Building Science N3 Bekker,1998-12 Building Science N3 SB ,2015 Building China into a Cyber

Superpower Munish Sharma,2024-04-26 This book provides a comprehensive look into China's emerging cyberspace strategy. It highlights the prime drivers of China's desire to be a cyber superpower and discusses the ways in which China is turning resources into cyber power. The book analyses China's domestic cyber policy initiatives, strategy documents, censorship measures, and the rationale behind its strong advocacy for sovereignty in cyberspace. It examines China's position on the prominent issues of cyberspace governance, norms, and security in cyberspace, and key diplomatic initiatives. The book also discusses next-generation networks, artificial intelligence, quantum information sciences, and cyber warfare. An important contribution to the study of China's cyber policy, the book will be of interest to students and researchers of international relations, Chinese digitalisation, security studies, Chinese politics, international security, Chinese foreign policy, and Chinese economy. It will also be useful to the policymakers and corporate professionals engaged with China's digital sphere.

Building Science Chris De Jager,1997 Computational Engineering of Historical Memories Andrea

Nanetti,2022-09-26 Nanetti outlines a methodology for deploying artificial intelligence and machine learning to enhance historical research. Historical events are the treasure of human experiences, the heritage that societies have used to remain resilient and express their identities. Nanetti has created and developed an interdisciplinary methodology supported by practice-based research that serves as a pathway between historical and computer sciences to design and build computational structures that analyse how societies create narratives about historical events. This consilience pathway aims to make historical memory machine understandable. It turns history into a computational discipline through an interdisciplinary blend of philological accuracy, historical scholarship, history-based media projects, and computational tools. Nanetti presents the theory behind this methodology from a humanities perspective and discusses its practical application in user interface and experience. An essential read for historians and scholars working in the digital humanities. N3 Building Science John Dillon,2018 Geospatial Technologies and Geography Education in a Changing World Osvaldo Muñiz

Solari, Ali Demirci, Joop van der Schee,2015-08-31 This book is an initiative presented by the Commission on Geographical Education of the International Geographical Union. It focuses particularly on what has been learned from geospatial projects and research from the past decades of implementing geospatial technologies (GST) in formal and informal education. The objective of this publication is to inform an international audience of teachers, professionals, scholars, and policymakers about the state of the art and prospects of geospatial practices (GPs) as organized activities that use GST and lessons learned in relation to geographical education. GST make up an advanced body of knowledge developed by practitioners of geographic information systems (GIS), remote sensing (RS), global positioning systems (GPS), and digital cartography (DC). GST have long been applied in many different sectors; however, their first use in higher education began in the early 1980s and then diffused to secondary schools during the 1990s Starting with GIS and RS it evolved into a much broader context as GST expanded to include GPS and DC with new communication technologies and Internet applications GST have been used around the world as a combination of tools and special techniques to make research teaching and learning more effective Girmitiya

Culture and Memory Priyanka Chaudhary,Neha Singh,2024-09-06 This book explores the multifaceted dimensions of the Girmitiya diaspora and post memory The intersections of dis re location and memory have always been a focus of scholarly interest and the volume envisages the roots of migration and culture life stories narratives and personal anecdotes It further accentuates Girmitiya struggles politics of displacement relationships with the homeland and host land oral traditions repercussions and retention of the archival sites The cross examination of memories helps in building a framework to study the varied experiences of the Girmitiya community In this volume through a blend of historical and scholarly discourse we embark on a journey to unearth the layers of meaning embedded within the Girmitiya experience The tales of Girmitiya migration amplifies marginalized voices and illuminates the enduring resilience By chronicling the experiences of the indentured migration we pay homage to the pioneers recognize the intricacy of their toils and commemorate the continuing legacy Critical Thoughts from a Government Mindset Ali M. Beyond Polarities Deborah Lynn Marois,2005 Hemicelluloses and Lignin in Biorefineries Jean-Luc Wertz,Magali Deleu,S  verine Copp  e,Aurore Richel,2017-10-16 Hemicelluloses and Lignin in Biorefineries provides an understanding of lignocellulosic biomass which is mainly composed of cellulose hemicelluloses and lignin It promotes the valorization of these molecules in the context of the bioeconomy and presents hemicelluloses and lignin which are generated in lignocellulosic biorefineries as the molecules of the future The viability of these molecules lies in their renewability and potential This book covers all aspects of hemicelluloses and lignin including structure biosynthesis extraction biodegradation and conversion The book also looks ahead to the socioeconomic and environmental value of biobased industry and emphasizes an understanding of the potential of lignocellulosic biomass

The Clocks Are Telling Lies Scott Alan Johnston, 2022-01-15 Until the nineteenth century all time was local time On foot or on horseback it was impossible to travel fast enough to care that noon was a few minutes earlier or later from one town to the next The invention of railways and telegraphs however created a newly interconnected world where suddenly the time differences between cities mattered The Clocks Are Telling Lies is an exploration of why we tell time the way we do demonstrating that organizing a new global time system was no simple task Standard time envisioned by railway engineers such as Sandford Fleming clashed with universal time promoted by astronomers When both sides met in 1884 at the International Meridian Conference in Washington DC to debate the best way to organize time disagreement abounded If scientific and engineering experts could not agree how would the public Following some of the key players in the debate Scott Johnston reveals how people dealt with the contradictions in global timekeeping in surprising ways from zealots like Charles Piazz Smyth who campaigned for the Great Pyramid to serve as the prime meridian to Maria Belville who sold the time door to door in Victorian London to Moravian town and other Indigenous communities that used timekeeping to fight for autonomy Drawing from a wide range of primary sources The Clocks Are Telling Lies offers a thought provoking narrative that centres people and politics rather than technology in the vibrant story of global time telling

Foolproof Greg Ip, 2015-10-08 Why anti lock brakes make us drive faster Why saving money can lead to financial crises How football helmets make the game more dangerous Why letting forest fires burn can be safer than putting them out We have learned a staggering amount about human nature and disaster yet we are continually unprepared for car crashes floods and financial crises Partly this is because the very success we ve had making life safer enables us to take more extreme different risks As our cities transport systems and financial markets become more interconnected and complex so does the potential for disaster How do we stay safe Should we What if our attempts are exposing us even more to the very risks we are trying to avoid What if acceptance of danger ultimately makes us more secure and prosperous Is there such a thing as foolproof In this fascinating account of risk taking and crisis Greg Ip presents a macro theory of human nature and disaster that explains how we can keep ourselves safe in our increasingly dangerous world

A caminho da guerra Graham Allison, 2020-09-11 Historiador analisa o impacto do crescimento da China sobre os Estados Unidos e a ordem mundial e explica as verdadeiras possibilidades de esses países entrarem em guerra A tensão crescente entre China e Estados Unidos vem alarmando o mundo Conforme esse panorama se delineia fica cada vez mais nítido que os dois países parecem a caminho da guerra e que as consequências disso ser o mundialmente catastróficas Essa sensação de inevitabilidade foi descrita como a Armadilha de Tucídides Em seu tempo o historiador da Grécia Antiga que deu nome expresso observou que a ascensão

o de Atenas e o consequente temor instilado em Esparta tornaram a guerra inevitável. Desde então a armadilha descrita por Tucídides passou a designar o momento em que uma potência em ascensão ameaça tomar o lugar do poder dominante. Ao longo dos últimos cinco séculos tais condições ocorreram 16 vezes e em 12 delas uma guerra eclodiu. Hoje enquanto uma China irrefreável desafia a já consolidada supremacia dos Estados Unidos, esses países correm o risco de protagonizar um conflito de repercussão devastadora. As promessas de seus presidentes de tornar seus países grandes novamente são a base da política externa de ambos e oferecem um vislumbre sombrio da construção do próximo cenário. Conflitos comerciais, ataques cibernéticos, a crise da Coreia ou um acidente marítimo podem facilmente transformar os constantes desentendimentos entre as duas potências em uma guerra declarada. Em A Caminho da Guerra, o professor de Harvard Graham Allison alia história aos fatos atuais para explicar o mecanismo eterno da Armadilha de Tucídides. Ao analisar o impacto do crescimento da China sobre os Estados Unidos e sobre a ordem mundial, Graham esmiúça as difíceis medidas que poderiam ser adotadas a fim de impedir um desastre de magnitude planetária. NBS Building Science Series, 1974 Building Science Series, 1970
