African American Community Nurturing Adulthood:

Successful African-American Men Sandra Taylor Griffin, 2007-05-08 Statistics emphasize that one out of every five men is incarcerated. The background experiences of dysfunctional black men are often explored while few studies focus on the motivating triggers for high achieving black men. Successful African American Men From Childhood to Adulthood is a unique study of the nurturing behavioral settings that high achieving black men used as adolescents and examines whether social capital played a role in helping them negotiate their way out of disadvantage. Equally important is how these settings accommodated the men's diversity, complexity and the influence of black culture and reconciled it to their ability to respond and cope with mainstream America. This volume will be of interest to psychologists, sociologists, anthropologists and others interested in the rich diversity of experience found within communities of color. The Oxford Handbook of Adult Cognitive Disorders Robert A. Stern (Ph. D.), Michael L. Alosco, 2019 The Oxford Handbook of Adult Cognitive Disorders is an up to date scholarly and comprehensive volume that covers most diseases, conditions and injuries resulting in impairments in cognitive function in adults. The Handbook is appropriate for both clinicians and clinical researchers from advanced trainees to seasoned professionals. African-American Children at Church Wendy L. Haight, 2002 African American Children at Church explores African American socialization beliefs and practices based on findings of a unique four year long study in a Baptist church in Salt Lake City, Utah. By combining the ethnographic approaches of anthropology with the detailed naturalistic observations of developmental psychology, Dr. Haight provides a rich description of actual socialization practices along with an interpretation of what those patterns mean to the participants themselves. Based on extensive interviews with successful African American adults involved with children, this book begins with the exploration of adults' beliefs about socialization issues, focusing on the role of religion in the development of resilience. Drawing from naturalistic observations of adult-child interaction, the book then describes actual socialization contexts and practices that help to nurture competencies in African American children. The text focuses on Sunday School and includes narrative practices and patterns of adult-child conflict and play. Reaching, Teaching and Growing African-American Believers G. Lovelace Champion, George Champion Sr., 2004-11 Reaching, Teaching and Growing African American Believers promotes Christian education in all churches, particularly African American churches for adults, youth and children. Christian Education A Fragile Freedom Erica Armstrong Dunbar, 2008-10-01 Chronicling the lives of African American women in the urban north of America, particularly Philadelphia during the early years of the republic. A Fragile Freedom investigates how they journeyed from enslavement to the precarious state of free persons in the decades before the Civil War. Revised Spiritual Reflections of a Blackman David L. Cain, 2005-07-15 Originally published in 1997 David L Cain revisited the personal journals that inspired the The Spiritual Reflections of a Black Man The new insights pick up where the original left off and cover a variety of current events that include accepting our differences adopting high values dealing with adversity and making tough life choices By reflecting on life events spiritually we show God that we are ready to learn His promise of ask and it shall be opened unto you has never been and never will be broken We simply have to ask in the right context and since God is a Spirit then it stands to reason that the right context is spiritual Nurturing Different Dreams

Katherine Turpin, Anne Walker, 2014-10-09 Increasingly adolescents and young adults in the United States are racially and socioeconomically diverse while the teaching population remains predominantly white and middle class Many youth ministry programs that utilize volunteer mentors recruit adults who are ill equipped to bridge cultural differences and effectively build sustainable relationships with adolescents who come from different backgrounds than their own College and university campus ministries that are historically white struggle to provide adequate support and mentoring for students who have traditionally not been represented in the college population Often mentoring relationships break down over cultural misunderstandings As educators who come from backgrounds marked by privilege Katherine Turpin and Anne Carter Walker draw from their experiences in an intentionally culturally diverse youth ministry program to name the challenges and inadequacies of ministry with young people from marginalized communities Through engaging case studies and vignettes the authors re examine the assumptions about youth agency vocational development educational practice and mentoring Offering concrete guidelines and practices for working effectively across lines of difference Nurturing Different Dreams invites readers to consider their own cultural assumptions and practices for mentoring adolescents and assists readers in analyzing and transforming their practices of mentoring young people who come from different communities than their own

Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl, Richard Wright's Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun. It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Bigger Thomas, Coffin Ed Johnson, Kunta Kinte, Sula, Peace, as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima, Brer Rabbit, John Henry, Stackolee, and the trickster. Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali, John Coltrane, Marcus Garvey, Jackie Robinson, John Brown, and Harriet Tubman. Here too are general articles on poetry, fiction, and drama; on autobiography, slave narratives, Sunday School literature, and oratory, as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics. Compact yet thorough, this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women's clubs, making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing, exciting world of African American literature.

Handbook of Religion and Society David Yamane, 2016-07-15 The Handbook of Religion and Society is the most comprehensive and up to date treatment of a vital force in the world today. It is an indispensable resource for scholars, students, policy makers, and other professionals seeking to understand the role of religion in society. This includes both the social forces that shape religion and the social consequences of religion. This handbook captures the breadth and depth of contemporary work in the field and shows readers important future directions for scholarship. Among the emerging topics covered in the handbook are biological functioning, organizational innovation, digital religion, spirituality, atheism, and transnationalism. The relationship of religion to other significant social institutions like work and entrepreneurship, science, and sport is also analyzed. Specific attention is paid where appropriate to international issues as well as to race, class, sexuality, and gender differences. This handbook includes 27 chapters by a distinguished, diverse, and international collection of experts organized into 6 major sections: religion and social institutions, religious organization, family life, course and individual change, difference and inequality, political and legal processes, and globalization and transnationalism.
