Francis de Sales and

Jane de Chantal Wendy M. Wright, 2019-02-02 The lives and spiritual friendship of Saint Francis de Sales and Saint Jane de Chantal featuring a prayer a chronology and book club questions The story of the extraordinary spiritual friendship between Francis de Sales and Jane de Chantal is recounted in this welcome addition to the Saints by Our Side series Francis de Sales 1567 1622 was a priest bishop founder of Salesian spirituality and a renowned spiritual director Jane de Chantal 1572 1641 was a wife a mother a nun and the founder of a religious community The Concept of Freedom in the Writings of St.

Francis de Sales Eunan McDonnell, 2009 Through the examination of the concept of freedom in the writings of St Francis de Sales the author concludes that in contradistinction to a contemporary understanding of freedom perceived as self determination a Salesian understanding privileges freedom s relationship to the good This situates St Francis de Sales in the classical Thomistic tradition of freedom s necessary relationship to the good but involves a methodological shift as he employs the Renaissance starting point of the turn to the subject This study demonstrates how St Francis arrives inductively at what St Thomas demonstrated deductively namely the essential relationship of freedom to the good Along with this Thomistic influence the author analyses the Salesian indebtedness to Augustinian anthropology which explains the primacy St Francis gives to the will and consequently to love Love understood as the heart s movement towards the good allows the Salesian approach to move beyond the confines of a traditional faculty psychology to embrace a more biblical understanding of the human person This examination of love s relationship to freedom reveals their teleological and archaeological natures coming back to our origins wherein we discover the source of our freedom bestowed on us as a gift from God The Heirs

Carmelitanum of the Carmelites of the Ancient Observance in Rome The Disciplined Heart Caroline J. Simon,1997-03-25

Often what passes for love is a product of self deception and wishful thinking Genuine love according to philosopher Caroline J Simon must be based on knowledge of reality and Christianity affirms that reality includes not just who people are but the unfolding story of who God intends them to be Taking the use of narrative seriously The Disciplined Heart draws on works of literature to display a Christian understanding of love in its various forms love of self love of neighbor friendship romantic love and marital love Using instances of love and its counterfeits in novels and short stories by such authors as Flannery O Connor Leo Tolstoy George Eliot and F Scott Fitzgerald Simon constructs an account of love s joys and obligations that both charms and instructs Learned astute and elegantly written The Disciplined Heart is a groundbreaking work at the intersection of theology philosophy and literary analysis Francis de Sales Sage & Saint André Ravier,2007 Francis de Sales Wendy M. Wright,2005 Nineteenth-Century Salesian Pentecost, The Boenzi, Joseph, SDB,Chorpenning, Joseph F., OSFS,Toczyski, Suzanne C.,Wright, Wendy M.,2022 In the wake of the French Revolution and other upheavals Don Bosco 1815 1888 and other nineteenth century founders and spiritual leaders contributed to the development of spiritual practices and perspectives on the Christian life that have been described as the Salesian Pentecost Here are translations of and commentaries on the little known spiritual writings of Don Bosco his collaborators and his contemporaries involved in the Salesian Pentecost These diverse persons fully engaged in apostolic ministry or occupied with the demands of ordinary life as lay women and men were at the same time engaged in conscious spiritual practices that sought the interior exchange of the heart of Jesus for the human heart Related Lives Jodi Bilinkoff,2018-07-05 In early modern Catholic Europe and its colonies priests frequently developed close relationships with pious women serving as their spiritual directors during their lives and their biographers after their deaths In this richly illustrated book Jodi Bilinkoff explores the ways in which clerics related to those female penitents whom they determined were spiritually gifted and how they conveyed the live stories of these women to readers The resulting popular literatures of hagiography and spiritual autobiography produced hundreds of texts designed to establish models of behavior for the Catholic faithful in the period between the advent of printing and the beginning of the modern age Bilinkoff finds that confessional relations and the texts that document them reveal much about gender and social values She uses life narratives primarily from Spain but also from France Italy Portugal Spanish America and French Canada to examine the ways in which clerics presented female penitents as exemplary and how they constructed their own identities around their interactions with exceptional women These multilayered texts she suggests offer compelling accounts of individuals caught up in the pursuit of holiness and provide a key to understanding the resilience of Catholic culture in an age of religious change and conflict Religious Intimacies Mary Dunn,Brenna Moore,2020-11-03 Scholars of religion have come a long way since William James famously made of religion a matter between man and his maker For decades now they have been attentive to the ways in which religion takes shape as the product of broad social forces focusing on the dynamics of power and culture as heuristics for understanding religious phenomena and experience What however might they be missing by moving too quickly from one interpretative extreme to the other and what might we learn about religion by staying in the interstitial space between the individual in her solitude and society as a whole Religious Intimacies edited by Mary Dunn and Brenna Moore brings together nine scholars of modern Christianity to probe this in between space In essays that range from treatments of Jesuit indigenous relations in early modern Canada to the erotics of contemporary black theology each contributor makes the case for the study of the presence and power of affective ties and relational dynamics between friends lovers and intimate others even things as vital to the understanding of religion

Can Christianity Cure Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder? Ian Osborn, MD, 2008-04-01 Obsessive compulsive disorder OCD is a relentless condition the primary symptom being the occurrence of terrifying ideas images and urges that jump into a person's mind and return again and again despite the individual's attempt to remove them Christians who suffer from OCD may grapple with additional guilt as the undesired thoughts are frequently of a spiritual nature Yet people may be surprised to learn that some of the greatest leaders in Christian history also struggled with this malady What did they experience How did they cope Were they able to overcome these tormenting often violent obsessions Where did God fit into the picture Ian Osborn shares the personal accounts of Martin Luther John Bunyan and Saint Therese of Lisieux as well as his own story in exploring how faith and science work together to address this complex issue

Men and Women Making Friends in Early Modern France Lewis C. Seifert, Rebecca M. Wilkin, 2016-03-03 Today the friendships that grab people's imaginations are those that reach across inequalities of class and race The friendships that seem to have exerted an analogous level of fascination in early modern France were those that defied the assumption inherited from Aristotle and patristic sources that friendships between men and women were impossible Together the essays in Men and Women Making Friends in Early Modern France tell the story of the declining intelligibility of classical models of male friendship and of the rising prominence of women as potential friends The revival of Plato's friendship texts in the sixteenth century challenged Aristotle's rigid ideal of perfect friendship between men In the seventeenth century a new imperative of heterosociality opened a space for the cultivation of cross gender friendships while the spiritual friendships of the Catholic Reformation modeled relationships that transcended the gendered dynamics of galanterie Men and Women Making Friends in Early Modern France argues that the imaginative experimentation in friendships between men and women was a distinctive feature of early modern French culture The ten essays in this volume address friend making as a process that is creative of self and responsive to changing social and political circumstances Contributors reveal how men and women fashioned gendered selves and also circumvented gender norms through concrete friendship practices By showing that the benefits and the risks of friendship are magnified when gender roles and relations are unsettled the essays in this volume highlight the relevance of early modern friend making to friendship in the contemporary world
