Ageing And Spirituality Across Faiths And Cultures:

Ageing and Spirituality across Faiths and Cultures Elizabeth MacKinlay, 2010-03-15 This book examines ageing in the context of the many faiths and cultures that make up Western society and provides carers with the knowledge they need to deliver appropriate care to people of all faiths Chapters are written by authoritative figures from each of the world's major faith groups about the beliefs and practices of their older people Spiritual Dimensions of Ageing Malcolm Johnson, Joanna Walker, 2016-11-24 Well known authors in the field of ageing and spirituality present their considered contributions to current understandings in this fast changing field Spirituality across Disciplines: Research and Practice: Marian de Souza, Jane Bone, Jacqueline Watson, 2016-06-29 This book collects multiple disciplinary voices which explore current research and perspectives to discuss how spirituality is understood interpreted and applied in a range of contexts It addresses spirituality in combination with such topics as Christian mysticism childhood and adolescent education midwifery and sustainability It links spirituality to a variety of disciplines including cognitive neuroscience sociology and psychology Finally it discusses the application of spirituality within the context of social work teaching health care and occupational therapy A final chapter provides an analytical discussion of the different voices that appear in the book and offers a holistic description of spirituality which has the potential to bring some unity to the meaning expression and practice of spirituality across a variety of disciplines as well as across cultural religious and secular worldviews A strength of the book is that each chapter is characterized by a fearless confronting of oppositional perspectives and use of the latest research in addressing them The book takes the difficult topic of spirituality into almost every nook and cranny of personal and professional life There is a persistent grasping of the contentiousness of the topic together with addressing counter positions and utilizing updated research across a range of fields in doing this The opening and closing chapters serve as book ends that keep the whole volume together Terence Lovat The University of Newcastle Australia The interdisciplinary nature of the work is by far the strongest aspect of this volume It has the potential to contribute to a dialogue between different professions and disciplines This prospective publication promises to promote a more holistic approach to the study of spirituality This volume takes into consideration a wide variety of issues The way the editors have structured the sequence of chapters contributes to facilitate any possible dialogue between the different areas Adrian Mario Gellel University of Malta Malta Spirituality and Personhood in Dementia Albert Jewell, 2011-08-15 Offering an inter disciplinary approach to spirituality and personhood in dementia care the contributors to this book are leading practitioners and researchers in the field They provide both a theoretical structure and a practical understanding of the essential role that spirituality can play in the affirmation of personhood and identity Belief and Ageing Peter G. Coleman, 2011 This book illustrates the variety of religious spiritual and other beliefs held by older people including British Christians Muslims Humanists and witnesses of the Soviet persecution of religion Palliative Care, Ageing and Spirituality Elizabeth MacKinlay, 2012 With sensitivity and compassion this guide provides comfort and support for older people who are nearing the end of life as well as their families offering practical suggestions in dealing with pain suffering prayer and fear of dying Original Finding Meaning in the Experience of Dementia Elizabeth MacKinlay, Corinne Trevitt, 2012-07-15 This groundbreaking book reveals the findings of the first major study on spiritual reminiscence with people with dementia The authors present evidence for the efficacy of spiritual reminiscence with this group and drawing on examples demonstrate its many benefits as revealed by the study

Women, Law and Culture Jocelynn A. Scutt, 2017-02-17 This book explores cultural constructs societal demands and political and philosophical underpinnings that position women in the world It illustrates the way culture controls women s place in the world and how cultural constraints are not limited to any one culture country ethnicity race class or status Written by scholars from a wide range of specialists in law sociology anthropology popular and cultural studies history communications film and sex and gender this study provides an authoritative take on different cultures cultural demands and constraints contradictions and requirements for conformity generating conflict Women Law and Culture is distinctive because it recognises that no particular culture singles out women for special treatment rules and requirements rather all do Highlighting the way law and culture are intimately intertwined impacting on women whatever their country and social and economic status this book will be of great interest to scholars of law women s and gender studies and media studies

Sustaining Persons, Grieving Losses Dianne Crowther, 2017-01-19 Dementia presents a significant social issue in a hyper cognitive culture where stigma relational neglect and isolation still accompany forgetfulness This raises serious theological ecclesiological and pastoral questions calling for a Christian response To fight against a malignant social positioning of anyone as an empty shell is crucial nonetheless there is another pressing reality the reality of ongoing loss Often the focus is on one or the other side affirming personhood or acknowledging loss and grief Spiritual caregiving and Christian pastoral caregiving are uniquely placed to offer both sustaining relationship and grief support to both caregivers and persons with dementia This pastoral approach emerges from cultural scholarship rigorous on the ground research and theological reflection on God s purposes in responding to persons in and beyond the Christian community Christian communities are called to be places of agape love compassion and hospitality We individually and corporately are called to care to love honor value comfort and sustain one another and one another includes those who travel the road of forgetting and those who travel with them This fresh pastoral approach offers theologically and culturally informed practical ways of sustaining persons in the midst of their losses throughout the dementia journey Reasonable Faith for a Post-Secular Age

