Aging Bodies Images And Everyday Experience:

Aging Bodies Christopher A. Faircloth, 2003-06-11 Western thought traditionally divides the human being into a body mind dualism a divide realized in the divergent research fields of geriatrics and gerontology the first examines the physical body and the second focuses instead upon psychological and social aspects of aging Research Health Scientist Christopher Faircloth s edited volume of original pieces attempts to bridge this rift reinserting the physical aging body and its lived experiences back into gerontology s study of aging He asks Is it not the physical body that readily marks us as aging Faircloth organizes this text around two major themes of the aging body everyday experience and the social and personal impact of its imagery while concentrating on three areas of substantive concern medicalization gender sexuality and the body as consumer This book would be of interest to gerontologists social scientists and students of these fields concerned with the aging body both object and subject as experienced and alternatively perceived in relation to contemporary society Aging Bodies Christopher A. Faircloth, 2003 Western thought traditionally divides the human being into a body mind dualism a divide realized in the divergent research fields of geriatrics which examines the physical body and gerontology which focuses on the psychological and social aspects of aging Researching Later Life and Ageing Miranda Leontowitsch, 2016-11-09 This collection on researching later life and ageing critically reflects upon the qualitative methods used in gaining knowledge of under researched groups of older people and sets out future research agendas Age Matters Toni M. Calasanti, Kathleen F. Slevin, 2013-10-11 This volume of original chapters is designed to bring attention to a neglected area of feminist scholarship aging After several decades of feminist studies we are now well informed of the complex ways that gender shapes the lives of women and men Similarly we know more about how gendered power relations interface with race and ethnicity class and sexual orientation Serious theorizing of old age and age relations to gender represents the next frontier of feminist scholarship In this volume leading national and international feminist scholars of aging take first steps in this direction illuminating how age relations interact with other social inequalities particularly gender In doing so the authors challenge and transform feminist scholarship and many taken for granted concepts in gender studies New Directions in Israeli Media Yaron Peleg, 2025-05-06 A comprehensive analysis of the major trends and developments in contemporary Israeli media Embodied Resistance Chris Bobel, Samantha Kwan, 2011 Ethnographies about transgressing social expectations of the body Women and Exercise Eileen Kennedy, Pirkko Markula, 2011-01-12 This volume examines women s contradictory experiences of their bodies health and exercise within the cultural context of consumerism Featuring contributions by leading scholars on women and exercise across North America and Europe this timely examination of women exercise and fitness will shape the international dialogue on these critical issues Aging Men, Masculinities and Modern Medicine Antje Kampf, Barbara L. Marshall, Alan Petersen, 2013-05-07 Aging Men Masculinities and Modern Medicine explores the multiple socio historical contexts surrounding men s aging bodies in modern medicine from a global perspective

The first of its kind it investigates the interrelated aspects of aging masculinities and biomedicine allowing for a timely reconsideration of the conceptualisation of aging men within the recent explosion of social science studies on men's health and biotechnologies including anti aging perspectives This book discusses both healthy and diseased states of aging men in medical practices bringing together theoretical and empirical conceptualisations Divided into four parts it covers Historical epistemology of aging bodies and masculinity and the way in which the social sciences have theorised the aging body and gender Material practices and processes by which biotechnology medical assemblages and men's aging bodies relate to concepts of health and illness Aging experience and its impact upon male sexuality and identity The importance of men's roles and identities in care giving situations and medical practices Highlighting how aging men's bodies serve as trajectories for understanding wider issues of masculinity and the way in which men's social status and men's roles are made in medical cultures this innovative volume offers a multidisciplinary dialogue between sociology of health and illness anthropology of the body and gender studies

