World Of Wonders By Robertson Davies:

World of Wonders Robertson Davies, 1975 World of Wonders Elliott Hayes, Robertson Davies, Playwrights Union of Canada, 1991 World of Wonders Alf Hiltebeitel, 2022 In World of Wonders Alf Hiltebeitel addresses the Mahabharata and its supplement the Harivamsa through the critical lens of the Indian aesthetic theory of rasa juice essence or taste Rejecting the traditional reading of these texts he argues that the dominant rasa is adbhutarasa the mood of wonder The heart of his argument is that the Mahabharata and Harivamsa both deploy the terms for wonder and surprise vismaya in significant numbers that extend into every facet of these heterogeneous texts showing how adbhutarasa is at work in the rich and contrasting textual strategies which are integral to the structure of the two texts The Deptford Trilogy Robertson Davies, 1983 Fifth business A retiring Canadian history professor reveals the true nature of his eerie mystical influence on those around him The Routledge Companion to Theatre-Fiction Graham Wolfe, 2023-11-14 Novelists have long been attracted to theatre Some have pursued success on the stage but many have sought to combine these worlds entering theatre through their fiction setting stages on their novels pages and casting actors directors and playwrights as their protagonists The Routledge Companion to Theatre Fiction has convened an international community of scholars to explore the remarkable array of novelists from many eras and parts of the world who have created fiction from the stuff of theatre asking what happens to theatre on the pages of novels and what happens to novels when they collaborate with theatre From J W Goethe to Louisa May Alcott Mikhail Bulgakov Virginia Woolf and Margaret Atwood some of history's most influential novelists have written theatre fiction and this Companion discusses many of these figures from new angles But it also spotlights writers who have received less critical attention such as Dorothy Leighton Agust n de Rojas Villandrando Ronald Firbank Syed Mustafa Siraj Li Yu and Vicente Blasco Iba ez bringing their work into conversation with a vital field A valuable resource for students scholars and admirers of both theatre and novels The Routledge Companion to Theatre Fiction offers a wealth of new perspectives on topics of increasing critical concern including intermediality theatricality antitheatricality mimesis diegesis and performativity Robertson Davies' World of Wonders , 1992 The Postwar Novel in Canada Rosmarin Heidenreich, 2006-01-01 As a comparative study which includes the analysis of both English Canadian and Quebec novels this book provides an overview of the novel as it has developed in this country since the Second World War Focusing on narratological rather than thematic elements the book represents a systematic application of the insights and analytical tools of reader reception theory in particular the models proposed by Wolfgang Iser and Hans Robert Jauss Placing the emphasis on the text and its effects rather than on the historical or psycho sociological genesis of the text the author invokes the models and paradigms of other literatures to establish a broader cultural context permitting the significance of a literature to emerge as a carrier of meaning in and beyond the culture that produces it Tracing a critical path from Hugh MacLennan's hierarchic romance structures and Gabrielle Roy's social realism to the metafiction of Hubert Aquin and Timothy Findley the author reveals that the novel's narratological features themselves are often closely linked with ideological positions

Women with Disabilities Michelle Fine, Adrienne Asch, 1988 Women with disabilities are women first sharing the dreams and disappointments common to women in a male dominated society But because society persists in viewing disability as an emblem of passivity and incompetence disabled women occupy a devalued status in the social hierarchy This book represents the intersection of the feminist and disability rights perspectives it analyzes the forces that push disabled women towards the margins of social life and it considers the resources that enable these women to resist the stereotype Drawing on law social science folklore literature psychoanalytic theory and political activism this book describes the experience of women with disabilities The essays consider the impact of social class race the age at which disability occurs and sexual orientation on the disabled woman's self esteem as well as on her life options The contributors focus their inquiry on the self perceptions of disabled women and ask From what sources do these women draw positive self images How do they resist the culture's power to label them as deviant The essays describe the ways in which disabled women face discrimination in the workplace and the failure of the mainstream women's movement to address their concerns In the series Health Society and Policy edited by Sheryl Ruzek and Irving Kenneth Zola

Unlikely Muse Daniel Kornstein, 2010 This trail blazing book explores previously uncharted aspects of law and literature as well as the psychology paradoxes and wonderful mystery of creativity A study of artistic inspiration Unlikely Muse examines and analyzes the lives and works of three very different writers who combine law literature and imagination nineteenth century French novelist Honor de Balzac modernist American poet Wallace Stevens and controversial playwright memoirist Lillian Hellman From the literary careers of those three writers emerge two intertwined and exciting new themes The first theme demonstrates unexpected synergy between law and literature Opening original lines of inquiry Unlikely Muse probes the possible relationship between legal training and artistic creativity A surprisingly large number of great creative artists writers such as Balzac poets such as Stevens painters such as Matisse and composers such as Tchaikovsky studied or practiced law This book asks whether such people became great creative artists because of or despite their legal background Others such as Hellman had no legal training but wrote much about the law This book sketches the intellectual atmosphere and biographical background that shaped these three writers creative process highlighting the impact of the law on their work The second theme uses these same three writers to focus on the changing role of imagination in literature From Balzac through Stevens to Hellman and beyond the author traces imagination's arc from a positive artistic quality to something that is sometimes more controversial perhaps deceitful and negative In the last few decades ever since Hellman's memoirs were attacked as untrue journalists memoirists and other writers have palmed off works of fiction as non fiction often causing literary scandals This book offers a new theory why this phenomenon is happening and how it should be regarded

