Africans in Brazil Abdias do Nascimento, Elisa Larkin Nascimento, 1992 A daring and thoughtful approach to the understanding of the African experiences in Latin American societies Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved

Nationalism and African Intellectuals Toyin Falola, 2004 An examination of the attempt by Western educated African intellectuals to create a better Africa through connecting nationalism to knowledge from the anti colonial movement to the present day This book is about how African intellectuals influenced primarily by nationalism have addressed the inter related issues of power identity politics self assertion and autonomy for themselves and their continent from the mid nineteenth century onward Their major goal was to create a better Africa by connecting nationalism to knowledge The results have been mixed from the glorious euphoria of the success of anti colonial movements to the depressing circumstances of the African condition as we enter a new millennium As the intellectual elite is a creation of the Western formal school system the ideas it generated are also connected to the larger world of scholarship This world is in turn shaped by European contacts with Africa from the fifteenth century onward the politics of the Cold War and the subsequent collapse of the Soviet Union In essence Africa and its elite cannot be fully understood without also considering the West and changing global politics Neither can the academic and media contributions by non Africans be ignored as these also affect the ways that Africans think about themselves and their continent Nationalism and African Intellectuals examines intellectuals ambivalent relationships with the colonial apparatus and subsequent nation state formations the contradictions manifested within pan Africanism and nationalism and the relation of academic institutions and intellectual production to the state during the nationalism period and beyond Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin

The Sorcery of Color Elisa Larkin Nascimento, 2007 An examination of how racial and gender hierarchies are intertwined in Brazil

Brazil-Africa Relations Gerhard Seibert, Paulo Gilberto Fagundes Vizontini, 2019 Fills an important gap in the study of Africa's international relations and its engagement with rising economies in the Global South

Race and Democracy in the Americas Georgia A. Persons, 2018-12-07 Race and Democracy in the Americas examines dimensions of the comparative dynamics of race and ethnicity with a directed focus on the Americas most particularly Brazil and the United States Brazil and the United States are two countries in the Americas that have been major hosts for the African diaspora Both countries experienced prolonged enslavement of Africans and both now claim to be beacons of democracy for much of the developing world Both Afro Brazilians and African Americans have fielded major liberation movements against racism and oppression yet both groups continue to experience considerable residual racial discrimination and displacement Brazil and the U S remain racialized societies though both officially purport to be otherwise The chapters of this volume illuminate a common search for understanding how race operates in societies generally and how shapes life opportunities for African Americans and Afro Brazilians both oppressed by this most detrimental social construction The project that fueled this volume represented a rare opportunity for collaboration between Afro Brazilian scholars and their African American counterparts This volume offers a passionate conversation between colleagues who have endured common sociopolitical and cultural struggles but who have only belatedly been able to meet and connect as individuals Both groups share identities as scholars and activists for neither identity alone is sufficient to nourish the longings of their hearts nor of their consciences This volume also represents an all too rare opportunity to give voice and expression to the work of Afro Brazilian scholars Volume 9 of the National Political Science Review also carries a special tribute to Mack Henry Jones a senior black political scientist retiring from Atlanta University and honors Jones s legacy and continues his quest for understanding the nature and intricacies of oppression and possible paths to liberatio

The African Diaspora Toyin Falola, 2013 The African diaspora is arguably the most important event in modern African history From the fifteenth century to the present millions of Africans have been dispersed many of them forcibly others driven by economic need or political persecution to other continents creating large communities with African origins living outside their native lands The majority of these communities are in North America This historic displacement has meant that Africans are irrevocably connected to economic and political developments in the West and globally Among the known legacies of the diaspora are slavery colonialism racism poverty and underdevelopment yet the ways in which these same factors worked to spur the scattering of Africans are not fully understood by those who were part of this migration or by scholars historians and policymakers In this definitive study of the diaspora in North America Toyin Falola offers a causal history of the western dispersion of Africans and its effects on the modern world Reengaging old and familiar debates and framing new ones that enrich the discourse surrounding Africa Falola isolates the thread running nearly six centuries that connects the history of slavery the transatlantic slave trade and current migrations A boon to scholars and policymakers and accessible to the general reader the book explores diverse narratives of migration and shows that the cultures that migrated from Africa to the Americas have the capacity to unite and create a new pan Africanist movement within the globalized world Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin He is the 2011 recipient of the Distinguished Africanist Award from the African Studies Association and serves as the vice president of the International Scientific Committee of the UNESCO Slave Route Project His previous books published by the University of Rochester Press include The Power of African Cultures and Nationalism and African Intellectuals Afro-Brazilians Niyi Afolabi, 2009 An interdisciplinary study on the myth of racial democracy in Brazil through the prism of producers of Afro Brazilian culture Brazil the most racially diverse Latin American country is also the most contradictory for centuries it has maintained fantasy as reality through the myth of racial democracy Enshrined in that mythology is the masking of exclusionism that strategically displaces and marginalizes Afro Brazilians from political power In this absorbing new study Niyi Afolabi exposes the tensions between the official position on racial harmony and the reality of marginalization experienced by Afro Brazilians by exploring Afro Brazilian cultural production as a considered response to this exclusion The author examines major contributions in music history literature film and popular culture in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to reveal how each performance by an Afro Brazilian artist addresses issues of identity and racism through a variety of veils that entertain ridicule invoke provoke protest and demand change at the same time Raising cogent questions such as the vital role of Afro Brazilians in the making of Brazilian national identity the representation of Brazilian women as hapless exploited and abandoned the erosion of the influence of black movements due to fragmentation and internal disharmony and the portrayal of Afro Brazilians on the national screen as domestics Afolabi provides insightful nuanced analyses that tease out the complexities of the dilemma in their appropriate historical political and social contexts Niyi Afolabi teaches Luso Brazilian Yoruba and African Diaspora studies in the Department of Spanish and Portuguese as well as the John L Warfield Center for African and African American Studies at the University of Texas at Austin

