Agricultural Involution The Processes Of Ecological Change In Indonesia:

Agricultural Involution Clifford Geertz, 1963 A remarkably interesting account of Indonesian agricultural history primarily covering the period of Dutch control from 1619 to 1942 Drawing on ecology sociology and economics Geertz provides an insightful and persuasive analysis The Annals If colonial geography ever succeeds in establishing itself as a discrete and integral focus of inquiry it may well date its majority to the publication of Agricultural Involution Geographical Record A brilliant and superbly written study an incisive even frightening description of the most crucial dilemma in contemporary Indonesia Agricultural History A valuable and important study in which source materials from history economics soil science geography and other fields are brilliantly marshalled and interrelated But besides being an exemplary study in the interaction of history physical environment and agricultural technology this book represents a watershed between narrowly conceived ethnographies and the flood of verbose and ill digested post war technology and social change monographs that are wont to aim high and hit wide A model of comparative analytical writing Man The Agricultural Involution Clifford Geertz, 1966 The Agricultural Involution Clifford Geertz, 1966 Essays in Trespassing Albert O. Hirschman, 1981-08-31 This book brings together fourteen articles and papers written by Albert O Hirschman About half deal with the interaction of economic development with politics and ideology the area in which Hirschman perhaps has made most noted contributions Among these papers are The Rise and Declines of Development Economics a magisterial and yet pointed essay in intellectual history and his famous article The Changing Tolerance for Income Inequality in the Course of Economic Development Hirschman s ability to trespass or rather his inability not to trespass from one social science to another and beyond is the unifying characteristic of the volume Authoritative searching surveys alternate here with essays presenting some of Hirschman s characteristic inventions for instance the tunnel effect and obituary improving activities Three of the papers have not been published previously and a number of introductory notes have been especially drafted for the present volume to evoke the intellectual political climate in which certain groups of essays were written The Java that Never was Hans Antlöv, Jörgen Hellman, 2005 This book is about how cultures and societies on Java over the past century have been perceived and socially constructed by scholars inside and outside of Indonesia It is a reflective book how on the one hand academic theories have shaped our view of Java and on the other hand how the study of Java has influenced theoretical developments within a number of disciplines including anthropology development studies religious studies political science gender studies and the arts BOOK JACKET Swidden Agriculture in Indonesia Michael R. Dove, 2012-06-04 No detailed description available for Swidden Agriculture in Indonesia The Making of Middle Indonesia Gerry van Klinken, 2014-01-30 What holds Indonesia together A strong leader is the answer most often given This book looks instead at a middle level of society Middle classes in provincial towns around the vast archipelago mediate between the state and society and help to constitute state power Middle Indonesia is a social zone connecting extremes The Making of Middle

Indonesia examines the rise of an indigenous middle class in one provincial town far removed from the capital city Spanning the late colonial to early New Order periods it develops an unusual associational notion of political power Soft modalities of power included non elite provincial people in the emerging Indonesian state At the same time growing inequalities produced class tensions that exploded in violence in 1965 1966 Agroecological Innovations Norman Uphoff,2013-06-17 The world s food supply needs to rise significantly yet both arable and water supplies per capita are decreasing Not only are modern agricultural methods beyond the reach of those suffering the greatest food insecurity but they are also ecologically damaging relying upon fossil energy and chemical inputs This volume offers a collection of innovative and diverse approaches to agricultural development Documented in 12 case studies these approaches are reliant upon greater knowledge skill and labour input rather than larger capital expenditure They are shown to increase yield substantially sometimes doubling or tripling output This volume presents the concepts and operational means for reorienting agricultural efforts towards these more environmentally friendly and socially desirable approaches in the developed as well as developing world Indonesian Education Christopher Bjork,2005-06-01 Indonesian Education Teachers Schools and Central Authority the first published study of life inside Indonesian schools explores the role that classroom teachers behavior and locates their actions within the broader cultures of education and government in Indonesia Indonesia Howard W. Beers,2021-10-21 The need to find solutions to the grave economic and political problems faced by Indonesia presents a constant challenge In this volume scholars in a variety of fields study a broad spectrum of the problems of this new nation Their overall focus centers on Indonesia s land and population with emphasis on the most efficient means of developing physical and human resources

The Agrarian Origins of Commerce and Industry Yujiro Hayami,Toshihiko Kawagoe,2016-07-27 This study challenges the traditional image of peasants in developing economies as always passive to market forces In this study of marketing upland crops in Indonesia the authors demonstrate active peasant participation and entrepreneurship in commercial and industrial activities The peasant marketing system not only works as an effective bridge between farm producers and consumers but also produces significant employment and income in the rural sector The Indonesian case suggests a genuine possibility of rural based economic development in the third world Routledge Handbook of the Environment in Southeast Asia Philip Hirsch,2016-09-13 The environment is one of the defining issues of our times and it is closely linked to questions and dilemmas surrounding economic development Southeast Asia is one of the world s most economically and demographically dynamic regions and it is also one in which a host of environmental issues raise themselves The Routledge Handbook of the Environment in Southeast Asia is a collection of 30 chapters dealing with the most significant scholarly debates in this rapidly growing field of study Structured in four main parts it gives a comprehensive regional overview of and insight into the environment in Southeast Asia Wide ranging and balanced this handbook promotes scholarly understanding of how environmental issues are dealt with from diverse theoretical perspectives It offers a detailed empirical understanding of the myriad environmental problems and challenges faced in Southeast Asia This is the first publication of its kind in this field a helpful companion for a global audience and for scholars of Southeast Asian studies from a variety of disciplines In Search of Southeast Asia David Joel Steinberg, David P.