William Greenway, 2020-12-16 Our global community desperately needs overt awakening to an age of reason and faith Reasonable Faith for a Post Secular Age meets this need by interpreting faith not in terms of belief in propositions but in terms of living surrender to having been seized by agape for every Face including one s own Virtually all faith traditions from Buddhism to Humanism to Wiccan are rooted in agape and therefore share considerable spiritual and ethical common ground

a truth long veiled In contrast to ethically feckless secular rationality over which a devastating global social Darwinism currently runs roughshod faith qua living surrender to agape grounds moral realism awakens us to love for all creatures and inspires struggles for justice Inspired by the philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas and Christian spirituality Greenway engages on the one hand intellectuals like Stanley Hauerwas Richard Rorty Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Jeffery Stout Charles Taylor and Bernard Williams and on the other contemporary debates over consciousness free will evil and metaethics He details the character of secular rationality s devastating scission from moral reality and clarifies the promise of understanding faith and spirituality in terms of agape Oxford Textbook of Spirituality in Healthcare Mark Cobb,Christina M Puchalski,Bruce Rumbold,2012-08-09 Spirituality and healthcare is an emerging field of research practice and policy Healthcare organisations and practitioners are therefore challenged to understand and address spirituality to develop their knowledge and implement effective policy This is the first reference text on the subject providing a comprehensive overview of key topics Religion and Spirituality Across Cultures Chu Kim-Prieto,2014-08-07 This book presents an integrated review and critical analysis of the recent research in the positive psychology of religion with focus on the positive psychology of religion across different cultures and religions The book provides a review of the literature on different contributions of religion and spirituality to positive functioning and well being and reviews religions across the world including Christianity Islam Buddhism Judaism Sikhism Native American religions and Hinduism It fills a unique place in the market s increasing interest and demand in the psychology of religion as well as positive psychology While the target audience is researchers scholars and students in psychology cross cultural studies religious studies and social sciences it will be useful for anyone interested in better understanding the contributions of religion and culture in subjective well being The Spiritual Dimension of Ageing, Second Edition Elizabeth MacKinlay,2017-02-21 People are asking more and more questions about life and meaning as they are growing older and living for longer There are increasing opportunities to engage with spiritual well being later in life This book provides a comprehensive study of spirituality and ageing with newly updated material on recent developments in this field Facilitating Spiritual Reminiscence for People with Dementia Elizabeth MacKinlay,Corinne Trevitt,2015-06-21 Putting research into practice this book presents a practical guide to spiritual reminiscence with older people living with dementia Clear step by step instructions for planning and hosting sessions are accompanied by important information on what spiritual care actually is and its importance in caring for older people with dementia Changing Cultures of Ageing and Spirituality Elizabeth MacKinlay,Ann Harrington,2023-09-12 This book addresses important issues of ageing and spirituality and reflects on the impact of culture on both constructs The papers are contemporary in that they include excerpts of cultural impact on spirituality from New Zealand Singapore India United Kingdom Australia and the United States This book marks almost 20 years of international conferences on ageing and spirituality that commenced in January 2000 It opens the conversation to all who were part of this journey of ageing including older people practitioners in ageing and aged care researchers and those who reflect on the process of growing older Chapters feature diverse perspectives highlighting the need for inclusivity in conversations that surround ageing and recognize how development of cultures is influenced by the society where they emerge and by minority groups within larger society Chapters also note the occurrence of subcultures of ageing and aged care The conference was held shortly before the onset of the COVID 19 pandemic with the chapters being written often during times of lockdown Their content reflects the importance of spirituality in times of isolation and can show ways of reaching out to vulnerable older people of various faiths and cultures whatever their situations Changing Cultures of Ageing and Spirituality will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Theology Divinity and Religious Studies Gerontology Sociology Psychology Mental Health and Nursing The chapters included in this book were originally published as a special issue of Journal of Religion Spirituality Aging Spirituality, Religion, and Aging Holly Nelson-Becker, 2017-02-01 Spirituality Religion and Aging Illuminations for Therapeutic Practice by Holly Nelson Becker is a highly integrative book written for students professionals in aging ministers and older adults themselves Readers will gain the knowledge and skills they need to assess engage and address the spiritual and religious needs of older persons Taking a fresh approach that breaks new ground in the field the author discusses eight major world religions and covers values and ethics theories interventions health and caregiving depression and anxiety dementia and the end of life Meditations and exercises throughout the book allow readers to expand and explore their personal understanding of spirituality Referencing the latest research the book includes assessments and skill based tools designed to help practitioners enhance the mental health of older people Health Assessment in Nursing Australia and New Zealand Edition Peter J. Lewis, David Foley, 2020-04-07 This practice oriented person centred learning tool will help you acquire the knowledge skills and competencies you need to perform accurate health assessments in an ever changing health care environment The text helps you learn how to think like a health care professional by developing your clinical reasoning skills It guides you through collecting assessment data before moving on to discussing the health assessment of each patient explaining the decision making process used to identify patient problems

As recognized, adventure as skillfully as experience just about lesson, amusement, as competently as conformity can be gotten by just checking out a ebook Ageing And Spirituality Across Faiths And Cultures then it is not directly done, you could acknowledge even more in the region of this life, around the world.

We meet the expense of you this proper as well as easy exaggeration to get those all.