Sport and the Social Significance of Pleasure Richard Pringle, Robert E. Rinehart, Jayne Caudwell, 2015-06-05 This innovative text's critical examination foregrounds the prime reason why so many people participate in or watch sport pleasure Although there has been a turn to emotions and affect within academia over the last two decades it has been somewhat remiss that pleasure as an integral aspect of human life has not received greater attention from sociologists of sport exercise and physical education This book addresses this issue via an unabashed examination of sport and the moving body via a pleasure lens It provides new insights about the production of various identities power relations and social issues and the dialectical links between the socio cultural and the body Taking a wide sweeping view of pleasure dignified and debauched distinguished and mundane it examines topics as diverse as aging health fandom running extreme sports biopolitics consumerism feminism sex and sexuality In drawing from diverse theoretical approaches and original empirical research the text reveals the social and political significance of pleasure and provides a more rounded dynamic and sensual account of sport

Shame and the Aging Woman J. Brooks Bouson, 2016-08-19 This book brings together the research findings of contemporary feminist age studies scholars shame theorists and feminist gerontologists in order to unfurl the affective dynamics of gendered ageism In her analysis of what she calls embodied shame J Brooks Bouson describes older women's shame about the visible signs of aging and the health and appearance of their bodies as they undergo the normal processes of bodily aging Examining both fictional and nonfiction works by contemporary North American and British women authors this book offers a sustained analysis of the various ways that ageism devalues and damages the identities of otherwise psychologically healthy women in our graying culture Shame theory as Bouson shows astutely explains why gendered ageism is so deeply entrenched in our culture and why even aging feminists may succumb to this distressing but sometimes hidden cultural affliction

Discourses of Ageing and Gender Clare Anderson, 2018-08-25 This book presents in depth investigation of the language used about women and ageing in public discourse and compares this with the language used by women to express their personal lived experience of ageing It takes a linguistic approach to identify how messages contained in public discourse influence how individual women evaluate their own ageing and particularly their ageing appearance It begins by establishing the wider cultural context that produces prevailing attitudes to women before turning to an analysis of representations of the ageing female body in beauty and cosmetic advertising and the lifestyle media The focus then moves to a detailed investigation of women's own perceptions of the process of ageing and of their ageing appearance as revealed through their personal narratives The final chapters challenge dominant attitudes to women and ageing by presenting two case studies of women who for different reasons and in different ways refuse to conform to cultural expectations This work provides a platform for further academic research in the fields of linguistics gerontology gender and media studies as well as offering meaningful applications in the wider domains of business and advertising

Unmasking Age Bill Bytheway, 2011 What is age A simple question but not that easy to answer Unmasking Age addresses it using data from a series of research projects relating to later life This is supplemented by material from a range of other sources including diaries and fiction Drawing on a long career in social research Bill Bytheway critically examines various methods and discusses ways of uncovering the realities of age

Ageing and the Media Virpi Ylännö, 2024-02-13 Bringing together leading scholars this international collection examines different dimensions of ageing and ageism in a range of media and how older adults use and interact with the media

Acculturating Age: Approaches to Cultural Gerontology Brian J. Worsfold, 2011 Acculturating refers to the interchange of patterns of behaviour perceptions and ideas between groups of individuals who have different cultural backgrounds This book which is the result of collaboration between specialists from different disciplines from around the world allows the comparison of systems of dependency mediation skills empathy and social understanding and cultural attitudes towards people who experience the stages of aging

Ageing Masculinities in Contemporary European and Anglophone Cinema Tony Tracy, Michaela Schrage-Früh, 2022-12-30 This volume offers a unique exploration of how ageing masculinities are constructed and represented in contemporary international cinema With chapters spanning a range of national cinemas the primarily European focus of the book is juxtaposed with analysis of the social and cultural constructions of manhood and the anti ageing impulses of male stardom in contemporary Hollywood These themes are inflected in different ways throughout the volume from considering how old age is not the monolithic and unified life stage with which it is often framed to exploring issues of queerness sexuality and asexuality as well as themes such as national cinema and dementia Offering a diverse and multifaceted portrait of ageing and masculinity in contemporary cinema this book will be of interest to scholars and students of film and screen studies gender and masculinity studies and cultural gerontology

Ageing, health and care Christina R. Victor, 2010-07-01 The ageing of the population has enormous implications for the provision of and access to health care Christina Victor's important textbook provides comprehensive overview of the experiences of older people chapters on physical health mental health disability and lifestyle a thesis of current policy developments the key debates on the future health of elders and an international up to date perspective Written by a leader in the field the book covers key questions such as the fitness of future older people the widening inequalities in their health and whether health in old age is related to habits and behaviour in earlier life Handbook of Constructionist Research James A. Holstein, Jaber F.

