Children's Books in Print, 2007 ,2006 Reading the World's Stories Annette Y. Goldsmith, Theo Heras, Susan Corapi, 2016-08-11 Reading the World s Stories is volume 5 in the Bridges to Understanding series of annotated international youth literature bibliographies sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People USBBY is the United States chapter of the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY a Switzerland based nonprofit whose mission is bring books and children together The series promotes sharing international children s books as a way to facilitate intercultural understanding and meet new literary voices This volume follows Children s Books from Other Countries 1998 The World through Children s Books 2002 Crossing Boundaries with Children s Books 2006 and Bridges to Understanding Envisioning the World through Children s Books 2011 and acts as a companion book to the earlier titles Centered around the theme of the importance of stories the guide is a resource for discovering more recent global books that fit many reading tastes and educational needs for readers aged 0 18 years Essays by storyteller Anne Pellowski author Beverley Naidoo and academic Marianne Martens offer a variety of perspectives on international youth literature This latest installment in the series covers books published from 2010 2014 and includes English language imports as well as translations of children's and young adult literature first published outside of the United States. These books are supplemented by a smaller number of culturally appropriate books from the US to help fill in gaps from underrepresented countries. The organization of the guide is geographic by region and country. All of the more than 800 entries are recommended and many of the books have won awards or achieved other recognition in their home countries. Forty children's book experts wrote the annotations. The entries are indexed by author, translator, illustrator, title, and subject. Back matter also includes international book awards, important organizations and research collections, and a selected directory of publishers known for publishing books from other countries.

The Oxford Encyclopedia of Children's Literature:

Aamu-Duan Jack Zipes, 2006. Children's literature first became a distinct body of writing and publishing in the eighteenth century. Until the seventeenth century, children were usually considered as smaller versions of adults. As the notion of childhood as a distinct part of life emerged, a distinct body of literature emerged as well, designed both to entertain and edify this new class of readers. But for much of its history, books written for children were not seen as worthy of scholarly attention. Recently, this has changed with everyone from literary critics to psychologists to anthropologists to historians studying this incredibly rich outpouring. The Oxford Encyclopedia of Children's Literature is the first multi-volume set to document and interpret the books read by children in the English-speaking world. It includes brief biographies of every major author and illustrator and features essays on all genres of children's literature, individual works, and prominent trends and themes, as well as general essays on the traditions of children's literature in many countries in the world. American Illustration 25. Amicus Inc., 2006. The top juried annual of illustration from all over the field, from magazines, children's books, promotional material, and the artists' own personal files, is turning 25. The last time it had a big birthday, top educators asked to comment on its influence said American Illustration is quite simply the most important book for any student who aspires to learn how to catch the elusive one great idea. Cooper Union American Illustration is American art at its best, a rare experience in enjoyment and a trip to illustration Utopia. Savannah College of Art and Design and American Illustration is the most innovative and visually exciting overview of illustrative work available today. Rhode Island School of Design. The jury has spoken.
