After Modernity Secularity Globalization And The Reenchantment Of The World:

After Modernity? James K. A. Smith, 2008 After Modernity addresses a cluster of questions and issues found at the nexus of globalization and religion. This unique volume examines various religious especially Christian evaluations of and responses to globalization. In particular, the book considers the links among globalization, capitalism, and secularization and the ways in which religion is or can be deployed to address a range of hot button topics. With cross disciplinary analyses, the collection argues consistently for the necessity of a post secular evaluation of globalization that unapologetically draws on the resources of Christian faith. The conservative radicalism represented in these contributions will resonate with a broad audience of scholars and citizens who seek to put faith into action. After Modernity? Associate Professor James K. The Theology of Dallas Willard Gary Black Jr., 2013-08-06 Evangelical Christianity in the United States is currently in a dramatic state of change. Yet amidst this sometimes tumultuous religious environment, a rather unique blend of both ancient and contemporary Christian theology has found its way into the hearts and minds of emerging generations of Christians. The Theology of Dallas Willard both describes and conveys the essence of this increasingly popular and perhaps mediating view of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Blending both a prophetic critique with pastoral encouragement, Willard's unique understanding of the reality present within a life lived as a disciple of Jesus in the kingdom of God is attracting both new and traditional Christians to reconsider their faith. The Fullness of Time in a Flat World Scott Waalkes, 2010-01-01 Best selling author Thomas Friedman says that globalization has made the world flat and that we cannot stop the process. But while it is right to say that globalization tends to flatten our world, it is wrong to say that there are no alternatives to current patterns of economic, ecological, political, and cultural integration. This book argues that the Christian liturgical calendar provides a constructive alternative to the globalization of economics, ecologies, politics, and cultures. It does so by incorporating the church into the fullness of time in the gospel narrative, thereby helping us escape from the dead end of Friedman's flat world so that we can improvise healthier ways of being globally integrated. Desiring the Kingdom (Cultural Liturgies) James K. A.

Smith, 2009-08-01 Malls, stadiums, and universities are actually liturgical structures that influence and shape our thoughts.

and affections Humans as Augustine noted are desiring agents full of longings and passions in brief we are what we love James K A Smith focuses on the themes of liturgy and desire in Desiring the Kingdom the first book in what will be a three volume set on the theology of culture He redirects our yearnings to focus on the greatest good God Ultimately Smith seeks to re vision education through the process and practice of worship Students of philosophy theology worldview and culture will welcome Desiring the Kingdom as will those involved in ministry and other interested readers Theology and the Globalized Present John C. McDowell, 2019-04-02 Theology and the Globalized Present focuses on the world's future in God and God's creativeness In response to a globalized economy that reconfigures time to the detriment of human flourishing McDowell presents a re imagined theological vision of eschatological memory and Eucharistic performance This entails not so much a dreaming of a different world as a dreaming of this world differently The theological materials offer a temporality that is hope generating critically attentive to the inequitable character of features of our world and educative of ethical wisdom in a self regulating and emancipatory witness of remembering and anticipating the transformative presence of God

The Other Worldview Peter Jones, 2015-06-24 A must read for every concerned American and especially for every Christian who weeps at the graveside of his culture R C Sproul A cataclysmic change has occurred as our culture has shifted toward belief in Oneism Every religion and philosophy fits into one of two basic worldviews Oneism asserts that everything is essentially one while Twoism affirms an irreducible distinction between creation and Creator The Other Worldview exposes the pagan roots of Oneism traces its spread throughout Western culture and demonstrates its inability to save For bodily holiness and transformed thinking we depend entirely on one amazing thing the incredibly powerful message of the Gospel to a sinful world which is the ultimate expression and goal of Twoism The only hope is in Christ alone The Dark Years? Jacob L. Goodson, 2020-08-04 In 1997 and 1998 the American secular philosopher Richard Rorty published a set of predictions about the twenty first century ranging from the years 2014-95 He predicted for instance the election of a strong man in the 2016 presidential race and the proliferation of gun violence starting in 2014 He labels the years from 2014-44 the darkest years of American history politics and society From 2045-95 Rorty thinks his own vision for social hope will be implemented within American society a vision that includes charity in the Pauline sense solidarity and sympathy Rorty considers himself a leftist liberal and a philosopher of hope So why would a philosopher of hope predict such darkness and despair In The Dark Years Philosophy Politics and the Problem of Predictions philosopher and political theorist Jacob L Goodson explains the fullness of Rorty's predictions the problem of making predictions within the social sciences and the reasons why even Rorty's vision for life after the dark years fails us on the standards of hope Goodson argues that we ought to challenge the monopoly that American politics has as our object of hope Goodson makes the case for a melancholic yet redemptive hope Spirit of the Arts Steven Félix-Jäger, 2017-11-01 A contribution to the field of theological aesthetics this book explores the arts in and around the Pentecostal and charismatic renewal movements It proposes a pneumatological model for creativity and the arts and discusses different art forms from the perspective of that model Pentecostals and other charismatic Christians have not sufficiently worked out matters of aesthetics or teased out the great religious possibilities of engaging with the arts With the flourishing of Pentecostal culture comes the potential for an equally flourishing artistic life As this book demonstrates renewal movements have participated in the arts but have not systematized their findings in ways that express their theological commitments until now The book examines how to approach art in ways that are communal dialogical and theologically cultivating

