Aesthetics In A Multicultural Age:

Aesthetics in a Multicultural Age Emory Elliott, Louis Freitas Caton, Jeffrey Rhyne, 2002 Papers from conference titled Aesthetics and Difference held October 22-24 1998 by the Center for Ideas and Society at the University of California Riverside Aesthetics in a Multicultural Age Emory Elliott, Lou Freitas Caton, Jeffrey Rhyne, 2002-01-10 Aesthetics in a Multicultural Age examines a variety of significant multidisciplinary and multicultural topics within the subject of aesthetics Addressing the vexed relation of the arts and criticism to current political and cultural concerns the contributors to this volume attempt to bridge the two decades old gap between scholars and critics who hold conflicting views of the purposes of art and criticism By exploring some of the ways in which global migration and expanding ethnic diversity are affecting cultural productions and prompting reassessment of the nature and role of aesthetic discourse this volume provides a new evaluation of aesthetic ideas and practices within contemporary arts and letters The Aesthetics of Uncertainty Janet Wolff, 2008 Abstract Reading American Novels and Multicultural Aesthetics L. Caton, 2007-12-25 Using romantic theories Caton analyzes America's contemporary novel Organized through the two sections of Theory and Practice Reading American Novels and Multicultural Aesthetics begins with a study of aesthetic form only to have it reveal the content of politics and history This presentation immediately offers a unified platform for an interchange between multiple cultural and aesthetic positions Romantic theory provides for an integrated examination of diversity one that metaphorically fosters a solid inclusive and democratic legitimacy for intercultural communication This politically astute cosmopolitan appreciation will generate an intriguing cross over audience from ethnic studies to American studies and from literary studies to romantic studies this book will interest a range of readers Feminist Aesthetics and the Politics of Modernism Ewa Płonowska Ziarek, 2012 Ewa Ziarek fully articulates a feminist aesthetics focusing on the struggle for freedom in women's literary and political modernism and the devastating impact of racist violence and sexism She examines the contradiction between women's transformative literary and political practices and the oppressive realities of racist violence and sexism and she situates these tensions within the entrenched opposition between revolt and melancholia in studies of modernity and within the friction between material injuries and experimental aesthetic forms Ziarek's political and aesthetic investigations concern the exclusion and destruction of women in politics and literary production and the transformation of this oppression into the inaugural possibilities of writing and action Her study is one of the first to combine an in depth engagement with philosophical aesthetics especially the work of Theodor W Adorno with women's literary modernism particularly the writing of Virginia Woolf and Nella Larsen along with feminist theories on the politics of race and gender By bringing seemingly apolitical gender neutral debates about modernism's experimental forms together with an analysis of violence and destroyed materialities Ziarek challenges both the anti aesthetic subordination of modern literature to its political uses and the appreciation of art's emancipatory potential at the expense of feminist and anti racist political struggles Political

Aesthetics Arundhati Virmani, 2015-09-07 Political Aesthetics highlights the complex and ambiguous connections of aesthetics with social cultural and political experiences in contemporary societies If today aesthetics seems a rather overused term mixing a variety of historical realities and complex personal states of being its relevance as a connecting agent between individual state and society is stronger than ever The actual context of political and economic crisis generates new relations between official imposed aesthetics and the resistance and critiques they trigger Considered beyond the poles of power and protest the book examines how traditional or innovative artistic practices may acquire unexpected capacities of subversion It nourishes the current debate around the new political stakes of aesthetics as an inviolable right of ordinary citizens an essential element of empowerment and agency in a democratic every day It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations political culture and political aesthetics as well as critical sociology and history It will also be useful for some broad courses in media studies cultural studies and sociology American Multiculturalism in Context Sāmi

Ludwig, 2017-03-07 In March 2015 a group of experts from four continents and a wide range of disciplines met with the leading African American writer Ishmael Reed in Mulhouse France and Basel Switzerland Guided by Swiss cultural and literary theorist Sāmi Ludwig and deliberately migrating back and forth across a political border in the heart of Europe they not only listened to Reed and discussed his work but also looked more widely at the different meanings assigned to multiculturalism in the United States Europe and other parts of the world This volume brings together their reflections