Gubrium, 2013-10-21 Constructionism has become one of the most popular research approaches in the social sciences But until now little attention has been given to the conceptual and methodological underpinnings of the constructionist stance and the remarkable diversity within the field This cutting edge handbook brings together a dazzling array of scholars to review the foundations of constructionist research how it is put into practice in multiple disciplines and where it may be headed in the future The volume critically examines the analytic frameworks strategies of inquiry and methodological choices that together form the mosaic of contemporary constructionism making it an authoritative reference for anyone interested in conducting research in a constructionist vein The Ways Women Age Abigail T. Brooks, 2017-03-07 The story of how and why some women choose to use while others refuse cosmetic intervention What is it like to be a woman growing older in a culture where you cannot go to the doctor open a magazine watch television or surf the internet without encountering products and procedures that are designed to make you look younger What do women have to say about their decision to embrace cosmetic anti aging procedures And alternatively how do women come to decide to grow older without them In the United States today women are the overwhelming consumers of cosmetic anti aging surgeries and technologies And while not all women undergo these procedures their exposure to them is almost inevitable Set against the backdrop of commercialized medicine in the United States Abigail T Brooks investigates the anti aging craze from the perspective of women themselves examining the rapidly changing cultural attitudes pressures and expectations of female aging Drawn from in depth interviews with women in the United States who choose and refuse to have cosmetic anti aging procedures The Ways Women Age provides a fresh understanding of how today s women feel about aging The women s stories in this book are personal biographies that explore identity and body image and are reflexively shaped by beauty standards expectations of femininity and an increasingly normalized climate of cosmetic anti aging intervention The Ways Women Age offers a critical perspective on how women respond to 21st century expectations of youth and beauty Sex for Life Laura Carpenter, John DeLamater, 2012-02-01 Sexual beliefs behaviors and identities are interwoven throughout our lives from childhood to old age An edited collection of original empirical contributions united through its use of a distinctive cutting edge theoretical framework Sex for Life critically examines sexuality across the entire lifespan Rooted in diverse disciplines and employing a wide range of research methods the chapters explore the sexual and social transitions that typically map to broad life stages as well as key age graded physiological transitions such as puberty and menopause while drawing on the latest developments in gender sexuality and life course studies Sex for Life explores a wide variety of topics including puberty sexual initiation coming out sexual assault marriage life partnering disability onset immigration divorce menopause and widowhood always attending to the social locations including gender race ethnicity and social class that shape and are shaped by sexuality The empirical work collected in Sex for Life ultimately speaks to important public policy issues such as sex education aging societies and the increasing politicization of scientific research Accessibly written the contributions capture the interplay between individual lives and the ever changing social historical context facilitating new insight not only into people s sexual lives but also into ways of studying them ultimately providing a fresh new perspective on sexuality

The Silvering Screen

Sally Chivers, 2011-05-14 Popular films have always included elderly characters but until recently old age only played a supporting role onscreen Now as the Baby Boomer population hits retirement there has been an explosion of films including Away From Her The Straight Story The Barbarian Invasions and About Schmidt where aging is a central theme The first ever sustained discussion of old age in cinema The Silvering Screen brings together theories from disability studies critical gerontology and cultural studies to examine how the film industry has linked old age with physical and mental disability Sally Chivers further examines Hollywood s mixed messages the applauding of actors who portray the debilitating side of aging while promoting a culture of youth as well as the gendering of old age on film The Silvering Screen makes a timely attempt to counter the fear of aging implicit in these readings by proposing alternate ways to value getting older
