Unbearable Lightness A Story Of Loss And Gain By Portia De Rossi:

Unbearable Lightness Portia de Rossi, 2011-03-03 I didn't decide to become anorexic. It snuck up on me disguised as a healthy diet, a professional attitude. Although there was a certain glamour to anorexics, I didn't want to be one. I just wanted to excel in dieting. And weighing in at 80 pounds on 300 calories a day, I was the best little dieter there ever was. In scalding prose, Portia de Rossi reveals the pain and illness that haunted her for decades. She alternately starved herself and binged, putting her life in danger and lying to herself and everyone around her about the depth of her illness. From her lowest point, Portia began the painful climb back to health and happiness, ultimately falling head over heels in love with Ellen DeGeneres. In this remarkable and landmark book, she tells a story that inspires hope and nourishes the spirit. What's Your Book?

Brooke Warner, 2025-07-30 What's Your Book is an aspiring author's go-to guide for getting from idea to publication. Brooke Warner is a publishing expert with thirteen years experience as an acquiring editor for major trade houses. In her book, she brings her unique understanding of book publishing from the vantage point of coach, editor, and publisher to each of the book's five chapters, which include understanding the art of becoming an author, getting over common hurdles, challenging counterproductive mindsets, building an author platform, and ultimately getting published. Brooke is known for her straightforward delivery, honest assessments, and compassionate touch with authors. What's Your Book contains the inspiration and information every writer needs to publish their first or next book. Getting Beyond "Whatever" Dr. Shale

Preston, 2012-01-04 Being a teenager is not easy, but it doesn't have to be that way. This book of transformational wisdom shows teenagers how to ditch the "whatever" attitude so that they can find enduring happiness, self-esteem, confidence, success, and fulfillment. media.faith.culture: Parents 101 Brett Ullman, 2011-09-19 Growing up, we didn't have the Internet; our friends didn't cut themselves, and text messaging wasn't even on the radar. Today's young people are bombarded by media of all kinds and have instant access to any subject and any topic of their choosing. Their media-saturated lives are inescapably inundated by chat rooms, movies, instant messaging, and their iPods. How do we help guide our children to live Godly lives amidst this kind of cultural climate? Brett Ullman discusses from a parent's perspective sensitive topics affecting today's young people, including cutting, suicide, substance abuse, sex, and violence. Bringing hope and an awareness to today's parents, Brett sheds light on how, with increased knowledge of youth trends, adults can be more discerning in their parenting strategies and better able to anticipate the needs of their children as they navigate the often-challenging waters of adolescence. Eating Disorders Julia Garbus, 2014-12-12 The National Association of Anorexia Nervosa and Associated Disorders states that approximately eight million people in the U.S. have anorexia nervosa, bulimia, and related eating disorders. This population includes both females and males, but as one essayist states in this book, for males with eating disorders, finding treatment can be difficult. Another essayist, Carrie Arnold, asks and answers the question of whether anorexia is a cultural disease. The National Institute of Mental Health essay provides a complete introduction and overview of eating disorders Readers will also evaluate what factors contribute to eating disorders and treatment and recovery issues

Story by Story Thomas Alderson Davis,Robert Arnold Johnson,2019-07-12 This volume brings together two authors one a psychiatrist one a philosopher to listen to one another's reading of five stories of what it's like to bear a different mental or physical illness The beginning story or anchor for the conversation that unfolds between them is that of a person subject to recurring spells of catatonia the uncanniest of human conditions They discover that truly understanding what an illness is calls for understanding it within the context of who suffers it that to understand illness is to establish the right relation between what is being suffered and who is suffering it This deceptively simple way of talking which is labelled who what talk will prove more practical and more clarifying than will terms like mental and physical Furthermore it has this additional dividend it intrinsically resists a temptation toward medical prejudice the inclination for doctors and other caregivers to lose the who of the sufferer through their focus on the what of her illness How Can I Help?
