide:

A Problem from Hell: America and the Age of Genocide Samantha Power, 2010-06-10 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize for Non Fiction A devastating indictment SUNDAY TIMES An important book a superb piece of reporting OBSERVER With great narrative verve and a sober and subtle intelligence she carries us deep behind the scenes of history in the making PHILIP GOUREVITCH

The Problems of Genocide A. Dirk Moses, 2021-02-04 Historically delineates the problems of genocide as a concept in relation to rival categories of mass violence

The Cambridge World History of Genocide: Volume 2, Genocide in the Indigenous, Early Modern and Imperial Worlds, from c.1535 to World War One Ned Blackhawk, Ben Kiernan, Benjamin Madley, Rebe Taylor, 2023-05-04 Volume II documents and analyses genocide and extermination throughout the early modern and modern eras It tracks their global expansion as European and Asian imperialisms and Euroamerican settler colonialism spread across the globe before the Great War forging new frontiers and impacting Indigenous communities in Europe Asia North America Africa and Australia Twenty five historians with expertise on specific regions explore examples on five continents providing comparisons of nine cases of conventional imperialism with nineteen of settler colonialism and offering a substantial basis for assessing the various factors leading to genocide This volume also considers cases where genocide did not occur permitting a global consideration of the role of imperialism and settler Indigenous relations from the sixteenth to the early twentieth centuries It ends with six pre 1918 cases from Australia China the Middle East Africa and Europe that can be seen as premonitions of the major twentieth century genocides in Europe and Asia

The Other Half of Gender Ian Bannon, Maria Correia, 2006-01-01 This book is an attempt to bring the gender and development debate full circle from a much needed focus on empowering women to a more comprehensive gender framework that considers gender as a system that affects both women and men The chapters in this book explore definitions of masculinity and male identities in a variety of social contexts drawing from experiences in Latin America the Caribbean and sub Saharan Africa It draws on a slowly emerging realization that attaining the vision of gender equality will be difficult if not impossible without changing the ways in which masculinities are defined and acted upon Although changing male gender norms will be a difficult and slow process we must begin by understanding how versions of masculinities are defined and acted upon

Problem from Hell: America and the Age of Genocide Samantha Power, 2003-05-01 In this pathbreaking interrogation of the last century of American history Power draws upon her own reporting from the modern killing fields to tell the story of American indifference and American courage in the face of the worst massacres of the 20th century 38 halftones throughout

Dissenting Voices in America's Rise to Power David Mayers, 2007-02-15 This book offers a major rereading of US foreign policy from Thomas Jefferson's purchase of Louisiana expanse to the Korean War This period of one hundred and fifty years saw the expansion of the United States from fragile republic to transcontinental giant David Mayers explores the dissenting voices which accompanied this dramatic ascent focusing on dissenters within the political and military establishment and on the recurrent patterns of dissent that have transcended particular policies and crises The most stubborn of these sprang from anxiety over the material and political costs of empire while other strands of dissent have been rooted in ideas of exigent justice realpolitik and moral duties existing beyond borders Such dissent is evident again in the contemporary world when the US occupies the position of preeminent global power Professor Mayers's study reminds us that America's path to power was not as straightforward as it might now seem

Genocide and the Europeans Karen E. Smith, 2010-10-07 Genocide is one of the most heinous abuses of human rights imaginable yet reaction to it by European governments in the post Cold War world has been criticised for not matching the severity of the crime European governments rarely agree on whether to call a situation genocide and their responses to purported genocides have often been limited to delivering humanitarian aid to victims and supporting prosecution of perpetrators in international criminal tribunals More coercive measures including sanctions or military intervention are usually rejected as infeasible or unnecessary This book explores the European approach to genocide reviewing government attitudes towards the negotiation and ratification of the 1948 Genocide Convention and analysing responses to purported genocides since the end of the Second World War Karen E Smith considers why some European governments were hostile to the Genocide Convention and why European governments have been reluctant to use the term genocide to describe atrocities ever since