American Literature's Aesthetic Dimensions Cindy Weinstein, Christopher Looby, 2012 Rethinking the category of aesthetics in light of recent developments in literary theory and social criticism the contributors to this volume showcase the interpretive possibilities available to those who bring politics culture ideology and conceptions of identity into their critiques Essays combine close readings of individual works and authors with more theoretical discussions of aesthetic theory and its relation to American literature In their introduction Weinstein and Looby argue that aesthetics never left American literary critique Instead the essay casts the current return to aesthetics as the natural consequence of shortcomings in deconstruction and new historicism which led to a reconfiguration of aesthetics Subsequent essays demonstrate the value and versatility of aesthetic considerations in literature from eighteenth century poetry to twentieth century popular music Organized into four groups politics form gender and theory contributors revisit the canonical works of Henry James Nathaniel Hawthorne and Stephen Crane introduce the overlooked texts of Constance Fenimore Woolson and Earl Lind and unpack the complexities of the music of The Carpenters Deeply rooted in an American context these essays explore literature's aesthetic dimensions in connection to American liberty and the formation of political selfhood Contributors include Edward Cahill Ivy G Wilson June Ellison Dorri Beam Christopher Castiglia Christopher Looby Wendy Steiner Cindy Weinstein Trish Loughran Jonathan Freedman Elisa New Dorothy Hale Mary Esteve Eric Lott Sianne Ngai Art History Versus Aesthetics James Elkins, 2012-11-12 In this unprecedented collection over twenty of the world's most prominent thinkers on the subject including Arthur Danto Stephen Melville Wendy Steiner Alexander Nehamas and Jay Bernstein ponder the disconnect between these two disciplines The volume has a radically innovative structure it begins with introductions and centres on an animated conversation among ten historians and aestheticians That conversation was then sent to twenty scholars for commentary and their responses are very diverse some are informal letters and others full essays with footnotes Some think they have the answer in hand and others raise yet more questions The volume ends with two synoptic essays one by a prominent aesthetician and the other by a literary critic This stimulating inaugural volume in the Routledge The Art Seminar series presents not one but many answers to the question Does philosophy have anything to say to art history Uneasy

Alliance ,2004-01-01 Uneasy Alliance illuminates the recent search in literary studies for a new interface between textual and contextual readings Written in tribute to G A M Janssens the twenty one essays in the volume exemplify a renewed awareness of the paradoxical nature of literary texts both as works of literary art and as documents embedded in and functioning within a writer s life and culture Together they offer fresh and often interdisciplinary perspectives on twentieth century American writers of more or less established status Henry James Edna St Vincent Millay E E Cummings Vladimir Nabokov Flannery O Connor Saul Bellow Michael Ondaatje Toni Morrison and Sandra Cisneros as well as on those who for reasons of fashion politics ideology or gender have been unduly neglected Booth Tarkington Julia Peterkin Robert Coates Martha Gellhorn Isabella Gardner Karl Shapiro the young Jewish American writers Julia Alvarez and writers of popular crime and detective fiction Exploring the fruitful interactions and uneasy alliance between literature and ethics film biography gender studies popular culture avant garde art urban studies anthropology and multicultural studies together these essays testify to the ongoing pertinence of an approach to literature that is undogmatic sensitive and sophisticated and that seeks to do justice to the complex interweavings of literature culture and biography in twentieth century American writing The Ideologies of Japanese Tea Tim Cross,2009-09-01 This provoking new study of the Japanese tea ceremony chanoyu examines the ideological foundation of its place in history and the broader context of Japanese cultural values where it has emerged as a so called quintessential component of the culture It was in fact Sen Soshitsu XI grandmaster of Urasenke today the most globally prominent tea school who argued in 1872 that tea should be viewed as the expression of the moral universe of the nation A practising teamaster himself the author argues however that tea was many other things it was privilege politics power and the lever for passion and commitment in the theatre of war Through a methodological framework rooted in current approaches he demonstrates how the iconic images as supposedly timeless examples of Japanese tradition have been the subject of manipulation as ideological tools and speaks to presentations of cultural identity in Japanese society today

Bilingual Aesthetics Doris Sommer,2004-04-07 An analysis of the changing status of bi and multi lingualness in relation to issues of citizenship ethnicity and diversity The Limits of Critique Rita Felski,2015-10-20 Felski frees critics from relying on critique as the gatekeeper of literary studies and offers a prescient guide to life in a postcritical world Los Angeles