Slavery and Identity Mieko Nishida, 2003-04-10 Using both primary archival and printed sources Mieko Nishida examines the perspectives of slaves ex slaves and free born people of color and the critical factors that affected their lives and self perceptions The book offers a new window on slave life in nineteenth century Salvador Brazil and illustrates the difficulty of generalizing about New World slave societies

The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces Evert Klein, Marco Wyss, 2025-03-01 The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces provides the first in depth and multifaceted analysis of the evolution and current state of national defence policies strategies doctrines capabilities security challenges and strategic responses of African states and their armed forces Geographically these aspects are investigated at the national sub regional and regional levels Chronologically they are analysed against the backdrop of the superpower withdrawal from the continent in the 1990s and the so called New Scramble for Africa which has seen a crescendo of renewed great power interest in the continent's resources as well as its strategic role location and relevance since the 2000s. The book takes a bottom up and African centric approach and is organized around five key themes: i) the differing security outlooks and defence policies of African powers within the region and the different sub regions; ii) the strategies, doctrines, transformation and employment of African armed forces; iii) the relationship between African armed forces with sub regional, regional and international organizations; iv) the challenges that African states and their armed forces have been facing and their strategic responses; and v) the position of African perspectives and agency in the context of continental and international security and defence. Understanding African security and defence especially in terms of each individual nation's ability to contribute to peacekeeping operations, counterterrorism, border security and internal security requires a focus on the national level of armed forces and defence policies. This in turn sheds light on sub regional and regional divergences, challenges and cooperation. Based on this framework, the chapters in this volume offer comprehensive African perspectives on African and international security and defence and in doing so show the agency of the continent's countries and armed forces in International Security and Relations.

Decolonial Feminisms, Decolonising Feminisms Deevia Bhana, Tamara Shefer, Giti Chandra, 2025-08-28. This book redefines feminist discourse by exploring the intersections of decolonial feminisms across various geopolitical contexts, emphasising the integration of local and indigenous narratives that challenge colonial epistemologies. The volume is organised into three thematic parts that critique traditional feminist frameworks, highlight innovative pedagogical methodologies and showcase activism aimed at addressing intersectional inequalities. Each section features contributions from established scholars and emerging voices from both the Global North and the Global South, fostering interdisciplinary discussions that reflect a rich diversity of experiences. This approach not only enhances understanding of feminist thought but also promotes transformative practices that advocate for gender and social justice. The book is targeted at scholars, students and activists in feminist studies, postcolonial theory and social justice and is a must read for those looking to expand their understanding of feminist thought. Its emphasis on collaboration and solidarity makes it a valuable resource for anyone interested in addressing the complex global issues influenced by colonial histories while envisioning a more equitable future.

The Unified Black Movement in Brazil, 1978-2002 David Covin, 2015-05-12. Brazil in the late 1970s was a country of racial tension and inequality. During this time a number of independent Black organizations sprang up from older roots, giving the black population a place to create, develop and share narratives about life in Brazil. Within these organizations they developed a sense of racial consciousness that gave rise to the Movimento Negro Unificado (MNU) in 1979. The MNU or Unified Black Movement created an outlet for racial grievances and gave a voice to those previously unheard. This intensive historical study of Brazil's Movimento Negro Unificado centers on the political effects and ramifications of the group. In order to present a complete picture of the MNU it looks at the organization within four separate contexts: international, national, historical and human. Through this approach the

MNU is examined in relation to the African Diaspora the European colonization of the Americas the Atlantic Slave Trade and the development of Brazil as an independent state From a national perspective the MNU is viewed amid other social organizations and cultural expressions The result is a detailed study that admits the organization s shortcomings but assesses them contextually providing a more complete and nuanced understanding of the significance of the MNU s problems and achievements Appendices offer additional information such as the MNU Letter of Principles the Constitution of the MNU the preamble to the MNU Action Program and the MNU Hymn A glossary is also included