State Violence and Genocide in Latin America Marcia Esparza, Henry R. Huttenbach, Daniel Feierstein, 2009-09-10 This edited volume explores political violence and genocide in Latin America during the Cold War examining this in light of the United States hegemonic position on the continent Using case studies based on the regimes of Argentina Chile Guatemala Peru and Uruguay this book shows how US foreign policy far from promoting long term political stability and democratic institutions has actually undermined them The first part of the book is an inquiry into the larger historical context in which the development of an unequal power relationship between the United States and Latin American and Caribbean nations evolved after the proliferation of the Monroe Doctrine The region came to be seen as a contested terrain in the East West conflict of the Cold War and a new US inspired ideology the National Security Doctrine was used to justify military operations and the hunting down of individuals and groups labelled as communists Following on from this historical context the book then provides an analysis of the mechanisms of state and genocidal violence is offered demonstrating how in order to get to know the internal enemy national armies relied on US intelligence training and economic aid to carry out their surveillance campaigns This book will be of interest to students of Latin American politics US foreign policy human rights and terrorism and political violence in general Marcia Esparza is an Assistant Professor in Criminal Justice Department at John Jay College of Criminal Justice in New York City Henry R Huttenbach is the Founder and Chairman of the International Academy for Genocide Prevention and Professor Emeritus of City College of the City University of New York Daniel Feierstein is the Director of the Center for Genocide Studies at the Universidad Nacional de Tres de Febrero Argentina and is a Professor in the Faculty of Genocide at the University of Buenos Aires Argentina

Humanitarianism Under Fire Ken

Rutherford, 2008 The international humanitarian intervention in Somalia was one of the most challenging operations ever conducted by US and UN military forces Until Somalia the UN had never run a Chapter VII exercise with large numbers of troops operating under a fighting mandate It became a deadly test of the UN's ability to carry out a peace operation using force against an adversary determined to sabotage the intervention Humanitarianism Under Fire is a candid detailed historical and political narrative of this remarkably complicated intervention that was one of the first cases of multilateral action in the post Cold War era Rutherford presents new information gleaned from interviews and intensive research in five countries His evidence shows how Somalia became a turning point in the relationship between the UN and US and how policy and strategy decisions in military operations continue to refer back to this singular event even today Genocide Studies Jeffrey S.

Bachman, 2024-10-11 In recent years the world has been shaken by numerous events that have caused and continue to cause massive human suffering from the COVID 19 pandemic to intrastate and interstate armed conflicts Moreover climate change continues to plow ahead contributing to growing tensions population movements and resource scarcity Meanwhile the methods by which groups and group life are threatened and the means by which violence is incited and perpetrated continue to evolve Such divergent crises even when they overlap or intersect confound definition and label This book seeks not to answer the question What is genocide but rather What is genocide studies When Raphael Lemkin coined the term genocide in 1944 he could not have foreseen what the world would look like today Now is the time to think about current manifestations of genocide and those likely to emerge in the future Genocide Adam Jones, 2016-12-16 Genocide A

Complementarity in International Criminal Law Mohamed El Zeidy, 2008-12-31 The principle of complementarity is the corner stone for the operation of the International Criminal Court ICC It organizes the functional relationship between domestic courts and the ICC This is the first careful study of the historical antecedents of the principle of complementarity which has become so central to the operation of contemporary international criminal law The study draws upon the first efforts at international prosecution after the First World War and then traces the evolution of the concept through the drafting of the 1937 treaty on terrorism and the post Second World War tribunals It examines in an exhaustive manner the work of the International Law Commission that led to the drafting of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court up to the deposit of the draft statute with the UN General Assembly in 1994 It considers the travaux pr paratoires of the Rome Statute itself in a most thorough manner It also examines the post Rome developments particularly the original interpretations of the relevant provisions of the Statute by both the Office of the Prosecutor and the Pre Trial Chambers This is a study that is of intrinsic historical interest but also one that may help to guide interpreters of the Statute in the years to come The concept of complementarity lies at the heart not only of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court it is in many respects the underlying paradigm of international criminal justice as a whole In this important study Mohamed El Zeidy has drawn on historical sources tracing the evolution of the concept and then showing how it has become operationalised in the first cases before the International Criminal Court This book belongs in the library of every international criminal lawyer Prof William A Schabas OC MRIA National University of Ireland Galway