Review of Books Why must critics unmask and demystify literary works Why do they believe that language is always withholding some truth that the critic's task is to reveal the unsaid or repressed In this book Rita Felski examines critique the dominant form of interpretation in literary studies and situates it as but one method among many a method with strong allure but also definite limits Felski argues that critique is a sensibility best captured by Paul Ricoeur's phrase the hermeneutics of suspicion She shows how this suspicion toward texts forecloses many potential readings while providing no guarantee of rigorous or radical thought Instead she suggests literary scholars should try what she calls postcritical reading rather than looking behind a text for hidden causes and motives literary scholars should place themselves in front of it and reflect on what it suggests and makes possible By bringing critique down to earth and exploring new modes of interpretation The Limits of Critique offers a fresh approach to the relationship between artistic works and the social world Perhaps the most ambitious reappraisal of the discipline to appear since theory's heyday Times Literary Supplement A book that will get all of us to take another look at what we've been doing The Limits of Critique will shock some and elate others No one will feel neutral and no one can afford not to read this book Wai Chee Dimock author of Weak Planet Literature and Assisted Survival

A Companion to Contemporary Art Since 1945 Amelia Jones, 2009-02-09 A Companion to Contemporary Art is a major survey covering the major works and movements the most important theoretical developments and the historical social political and aesthetic issues in contemporary art since 1945 primarily in the Euro American context Collects 27 original essays by expert scholars describing the current state of scholarship in art history and visual studies and pointing to future directions in the field Contains dual chronological and thematic coverage of the major themes in the art of our time politics culture wars public space diaspora the artist identity politics the body and visual culture Offers synthetic analysis as well as new approaches to debates central to the visual arts since 1945 such as those addressing formalism the avant garde the role of the artist technology and art and the society of the spectacle Literary Gestures Rocio G Davis, Sue-Im Lee, 2009-08-31 Form as function in Asian American literature Returning (to) Communities, 2016-08-22 Returning to Communities offers an innovative collection of examples and case studies into what has become a hotly disputed topic The chapters present a wide ranging series of interventions into the new debates over the concepts and practices of community and the communal For this book scholars have been gathered from across Europe and Australia as well as from the United States and several contributors are involved in community practice Returning to Communities is essential reading to researchers and students in social policy sociology ethnic studies cultural analysis media studies and across all of the social sciences and humanities concerned with the communal and the collective Space in America Klaus Benesch, Kerstin Schmidt, 2005 America's sense of space has always been tied to what Hayden White called the narrativization of real events If the awe inspiring manifestations of nature in America Niagara Falls Virginia's Natural Bridge the Grand Canyon etc were often used as a foil for projecting utopian visions and idealizations of the nation's exceptional place among the nations of the world the rapid technological progress and its concomitant appropriation of natural spaces served equally well as David Nye argues to promote the dominant cultural idiom of exploration and conquest From the beginning American attitudes towards space were thus utterly contradictory if not paradoxical a paradox that scholars tried to capture in such hybrid concepts as the middle landscape Leo Marx an engineered New Earth Cecelia Tichi or the technological sublime David Nye Not only was America's concept of space paradoxical it has always also been a contested terrain a site of continuous social and cultural conflict Many foundational issues in American history the dislocation of Native and African Americans the geo political implications of nation building immigration and transmigration the increasing division and clustering of contemporary American society etc involve differing ideals and notions of space Quite literally space and its various ideological appropriations formed the arena where America's search for identity national political cultural has been staged If American democracy as Frederick Jackson Turner claimed is born of free land then its history may well be defined as the history of the fierce struggles to gain and maintain power over both the geographical social and political spaces of America and its concomitant narratives The number and range of topics interests and critical approaches of the essays gathered here open up exciting new avenues of inquiry into the tangled contentious relations of space in America Topics include Theories of Space Landscape Nature Technoscape Architecture Urban Utopia Literature Performance Film Visual Arts

Drifting among Rivers and Lakes Michael Fuller, 2020-10-26 What drives literary change Does literature merely follow shifts in a culture or does it play a distinctive role in shaping emergent trends Michael Fuller explores these questions while examining the changes in Chinese ship poetry from the late Northern Song dynasty 960 1127 to the end of the Southern Song 1127 1279 a period of profound social and cultural transformation Shi poetry written in response to events was the dominant literary genre in Song dynasty China serving as a central form through which literati explored meaning in their encounters with the world By the late Northern Song however old models for meaning were proving inadequate and Daoxue Neo Confucianism provided an increasingly attractive new ground for understanding the self and the world Drifting among Rivers and Lakes traces the intertwining of the practice of poetry writings on poetics and the debates about Daoxue that led to the cultural synthesis of the final years of the Southern Song and set the pattern for Chinese society for the next six centuries Examining the writings of major poets and Confucian thinkers of the period Fuller discovers the slow evolution of a complementarity between poetry and Daoxue in which neither discourse was self sufficient
