From That Flame MaryAnn T. Beverly,2007 From that Flame follows the journey of a female journalist Michelle Garrett into Afghanistan s rugged Hindu Kush Mountains as she attempts to interview the legendary Commander Massoud In the process an attack by combined Taliban and al Qaeda troops propels Michelle Garrett into a wartime adventure with Commander Massoud and his Mujahidin As the novel progresses a friendship between the journalist and the Afghan commander grows giving her a unique perspective into the man the Wall Street Journal credited as the Afghan who ended the Cold War The novel is best described as a well researched blend of fact and credible fiction A Bed of Red Flowers Nelofer Pazira,2005-10-01 Written with compassion intelligence and insight A Bed of Red Flowers is a profoundly moving portrait of life under occupation and the unforgettable story of a family a people and a country The picnic of the red flower is a traditional time of celebration for Afghans One of Nelofer Pazira s earliest memories is of people gathering in the countryside to admire the tulips and poppies carpeting the landscape It is the mid 1970s and her parents are building a future for themselves and their young children in the city of Kabul But when Nelofer is just five the Communists take power and her father a respected doctor is imprisoned along with thousands of other Afghans The following year the Russians invade Afghanistan which becomes a police state and the center of a bloody conflict between the Soviet army and American backed mujahidin fighters A climate of violence and fear reigns For Nelofer there is no choice but to grow up fast At eleven she and her friends throw stones at the Russian tanks that stir up dust and animosity in the streets of Kabul As a teenager she joins a resistance group hiding her gun from her parents Her emotional refuge is her friendship with her classmate Dyana with whom she shares a passion for poetry dreams and a better life After a decade of war Nelofer s family escapes across the mountains to Pakistan and later to Canada where she continues to write to Dyana When her friend suddenly stops writing Nelofer fears for Dyana s life With lyrical narrative prose A Bed of Red Flowers movingly tells Pazira s haunting story as well as Afghanistan s story as a nation Cruel Harvest Julien Mercille,2012-12-09 This book lifts the lid on the reality of Afghanistan s growing drug trade and the role played by the US military in its trajectory Where conventional accounts blame the Taliban for the expansion of drug production Cruel Harvest shows that the US shares responsibility by supporting drug lords refusing to adopt effective drug control policies and failing to crack down on drug money laundered through Western banks Julien Mercille argues that the best way to address drug problems is by reducing demand in consumer countries not by conducting fruitless and damaging counter narcotics missions in Afghanistan Taliban Ahmed Rashid,2022-09-06 This

New York Times best seller remains the most informative and objective account of the Taliban available This modern classic brings the shadowy world of the Taliban and its impact on Afghanistan the Middle East and Central Asia into sharp focus Ahmed Rashid offers an authoritative account of the Taliban's rise to power the effects of changing American attitudes toward it and the new faces of Islamic fundamentalism and explains why Afghanistan has become the world's center for international terrorism This edition updated in view of the Taliban's resurgence and sudden renewed purchase on Afghanistan's major cities explores how the group regained its strength and broadened its geographical reach It is a must read for anyone seeking to understand the events that unfolded in 2021 following America's withdrawal from the country after twenty years of war
