Troy,2002 Anni Albers was a founding member of the Bauhaus weaving workshop Her teachers and colleagues at the Bauhaus included Itten Kandinsky and Klee whose intellectual study of primitive art proved crucial both in raising the status of that art and in establishing a model for the discussion of modern abstract work Albers own investigation of the techniques and abstract designs of ancient American weavers led her to argue that their skill was unsurpassed in the modern world and to employ those techniques in her own work Virginia Gardner Troy continues Albers story beyond the Nazi closure of the Bauhaus to her emigration to America and subsequent association with the Black Mountain College Albers was able to build up a significant collection of ancient Peruvian textile art and to establish an international reputation for her own textiles Extensively illustrated this book offers a fascinating insight into Anni Albers work and the history of the re evaluation of ancient skills and techniques in weaving Primitivism and Twentieth-century Art Jack D. Flam,Miriam Deutch,2003

This is a much needed important collection a goldmine of sources for scholars and students The texts articulate the key Primitivist aesthetic discourses of the period offering crucial insight into the complex and always changing nexus between culture politics and representation Because of the breadth of the materials covered and the controversies they raise this anthology is one of the all too rare volumes that not only will provide reference materials for years to come but also will feature centrally in classroom discussions Suzanne Preston Blier author of African Vodun Art Psychology and Power For almost a century art historians have fretted about the notion of primitivism in the arts This comprehensive in both senses of the word anthology is a peerless source of the history of responses to works categorized as primitive In its range the book touches upon all the troubling questions formal anthropological political historical that have bedeviled the study of the arts of Oceania Africa and North and South America and provides the grounds at last for intelligent pursuit of keener distinctions I regard this book as a superb contribution to the study of Modern art in fact indispensable Dore Ashton author of Noguchi East and West An extraordinarily useful and complete collection of primary documents many translated for the first time into English and almost all unlikely to be encountered elsewhere without serious effort Its five sections each with a lively and scholarly introduction reveal the diverse views of artists and writers on primitive art from Matisse Picasso and Fry to many far less known and sometimes surprising figures The book also uncovers the politics and aesthetics of the major museum exhibitions that gained acceptance for art that had been both reviled and mythologized Recent texts included are all germane This book will be invaluable for any college course on the topic Shelly Errington author of The Death of Authentic Primitive Art and Other Tales of Progress An exceptionally valuable anthology of seventy documents most heretofore unavailable in English on the ongoing controversies surrounding Primitivism and Modern art Insightfully chosen and annotated the collection is brilliantly introduced by Jack Flam s essay on the historical progression contexts and cultural complexities of more than one hundred years ideas about Primitivism Rich timely illuminating Herbert M Cole author of Icons Ideals and Power in the Art of Africa The Dispute of the New World Antonello Gerbi, 2010-06-20 Translated by Jeremy Moyle When Hegel described the Americas as an inferior continent he was repeating a contention that inspired one of the most passionate debates of modern times Originally formulated by the eminent natural scientist Georges Louis Leclerc Comte de Buffon and expanded by the Prussian encyclopedist Cornelius de Pauw this provocative thesis drew heated responses from politicians philosophers publicists and patriots on both sides of the Atlantic The ensuing polemic reached its apex in the latter decades of the eighteenth century and is far from extinct today Translated into English in 1973 The Dispute of the New World is the definitive study of this debate Antonello Gerbi scrutinizes each contribution to the debate unravels the complex arguments and reveals their inner motivations As the story of the polemic unfolds moving through many disciplines that include biology economics anthropology theology geophysics and poetry it becomes clear that the subject at issue is nothing less than the totality of the Old World versus the New and how each viewed the other at a vital turning point in history FBIS Daily Report , 1990 Museums in Postcolonial Europe Dominic Thomas, 2013-09-13 The history of European nation building and identity formation is inextricably connected with museums and the role they play in displaying the acquired spoils and glorious symbols of geopolitical power in order to mobilize public support for expansionist ventures This book examines the contemporary debate surrounding the museum in postcolonial Europe Although there is no consensus on the European colonial experience the process of decolonization in Europe has involved an examination of the museum s place and ethnic minorities and immigrants have insisted upon improved representation in the genealogies of European nation states

Museological practices have been subjected to greater scrutiny in light of these political and social transformations. In addition to the refurbishment and restructuring of colonial era museums, new spaces have also been inaugurated to highlight the contemporary importance of museums in postcolonial Europe as well as the significance of incorporating the perspective of postcolonial European populations into these spaces. This book includes contributions from leading experts in their fields and represents a comparative trans historical and transcolonial examination which contextualises and reinterprets the legacies and experiences of European museums. This book was published as a special issue of Africa and Black Diaspora: An International Journal.

Grasping the World Donald Preziosi, Claire Farago, 2019-07-23. First published in 2004, this volume recognises that there is much more to museums than the documenting, monumentalizing or theme parking of identity, history and heritage. This landmark anthology aims to make strange the very existence of museums and to plot a critical historical and ethical understanding of their origins and history. A radical selection of key texts introduces the reader to the intense investigation of the modern European idea of the museum that has taken place over the last fifty years. Texts first published in journals and books are brought together in one volume with up to the minute and specially commissioned pieces by leading administrators, curators and art historians. The selections are organized by key themes that map the evolution of the debate and introduced by Donald Preziosi and Claire Farago, two considerable critics who write with the edge and enthusiasm of art historians who have spent their lives working with museums. Grasping the World is an invaluable resource for students and teachers of art history and museum studies.

The Anthropology of Art Howard Morphy, Morgan Perkins, 2009-02-04. This anthology provides a single volume overview of the essential theoretical debates in the anthropology of art. Drawing together significant work in the field from the second half of the twentieth century, it enables readers to appreciate the art of different cultures at different times. Advances a cross cultural concept of art that moves beyond traditional distinctions between Western and non Western art. Provides the basis for the appreciation of art of different cultures and times. Enhances readers' appreciation of the aesthetics of art and of the important role it plays in human society.
