African Art in Motion Robert Farris Thompson, 1979-01-01 African Art in Motion Robert Farris Thompson, 1974

African Art in Motion Robert Farris Thompson, 2023-12-22 This captivating book offers an in depth exploration of the profound relationship between dance art and objects in African culture focusing on the ways in which movement breathes life into static forms In many parts of Africa dance extends beyond the human body uniting with everyday objects such as spinning tops and cutlasses transforming them into vibrant autonomous works of art The Tiv people of Nigeria exemplify this philosophy where the motion of a spinning top or a twirling blade is imbued with the same artistic essence as human dance This broader conception of dance highlights a fundamental principle in African art the fusion of movement form and life Motion in this context is not just a performance but a bridge to sacred realms where the aliveness of an image or object is essential for it to function as a work of art The book further delves into the unity of African art forms where sculpture dance music and visual objects are all intertwined creating a holistic aesthetic experience Famous examples such as the Basinjom mask of Cameroon illustrate how art maintains its vitality even in stillness requiring ceremonial practices to anchor its powerful presence The author explores how these performances and objects combine not only to enhance the visual brilliance of the art but also to create metaphors for ethical and spiritual existence This seamless integration of the arts provides a rich framework for understanding the icons of African culture attitudes of the body like standing sitting and balancing which transcend time evoking themes of stability flexibility and balance Through this lens the book offers a journey into the timeless poetic world of African danced art where physical movement and artistic expression unite to reveal deeper truths about life and spirit This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1974

Methodology, Ideology and Pedagogy of African Art Moyo Okediji, 2024-02-14

This edited volume including contributions from scholars with different areas of specialization investigates a broad range of methodologies ideologies and pedagogies focusing on the study of the art of Africa using theoretical reflections and applications from primitivism to metamodernism Chapters break the externally imposed boundaries of Africa related works beyond the conventional fragments of traditional contemporary and diaspora The contributions are significantly broad in their methodologies ideologies and pedagogical coverage yet they all address various aspects of African artistic creativity demonstrating the possibilities for analytical experiments that art history presents to scholars of the discipline today The w character of each approach is unique nevertheless each is useful toward a fuller understanding of African art studies as an independent aspect of art historical research that is a branch or bud of the larger family of art history The volume respects highlights and celebrates the distinctiveness of each methodical approach recognizing its contribution to the overall character or w of African art studies The book will be of interest to students in undergraduate or graduate intermediate or advanced courses as well as scholars in art history and African studies

African Art in Transit Christopher B. Steiner, 1994-01-27

African Art in Transit is an absorbing account of the commodification and circulation of African art objects in the international art market Christopher Steiner s analysis of the role of the African middleman in linking those who produce and supply works of art in Africa with those who buy and collect so called primitive art in Europe and America is based on extensive field research among the art traders in C te d Ivoire Steiner provides a lucid interpretation which reveals not only a complex economic network with its own internal logic and rules but also an elaborate process of transcultural valuation and exchange By focusing directly on the intermediaries in the African art trade he unveils a critical new perspective on how symbolic codes and economic values are mediated in the context of shifting geographic and cultural domains He questions conventional definitions of authenticity in African art by demonstrating how the categories authentic and traditional are continually redefined Fashion Forward, 2020-05-18 Perspectives on Africa Roy Richard Grinker, Stephen C.

Lubkemann, Christopher B. Steiner, 2010-05-17 The second edition of Perspectives on Africa A Reader in Culture History and Representation is both an introduction to the cultures of Africa and a history of the interpretations of those cultures Key essays explore the major issues and debates through a combination of classic articles and the newest research in the field Explores the dynamic processes by and through which scholars have described and understood African history and culture Includes selections from anthropologists historians philosophers and critics who collectively reveal the interpenetration of ideas and concepts within and across disciplines regions and historical periods Offers a combined focus on ethnography and theory giving students the means to link theory with data and perspective with practice Newly revised and updated edition of this popular text with 14 brand new chapters and two new sections Conflict and Violent Transformations and Development Governance and Globalization Institutional Change for Museums Marianna Pegno, Kantara Souffrant, 2024-08-14

Institutional Change for Museums A Practical Guide to Creating Polyvocal Spaces demonstrates how museums can enact institutional change by implementing systematic and structural approaches to anti racist anti colonial and anti elitist practices This practical guide brings together museum and heritage experts artists organizers and cultural workers to present thoughtful polyvocal critiques and solutions for conceptualizing museums of the future These authors embrace hybrid identities complicate concepts of nationalism straddle disciplines and extend the concept function and literal place and definition of the museum The book shows that museums must cultivate practices that center people interrogate colonial legacies take new approaches to curatorial ethics and caring for objects and imagine new strategies for asserting the relevance of museums to create institutional change This resource challenges traditional approaches to museology by offering scholarly research and case studies alongside personal narratives and speculative fiction Institutional Change for Museums will be an invaluable resource for museum professionals and cultural workers including curators educators and researchers It will also be beneficial to those studying or researching in Museum and Heritage Studies Cultural Studies Feminist Studies Visual Culture Social Justice and Postcolonial Studies Wolf Tracks Peter Szok, 2012-06-26 Popular art is a masculine and working class genre associated with Panama s black population Its practitioners are self taught commercial painters whose high toned designs vibrant portraits and landscapes appear in cantinas barbershops and restaurants The red devil buses are popular art s most visible manifestation The old school buses are imported from the United States and provide public transportation in Col n and Panama City Their owners hire the artists to attract customers with eye catching depictions of singers and actors brassy phrases and vivid representations of both local and exotic panoramas The red devils boast powerful stereo systems and dominate the urban environment with their blasting reggae screeching brakes horns sirens whistles and roaring mufflers Wolf Tracks analyzes the origins of these practices tying them to rebellious Afro American festival traditions and to the rumba craze of the mid twentieth century During World War II thousands of US soldiers were stationed in Panama and elaborately decorated cabarets opened to cater to their presence These venues often featured touring Afro Cuban musicians Painters such as Luis The Wolf Evans exploited such moments of modernization to challenge the elite and its older conception of Panama as a country with little connection to Africa While the intellectual class fled from modernization and asserted a romantic and mestizo European indigenous vision of the republic popular artists enthusiastically embraced the new influences to project a powerful sense of blackness Wolf Tracks includes biographies of dozens of painters as well as detailed discussions of mestizo nationalism soccer reggae and other markers of Afro Panamanian identity Osogbo and the Art of Heritage Peter Probst,2011 Why has the home of a Yoruba river goddess become a UNESCO World Heritage site and a global attraction Every year tens of thousands of people from around the world visit the sacred grove of Osun Osogbo s guardian deity to attend her festival Peter Probst takes readers on a riveting journey to Osogbo He explores the history of the Osogbo School which helped introduce one style of African modern art to the West and investigates its intimate connection with Osun the role of art and religion in the changing world of Osogbo and its prominence in the global arena
