Community College and Beyond José R. Del Real Viramontes, Marissa C. Vasquez, 2023-08-01 As the transfer disparity persists among Latina o x community college students and continues to widen for those seeking to complete their baccalaureate degree we asked ourselves three questions 1 How do Latina o x community college students navigate the transfer preparation and decision making process 2 Once at the university how do Latina o x transfer students negotiate their identities and lived experiences as they persist towards graduation and beyond And 3 What policies practices and programs at both two and four year institutions facilitate access persistence and completion for Latina o x community college transfer students These reflections prompted us to seek answers This is the first edited book to provide much needed theoretical and empirical insights on Latina o x students who enter postsecondary education through the community college Our book offers a comprehensive outlook on the pre and post transfer experiences of Latina o x students written by scholars and scholarpractitioners working in the field of higher education In addition we include specific sections that speak directly to policies practices and theory that address transfer pathways for Latina o x community college and transfer students

Narrating Irish Female Development, 1916-2018 Jane Elizabeth Dougherty, 2024-12-31 Narrating Irish Female Development 1916 2018 studies narratives of Irish female and feminized development arguing that these postmodern narratives present Irish female maturation as disordered and often deliberately disorderly The first full length study of the Irish female coming of age story the book develops a feminist psychoanalytic narratology derived from the belated oedipalization of Joyce s bildungsheld to read these stories This study argues that all Irish maturation stories are shaped by the uneven and belated maturation story of the Irish republic itself which took as its avatar the Irish woman whose citizenship in that republic was unrealized as indeed was her citizenship in an Irish republic of letters Dougherty takes the writing of Irish women as seriously as other critics have taken Joyce's work
