Ilie Al., B. Al. Lazar, Dragomir Cristian, 2013-03-12 Quotes about war War is an organized and often prolonged conflict that is carried out by states and or non state actors It is characterised by extreme violence social disruption human suffering and economic destruction In 2003 Nobel Laureate Richard E Smalley identified war as the sixth of ten biggest problem facing the society of mankind for the next fifty years In the 1832 treatise On War Prussian military general and theoretician Carl von Clausewitz defined war as follows War is thus an act of force to compel our enemy to do our will Nations customarily measure the costs of war in dollars lost production or the number of soldiers killed or wounded Rarely do military establishments attempt to measure the costs of war in terms of individual human suffering Psychiatric breakdown remains one of the most costly items of war when expressed in human terms This book contains thoughts of many remarkable personalities and will give you a closer view of what war means The Justification of War and International Order Lothar Brock, Hendrik Simon, 2021 In the past few decades the understanding of the relationship between nations has undergone a radical transformation The role of the traditional nation state is diminishing along with many of the traditional vocabularies which were once used to describe what has been called ever since Jeremy Bentham coined the phrase in 1780 international law The older boundaries between states are growing ever more fluid new conceptions and new languages have emerged which are slowly coming to replace the image of a world of sovereign independent nation states which has dominated the study of international relations since the early nineteenth century This redefinition of the international arena demands a new understanding of classical and contemporary questions in international and legal theory It is the editors conviction that the best way to achieve this is by bridging the traditional divide between international legal theory intellectual history and legal and political history The aim of the series therefore is to provide a forum for historical studies from classical antiquity to the twenty first century that are theoretically informed and for philosophical work that is historically conscious in the hope that a new vision of the rapidly evolving international world its past and its possible future may emerge Book jacket In Defence of War Nigel Biggar, 2013-09-12 Against the domination of
