

Panne sur l'autoroute

Claire et Denis reviennent de Normandie par l'autoroute A 13. Ils ont une panne.

Claire: Combien de kilomètres il y a encore jusqu'à Paris?

Denis: On vient de passer la sortie pour Mantes-la-Jolie. Il reste environ une cinquante de kilomètres jusqu'au périphérique.

Claire: Tu entends ce drôle de bruit? Qu'est-ce que ça peut bien être?

Denis: Aucune idée. On dirait même que le bruit devient de plus en plus fort. Ça a l'air sérieux!

Claire: Arrête-toi sur le bas-côté! On va appeler le service de dépannage. Je vais chercher une borne téléphonique.

The Rise of English Rosemary Salomone, Rosemary C. Salomone, 2022 A sweeping account of the global rise of English and the high stakes politics of language Spoken by a quarter of the world's population English is today's lingua franca its common tongue The language of business popular media and international politics English has become commodified for its economic value and increasingly detached from any particular nation This meteoric rise of English has many obvious benefits to communication Tourists can travel abroad with greater ease Political leaders can directly engage their counterparts Researchers can collaborate with foreign colleagues Business interests can flourish in the global economy But the rise of English has very real downsides as well In Europe imperatives of political integration and job mobility compete with pride in national language and heritage In the United States and England English isolates us from the cultural and economic benefits of speaking other languages And in countries like India South Africa Morocco and Rwanda it has stratified society along lines of English proficiency In The Rise of English Rosemary Salomone offers a commanding view of the unprecedented spread of English and the far reaching effects it has on global and local politics economics media education and business From the inner workings of the European Union to linguistic battles over influence in Africa Salomone draws on a wealth of research to tell the complex story of English and ultimately to argue for English not as a force for domination but as a core component of multilingualism and the transcendence of linguistic and cultural borders

From Multiculturalism to Democratic Discrimination Alberto Spektorowski, Daphna Elfersy, 2020-12-10 The effect of Islam on Western Europe has been profound Spektorowski and Elfersy argue that it has transformed European democratic values by inspiring an ultra liberalism that now faces an ultra conservative backlash Questions of what to do about Muslim immigration how to deal with burqas how to deal with gender politics have all been influenced by western democracies grappling with ideas of inclusion and most recently exclusion This book examines those forces and ultimately sees not an unbridgeable gap but a future in which Islam and European democracies are compatible rich and evolving

Paul Dukas: Legacies of a French Musician Helen Julia Minors, Laura Watson, 2019-03-29 This book appraises the contribution of Paul Dukas 1865-1935 to a wide variety of French musical practices As a composer critic artistic collaborator and teacher Dukas was central to the fin de siècle and early twentieth century Paris musical scene and more broadly to the French scene Significantly his compositional style mediated tradition through the modern language of his present while his critical writings pioneered a new mode of musical discourse in the French press Of further interest are Dukas's professional relationships with iconic figures such as Gabriel Fauré and Claude Debussy and his role in fostering the next generation of French composers In addition to mentoring famous names such as Olivier Messiaen and Tony Aubin he staunchly supported his female students notably Elsa Barraine Claude Arrieu and Yvonne Desportes This unique essay collection offers a panoramic perspective on a comparatively neglected French musician Paul Dukas Legacies of a French Musician traces two aspects of his work Part I treats Dukas as a composer thinker and artistic collaborator Part II constructs his intellectual legacy as seen in his creative and pedagogic endeavours This book is essential reading for anyone interested in fin de siècle and early twentieth century French music women in French music music criticism and composition education in the Paris Conservatoire Understanding Young Individuals' Autonomy and Psychological Wellbeing Teresita Bernal-Romero,Miguel Melendro,Ángel De-Juanas,Martin Goyette,2021-11-10 Writing Between Languages Sheela Mahadevan,2025-08-21 This open access book casts light on an understudied corpus of Indian Francophone literatures by writers originally from former French territories of India and from other regions of India who also engage in processes of translation Ari Gautier Pondicherry M Mukundan Mah Manohar Rai Sardessai Goa Toru Dutt Calcutta and Shumona Sinha Calcutta By examining the range of ways in which these writers write between languages Sheela Mahadevan advances theories of translation and literary multilingualism Moreover the book demonstrates how the self reflective process of translating Indian Francophone writing into English can be employed as a theoretical tool that unlocks fresh ways of conceptualizing literary multilingualism and translation Applying this methodology the author explores the ways in which the linguistic framework and region of the readership of a text can determine the visibility and effects of literary multilingualism and demonstrates how a text may consequently be interpreted as simultaneously monolingual and multilingual The book thereby also intervenes in debates about translation as research in Translation Studies Ultimately the book offers a more nuanced and alternative vision and understanding of the Indian literary landscape by exploring not only how and why Indian Francophone writers adopt French in their writing but also by demonstrating how certain regional literary traditions of India have been significantly shaped by French literatures owing to processes of translation undertaken by these writers The author also advances existing research on Indian translation traditions including the concept of transcreation and the meaning of originality in the Indian context Through the lens of Indian Francophone writing the book explores the various factors which trigger the fluidity of boundaries between translation and creative writing that is commonplace in the Indian context The ebook editions of this book are available open access under a CC BY NC ND 4 0 licence on bloomsburycollections com Open access was funded by UKRI Casablanca Chandigarh Tom Avermaete,Maristella Casciato,Mirko Zardini,2014 This book documents two complementary urban realities that have played a fundamental role in the imagination definition and redefinition of the twentieth century modern city Shifting away from an understanding of architecture as the construction of monumental masterpieces the texts collected here assemble the narratives behind the public spaces housing and social facilities in these two cities where modern plans have proven unexpectedly resilient and adaptable over time This perspective is reinforced through visual contributions by Yto Barrada and Takashi Homma two photographers especially invested in capturing everyday urban life In a world marked by decolonization and Cold War politics Casablanca and Chandigarh appear simultaneously as exponents of and countercurrents to modernization and its development perspectives The book's three chapters set the context for reading Casablanca and Chandigarh as the results of nuanced dynamic processes of international exchange driven by the engagement and expertise of a new class of design professionals As a dossier of actors alignments and agendas the book contributes to an alternative historiography of post war urbanism and to recent reflections on the impact of transnational practice P 4 of cover

Secular Bodies, Affects and Emotions Monique Scheer,Nadia Fadil,Birgitte Schepelern Johansen,2019-01-10 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Taking its cue from the study of lived religion Secular Bodies Affects and Emotions shows how the idea of a secular public is equally marked by a display and cultivation of affect and emotions Whereas it is widely agreed that religion is often saturated by emotion the secular is usually treated as a neutral background serving as the domain of public rational deliberation This book demonstrates that secularity and secularism are also upheld by bodily practices and emotional attachments Drawing on empirical case studies this is the first book to ask and explore whether a secular body exists Building on the work of Talal Asad the book argues that the secular is not an absence of religion but a positive entity that comes about through its constitutive relationship with religion And once we attune ourselves to recognizing its operations as grammar which structures social practice writing an anthropology of the secular could become a new possibility