Postsecular Cities Justin Beaumont, Christopher Baker, 2011-06-16 This book reflects the wide spread belief that the twenty first century is evolving in a significantly different way to the twentieth which witnessed the advance of human rationality and technological progress including urbanisation and called into question the public and cultural significance of religion In this century by contrast religion faith communities and spiritual values have returned to the centre of public life especially public policy governance and social identity Rapidly diversifying urban locations are the best places to witness the emergence of new spaces in which religions and spiritual traditions are creating both new alliances but also bifurcations with secular sectors Postsecular Cities examines how the built environment reflects these trends Recognizing that the turn to the postsecular is a contested and multifaceted trend the authors offer a vigorous open but structured dialogue between theory and practice but even more excitingly between the disciplines of human geography and theology Both disciplines reflect on this powerful but enigmatic force shaping our urban humanity This unique volume offers the first insight into these interdisciplinary and challenging debates

Indian Secularism and Religious Freedom Aruthuckal Varughese John, 2024-10-31 The book intricately examines secularism in India presenting it as a complex tapestry of social struggles which introduces assumptions not shared by traditional Hindu culture These cross pressures influence both societal and legal realms affecting how secularism is implemented The work suggests that these pressures originate from the doctrines that shape India's social fabric and culture It investigates whether secularism inherently assumes specific theological or cultural doctrines thus affecting its cultural manifestation By focusing on the intersection of religious freedom with human rights and legislation concerning the contentious issue of religious conversions the book delves into these complexities The Ghent school attempts to address these tensions by advocating for a Hindu interpretation of religious freedom However acknowledging the truth claims of all religious beliefs offers a better approach to mediating between the constitution and Hindu tradition Additionally it highlights how Christian converts have developed adaptive mechanisms that blend their faith with traditional Hindu culture This synthesis of beliefs and practices or hybrid lifestyles may provide a potential path forward reflecting a response to the experienced cross pressures

Everyday Life and the Sacred, 2017-11-06 An interdisciplinary gender sensitive approach toward perspectives on the everyday and the sacred are the hallmark of this volume Looking beyond the dualistic status quo the authors probe the categories textures powers and practices that define how we experience embody and understand religion and the sacred their interconnection but also

disassociation with the secular Contributions by an international group of feminist theologians and religious studies scholars aim to re configure the study of both religion and gender Angela Berlis Anne Marie Korte Kune Biezeveld Helga Kuhlmann Maaïke de Haardt Akke van der Kooi Dorothea Erbele Kster Willien van Wieringen Magda Misset van de Weg G Speelman Mathilde van Dijk Jacqueline Borsje Hedwig Meyer Wilmes Goedroen Juchtmans Alma Lanser and Riet Bons Storm The Language of Disenchantment Robert A. Yelle, 2013 The Language of Disenchantment explores how Protestant ideas about language inspired British colonial critiques of Hindu mythological ritual linguistic and legal traditions Global Dictionary of Theology William A. Dyrness, Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2009-10-25 Theological dictionaries are foundational to any theological library But until now there has been no Global Dictionary of Theology a theological dictionary that presumes the contribution of the Western tradition but moves beyond it to embrace and explore a full range of global expressions of theology The Global Dictionary of Theology is inspired by the shift of the center of Christianity from the West to the Global South But it also reflects the increase in two way traffic between these two sectors as well as the global awareness that has permeated popular culture to an unprecedented degree The editorial perspective of the Global Dictionary of Theology is an ecumenical evangelicalism that is receptive to discovering new facets of truth through listening and conversation on a global scale Thus a distinctive feature of the Global Dictionary of Theology is its conversational approach Contributors have been called on to write in the spirit of engaging in a larger theological conversation in which alternative views are expected and invited William A Dyrness Veli Matti Kärkkäinen Juan F Martinez and Simon Chan edit approximately 250 articles written by over 100 contributors representing the global spectrum of theological perspectives Pastors theological teachers theological students and lay Christian leaders will all find the Global Dictionary of Theology to be a resource that unfolds new dimensions and reveals new panoramas of theological perspective and inquiry Here is a new launching point for doing theology in today's global context Reformed Resurgence Brad Vermurlen, 2020 One of the biggest movements in American Christianity especially among younger evangelicals is a groundswell of interest in the Reformed tradition In Reformed Resurgence Brad Vermurlen provides a comprehensive sociological account of this New Calvinist phenomenon and what it entails for the broader evangelical landscape in the United States Migrations of the Holy William T. Cavanaugh, 2011-02-10 Whether one thinks that religion continues to fade or has made a comeback in the contemporary world there is a common notion that religion went away somewhere at least in the West But William Cavanaugh argues that religious fervor never left it has only migrated toward a new object of worship In Migrations of the Holy he examines the disconcerting modern transfer of sacred devotion from the church to the nation state In these chapters Cavanaugh cautions readers to be wary of a rigid separation of religion and politics that boxes in the church and sends citizens instead to the state for hope comfort and salvation as they navigate the risks and pains of mortal life When nationality becomes the primary source of identity and belonging he warns the state becomes the god and idol of its own religion the language of nationalism becomes a liturgy and devotees willingly sacrifice their lives to serve and defend their country Cavanaugh urges Christians to resist this form of idolatry to unthink the inevitability of the nation state and its dreary party politics to embrace radical forms of political pluralism that privilege local communities and to cling to an incarnational theology that weaves itself seamlessly and tangibly into all aspects of daily life and culture William Cavanaugh continues to provide leadership and vision in the field of political theology He addresses essential questions about the religious status of the nation state the political character of the church and how the tradition of Christian political thought might be brought to bear upon contemporary politics Unfolds a theological response to present political conditions and a political response to our theological condition Luke Bretherton King s College London Another vigorous but distinct voice in the burgeoning conversation about the role of religion generally and the church specifically in political life Worth a careful read Robert Benne