Peripheral Fear Gerry Turcotte, 2009 This is a pioneering work published here for the first time in its complete form At a time when Gothic studies still concentrated on traditional European and American Gothic the author laid the foundations for the exploration of how Gothic conventions were transported and transformed in places remote from Europe Through a detailed reading of 19th and 20th century examples of Canadian and Australian Gothic fiction this work demonstrates the transformative potential of a once much maligned mode in what were arguably neglected national literatures About Face John Reeves, 1990 Essays on Canadian Writing , 1988 The Ph.D. Trap Revisited Wilfred Cude, 2000-10 This book lays bare the faults of the Ph D program showing that in most disciplines it is savage mechanical and cruel Majesty in Canada Colin Coates, 2006-02-04 On the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of Queen Elizabeth s accession to the throne the Centre of Canadian Studies of the University of Edinburgh hosted its annual conference on the theme Majesty in Canada The essays that were presented at that conference reflect the wide ranging recognitions of the different roles that monarchs and their representatives have played in Canada The essays examine how Canadians have understood their ties to royalty and how the regal principle formed an important part of the national identity Royal tours vice regal initiatives representations of the sovereign s power and Canadian appeals to monarchical sentiments comprise the themes of these engaging essays providing an up to date look at the historical and current personal influence of the Crown in Canada An Independent Stance W. J. Keith, 1991 Part One of this strongly worded informed and wide ranging collection examines key issues for the future of Canadian criticism Part Two offers new readings of important works by Grove Wilson MacLennan Davies Laurence Hood Wiebe Hodgins and Atwood As W J Keith argues We still have a mission to have our literature recognized as an essential reflection of our national life This is what I mean by retrenchment and consolidation Literature can survive without literary criticism but it cannot survive if it is unknown and unread It is criticism s prime function at the present time to see that it is both known and read with that mature enjoyment which is a combination of emotional sensitivity and humane intelligence As critics scholars editors we shall not be fulfilling our responsibilities or justifying our existence if we attempt anything less Or as Keith modestly observes in his introduction to this collection If this book is of any interest it will be because Canadian literature is an important subject Literary commentators like myself are middle men and should be prepared to admit the fact If this book succeeds in helping readers to appreciate the works of Canadian writers that I discuss and to derive increased pleasure and insight from them it will have served its purpose I can see no other justification for it or for any other work of criticism The Contemporary Novel Irving Adelman, Rita Dworkin, 1997-10-09 In this new edition what was already an expansive work has been updated and further enlarged to include information not only on American and British novelists but also on writers in English from around the world The Poetic Enigma of Alfred de Vigny Denise Bonhomme, 2003 This book is devoted to the veiled message transmitted in the works of famous authors over a period of centuries Esoteric literature is the massive body of Western and other writings containing a philosophical contraband ever the same under a deceptive variety of surfaces or veils In the words of Marcel Proust the great writers have never done but one work Alfred de Vigny a nineteenth century poet novelist and playwright belongs to the literary brotherhood involved in the transmission of the concealed message Rabelais Voltaire Anatole France Ibsen and Proust are only a few of his fellow smugglers English and American literatures have their share of such writers So does the literary heritage of other European nations and of Latin America This book contains a glossary of major key words of the verbal algebra used by esoteric writers Sensitive readers are encouraged to read the biography and the glossary first and the poetry of Vigny next This will enable some of them to discover by and for themselves the full beauty and depth of the texts Extraordinary findings await the esoteric readers of the literary production of Vigny There are hints of the greatness of Atlantis There is a vast panorama of Time and Space There are suggestions of a startling view of the inner structure of planet Earth a view that is also reflected in the various utopias of classical authors Last but not least there is the generally unsuspected radiant reality of the works and the life of Vigny Please visit www.degn.org Bonhomme Interpreting Literary Texts Michael Giffin, 2024-09-12 This book considers how textual interpretation has been influenced by post Kantian philosophy and aesthetics particularly the cultural transition from the correspondence theory of knowledge and truth to Nietzschean perspectivism and the canonical transition from Classicism to Romanticism to Modernism to Postmodernism It discusses the principles of interpretation the concept of reason logos and how the West's model of mind evolved The novels of Jane Austen introduce the concept of Classicism including her debt to Aristotle's thinking about Tragedy and Comedy in Poetics The two trajectories of Romanticism are discussed the philosophical trajectory through Berlin's idea of Counter Enlightenment the immanent critique of metaphysics and the aesthetic trajectory through Blake's vision of what is possible if the doors of perception can be cleansed The novels of Australia's Patrick White introduce the concept of Modernism and his attempt to imagine the real The novels of Margaret Atwood introduce the concept of Postmodernism tracing her literary evolution from an author focused on female identity to one concerned with the future of humanity The novels of Graham Greene and Muriel Spark are discussed as two different Catholic responses to Modernism The novels of Marilynne Robinson and Douglas Wilson are discussed as two different Protestant responses to Calvinism Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study