Teaching

REPORTER Facing History and Ourselves, 2010-12 Facing History and Ourselves has developed Teaching Reporter to help classrooms explore essential questions about being a global citizen in the information age The documentary Reporter follows New York Times columnist Nicholas Kristof on a reporting trip to central Africa Watching Kristof identify stories that he thinks will galvanize readers to take action to prevent further humanitarian disasters in places such as Congo and Darfur gives us an opportunity to think about not only the role of the journalist but also our own roles as members of a global society To whom do we show compassion Under what circumstances How can information be used to encourage action on behalf of others Teaching Reporter includes materials that help students make connections between the dramatic events presented in the film and the choices they make in their own lives as creators and consumers of media By addressing issues ranging from journalistic objectivity to psychic numbing the resources in this study guide help develop students civic and media literacy skills

Redefining Genocide Doctor Damien Short, 2016-06-15 In this highly controversial and original work Damien Short systematically rethinks how genocide is and should be defined Rather than focusing solely on a narrow conception of genocide as direct mass killing through close empirical analysis of a number of under discussed case studies including Palestine Sri Lanka Australia and Alberta Canada the book reveals the key role played by settler colonialism capitalism finite resources and the ecological crisis in driving genocidal social death on a global scale

Stalin's Genocides Norman M. Naimark, 2010-07-19 The chilling story of Stalin s crimes against humanity Between the early 1930s and his death in 1953 Joseph Stalin had more than a million of his own citizens executed Millions more fell victim to forced labor deportation famine bloody massacres and detention and interrogation by Stalin s henchmen Stalin s Genocides is the chilling story of these crimes The book puts forward the important argument that brutal mass killings under Stalin in the 1930s were indeed acts of genocide and that the Soviet dictator himself was behind them Norman Naimark one of our most respected authorities on the Soviet era challenges the widely held notion that Stalin s crimes do not constitute genocide which the United Nations defines as the premeditated killing of a group of people because of their race religion or inherent national qualities In this gripping book Naimark explains how Stalin became a pitiless mass killer He looks at the most consequential and harrowing episodes of Stalin s systematic destruction of his own populace the liquidation and repression of the so called kulaks the Ukrainian famine the purge of nationalities and the Great Terror and examines them in light of other genocides in history In addition Naimark compares Stalin s crimes with those of the most notorious genocidal killer of them all Adolf Hitler

Genocide in Contemporary Children's and Young Adult Literature Jane Gangi, 2014-03-14 This book studies children s and young adult literature of genocide since 1945 considering issues of representation and using postcolonial theory to provide both literary analysis and implications for educating the young Many of the authors visited accurately and authentically portray the genocide about which they write others perpetuate stereotypes or otherwise distort demean or oversimplify In this focus on young people s literature of specific genocides Gangi profiles and critiques works on the Cambodian genocide 1975 1979 the Iraqi Kurds 1988 the Maya of Guatemala 1981 1983 Bosnia Kosovo and Srebrenica 1990s Rwanda 1994 and Darfur 2003 present In addition to critical analysis each chapter also provides historical background based on the work of prominent genocide scholars To conduct research for the book Gangi traveled to Bosnia engaged in conversation with young people from Rwanda and spoke with scholars who had traveled to or lived in Guatemala and Cambodia This book analyses the ways contemporary children typically ages ten and up are engaged in the study of genocide and addresses the ways in which child survivors who have witnessed genocide are helped by literature that mirrors their experiences
