Wells, 2015-12-06 THE ARGONAUTS OF THE AIR For several years Monson has used his wealth on a project to build a flying machine The apparatus for launching it a massive alley of interlacing iron and timber has become a notable landmark for people passing through Worcester Park in south west London and sometimes they see a machine rush along the rails of the apparatus as the latest version of the flying machine is tested Monson s money is running out and he is impatient with the time taken to put the latest modifications into effect 1 THE OBLITERATED MAN 2 THE CONE 3 THE ARGONAUTS OF THE AIR 4 THE BULLA 5 A SLIP UNDER THE MICROSCOPE 6 UNDER THE KNIFE 7 THE RED ROOM 8 THE PLATTNER STORY 9 THE STORY OF THE LATE MR ELVESHAM 10 THE RAJAH S TREASURE 11 IN THE ABYSS 12 THE LOST INHERITANCE 13 THE APPLE 14 THE PURPLE PILEUS 15 THE SEA RAIDERS 16 THE CRYSTAL EGG Fifty World's Greatest Short Stories Various Author, 2021-07-20

Aircraft David Pascoe, 2004-09-03 In his celebrated manifesto Aircraft 1935 the architect Le Corbusier presented more than 100 photographs celebrating airplanes either in imperious flight or elegantly at rest Dwelling on the artfully abstracted shapes of noses wings and tails he declared Ponder a moment on the truth of these objects Clearness of function In Aircraft David Pascoe follows this lead and offers a startling new account of the form of the airplane an object that in the course of a hundred years has developed from a flimsy contraption of wood wire and canvas into a machine compounded of exotic materials whose wings can touch the edges of space Tracing the airplane through the twentieth century he considers the subject from a number of perspectives as an inspiration for artists architects and politicians as a miracle of engineering as a product of industrialized culture as a device of military ambition and finally in its clearness of function as an instance of sublime technology Profusely illustrated and authoritatively written Aircraft offers not just a fresh account of aeronautical design documenting in particular the forms of earlier flying machines and the dependence of later projects upon them but also provides a cultural history of an object whose very shape contains the dreams and nightmares of the modern age

Index to Short Stories ,1929 H. G. Wells, Modernity and the Movies Keith Williams,2007-12-01 This book investigates Wells s interest in cinema and related media technologies by placing it back into the contemporary cultural and scientific contexts giving rise to them It plugs a gap in understanding Wells s contribution to exploring and advancing the possibilities of cinematic narrative and its social and ideological impacts in the modern period Previous studies concentrate on adaptations this book accounts for the specifically proto cinematic techniques and concerns of Wells s texts It also focuses on contemporary film making in dialogue with his ideas Alongside Hollywood s later transactions it gives equal weight to neglected British and continental European dimensions Chapter 1 shows how early writings The Time Machine and short stories feature many kinds of radically defamiliarised vision These constitute imaginative speculations about the forms and potentials of moving image and electronic media Chapter 2 discusses the power of voyeurism absent presence and the disjunction of sound image reproduction implied in The Invisible Man and its topical politics updated in notable screen versions Chapter 3 extends this to dystopian warnings of systematic surveillance broadcasting of celebrity personae and post literate video culture in When the Sleeper Wakes a crucial template for urban futures on film Chapter 4 analyses Wells s belated return to screenwriting in the 1930s It accounts for his broadbrow ambition of mediating between popular and avant garde tendencies to promote his cause and its mixed results in Things to Come The Man Who Could Work Miracles etc Chapter 5 finally surveys Wells s legacy on both small and large screens It considers whether as well as being raided for scenarios for spectacular effects his subtexts still nourish an evolving tradition of alternative SF which duly critiques the innovations and applications of its host media The Correspondence of H.G. Wells: Volumes 1-4 David C. Smith,2022-08-15 This collection of H G Wells s correspondence draws on over 50 archives and libraries worldwide including the papers of Wells s daughter by Amber Reeves The book contains over 2 000 letters and while a few are business to publishers agents and secretaries the majority are much more personal Wells s private correspondence extends from letters to President Franklin Roosevelt and Prime Ministers Winston Churchill and A J Balfour to persons such as Mark Benney who wrote novels based on his life in the slums and his time in prison There is correspondence too with his many female friends and lovers among them Rebecca West Eileen Power Gertrude Stein Marie Stopes Lilah MacCarthy and Dorothy Richardson For example a letter from Moura Budberg with whom Wells had a long standing affair which announces that she is pregnant by him and about to have an abortion reveals how an advocate of birth control is himself caught out Wells also enjoyed correspondence with the press particularly during the two World Wars and with various BBC officials and people who worked on his films Some of his letters on the controversies of free love socialism birth control the Fabian Society and the nature of the curriculum of the new London University in the 1890s are included Interspersed chronologically with Wells's letters is a small selection of about 40 letters to Wells where letters from him are not extant Among these are letters from Ray Lankester Joseph Conrad C G Jung Trotsky Hedy Gattarnigg the woman who attempted suicide in Wells's flat and J C Smuts The letters are arranged in these periods Volume 1 1878 1900 Volume 2 1901 1912 Volume 3 1913 1930 and Volume 4 1930 1946 H G Wells's works include The Time Machine 1895 The Invisible Man 1897 The War of the Worlds 1898 The History of Mr Polly 1910 and A Short History of the World 1922

Alternate Worlds James Gunn, 2018-08-03 Alternate Worlds was first published in 1975 and became an instant classic winning a Hugo award This third edition brings the history of science fiction up to date covering developments over the past forty years a period that has seen the advent of technologies only imagined in the genre's Golden Age As a literature of change science fiction has become ever more meaningful presaging dangers to humanity and as Alvin Toffler wrote guarding against the premature arrival of the future The world has begun to recognize science fiction in many different ways incorporating its elements in products visual media and huge conventions

Nation and Narration Homi K. Bhabha, 2013-05-13 Bhabha in his preface writes Nations like narratives lose their origins in the myths of time and only fully encounter their horizons in the mind's eye From this seemingly impossibly metaphorical beginning this volume confronts the realities of the concept of nationhood as it is lived and the profound ambivalence of language as it is written From Gillian Beer's reading of Virginia Woolf Rachel Bowlby's cultural history of Uncle Tom's Cabin and Francis Mulhern's study of Leaviste's English ethics to Doris Sommer's study of the magical realism of Latin American fiction and Sneja Gunew's analysis of Australian writing Nation and Narration is a celebration of the fact that English is no longer an English national consciousness which is not nationalist but is the only thing that will give us an international dimension

A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.), 1987 Literary histories of course do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself This volume perhaps more than others of its kind is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige and chose to write honestly about the American West believing that experiences long known to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance
