The Structural Exclusion of Rape Complainants in South Africa's Criminal Justice System Jameelah Omar, 2025-10-09
Exploring the intricate dynamics surrounding rape complainants within the South African criminal justice system this book proposes reforms in the approach to participation of victims with the aim of mitigating the structural barriers imposed by the adversarial process Broadening the concept of participation the book takes a comprehensive view of meaningful participation at every stage of the legal process and argues that participation can further justice for rape victims In doing so it highlights that justice as an outcome of the criminal process should not solely be focused on convicting perpetrators but about restoring the dignity of and empowering victims Through the practical proposals included in the book to integrate complainants into the criminal process readers will gain an understanding of what is possible even within the structures of the adversarial system and activists both within and outside the system will be better equipped to advocate for systemic change The Structural Exclusion of Rape Complainants in South Africa's Criminal Justice System will be of value to students and scholars of socio legal studies criminal law and criminology particularly those focused on sexual offences victimology and the criminal justice system It will also be of interest to those working with victims such as NGOs providing legal representation victim support and therapeutic counselling

Signergy C. J. Conradie, Ronèl Johl, Marthinus Beukes, 2010 The title of this volume strives to capture the dynamic scope and range of the essays it contains applying insights into the workings of iconicity to texts as far removed from each other in time as the Medieval tale of a bishop fish and the war poems of 20th century Italian Futurist F T Marinetti and as thematically diverse as the Pilgrim's Progress and the poetry of e e cummings Applications reference both language and linguistics as well as literature and literary theory and related fields such as sign language and translation the former approached from the point of view of Japan Sign Language the latter with reference to translations of the Koran and the Sesotho Bible as well as modern German and English Bible translations On the language side the intricate relationships between sound symbolism and etymology and between analogy and grammaticalization are examined in depth On the literary side the iconic effects of techniques such as enjambment and metrical inversion are considered but also the ways in which an understanding of iconicity can open up meanings in complex poetry like that of the Afrikaans poet T T Cloete in this particular instance three poems inspired by figures as diverse as Dante Paul Klee and the pop icon Marilyn Monroe In view of the fact that form is able to mime meaning and meaning itself can be mimed by meaning the theoretical question is asked on the basis of a wide range of examples from literature language music and other sign systems whether meaning can also mime form An introduction to the work of H C T Muller an early scholar in the field of iconicity highlights a regrettably little known South African contribution to the development of iconicity theory

Openness and Evidence: The Oscar Pistorius Crossroad Dr Sonja Els, 2024-11-15 Weighing the constitutional rights of freedom of expression of the media and fair trial rights of the criminal accused known as the fair trial free press conundrum is a global challenge The development of technology such as live streaming of criminal trials through television and real time reporting through social media challenges the traditional views of open justice especially regarding evidence and the credibility thereof The legal maxim of Justice must be seen to be done lies at the heart of this book that focuses on openness and evidence in the South African criminal process The principle of open justice a Constitutional requirement is examined in relation to truth finding in the adversarial system of evidence New media challenge the procedural legitimacy of evidence As a rule of practice to prevent witness contamination witnesses in a criminal trial remain outside the courtroom while the other witnesses testify This book explores the impact of live broadcasting and streaming of criminal trials on the credibility of witnesses who might have been exposed to evidence before testifying The book also evaluates the applicability of the sub judice rule against the requirement of openness Furthermore the conflicting constitutional rights being the right to a fair trial and the right to freedom of expression are interrogated in the quest to new media broadcasting The book features a legal comparison between the jurisprudence of South Africa the United States of America and Britain in the domain of new media court reporting In conclusion principles of therapeutic jurisprudence are considered as live broadcasting of criminal trials may provide therapeutic outcomes for the victim the accused and the broader society This book serves as an indispensable resource for those navigating the intersection between the use of new media in court reporting and the constitutional imperatives being open justice and fundamental rights Scholars in the fields of Law of Criminal Procedure Media Law and Constitutional Law will gain fresh insights into these topical issues
