Bonhoeffer And Business Ethics:

Bonhoeffer and Business Ethics Walton Padelford, 2011-02-01 David Dockery President of Union University writes Walt Padelford is to be applauded for this work on BONHOEFFER AND BUSINESS ETHICS which not only provides fresh perspective on the challenging work of Dietrich Bonhoeffer but offers insightful application for the field of business ethics I can envision this volume making a significant difference in business classes for both professors and students in days ahead Moreover this fine book will certainly have a powerful influence for all who seek to live as faithful followers of Jesus Christ Richard Chewning Emeritus Professor of Christian Ethics at Baylor University writes The book is a wonderful read for anybody interested in business business ethics or practical theology BONHOEFFER AND BUSINESS ETHICS raises the bar Dr Padelford escorts us through the maturing of Dietrich Bonhoeffer as he journeyed from pacifism to being a participant in the plot to kill Hitler The lesson life in the world is the crucible where Christ is manifested and this is life s highest objective also for business ethics Christ takes form in the world of business through the inner struggles of those in whom He lives as they engage in the rough and tumble of the marketplace Ethical principles ideas and formulations are the milk of the classroom but poor substitutes for the real challenges encountered in the fallen world The centrality of Christ an understanding of the stresses faced in commerce and the spiritual formation of the lives of students these three essentials should be tackled in Christian Business Schools

Christian Ethics and Contemporary Moral Problems Michael C. Banner, 1999-09-28 This book addresses such key ethical issues as euthanasia the environment biotechnology abortion the family sexual ethics and the distribution of health care resources Michael Banner argues that the task of Christian ethics is to understand the world and humankind in the light of the credal affirmations of the Christian faith and to explicate this understanding in its significance for human action through a critical engagement with the concerns claims and problems of other ethics. He illustrates both the distinctiveness of Christian convictions in relation to the above issues and also the critical dialogue with practices based on other convictions which this sense of distinctiveness motivates but does not prevent The book s importance lies in its attempt to show the crucial difference which Christian belief makes to an understanding of these issues whilst at the same time demonstrating some of the weaknesses and confusions of certain popular approaches to them Bonhoeffer's Christocentric Theology and Fundamental Debates in Environmental Ethics Steven C. van den Heuvel, 2017-05-04 There is widespread understanding of the close connection between religion and the ecological crisis and that in order to amend this crisis theological resources are needed This monograph seeks to contribute to this endeavor by engaging the theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer His theology is particularly suitable in this context due to its open ended nature and to the prophetic and radical nature of the questions he was prepared to ask that is why there are many other attempts to contextualize Bonhoeffer's theology in areas that he himself has not directly written about In this monograph Steven van den Heuvel first of all addresses the question of how to translate Bonhoeffer's theology in a methodologically sound way He settles on a modified form of the general method of correlation Then secondly van den Heuvel sets out to describe five major concepts in Bonhoeffer's work bringing these into critical interplay with discussions in environmental ethics and eco theology In making the correlations he thoroughly describes each concept situating it in the historic and intellectual background of Bonhoeffer's time He then transposes these concepts to contemporary environmental ethics describing what contribution Bonhoeffer's The Cambridge Companion to Dietrich Bonhoeffer John W. de Gruchy, 1999-05-13 This Companion serves as a guide for readers wanting to explore the thought and legacy of the great German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer 1906 45 The book shows why Bonhoeffer remains such an attractive figure to so many people of diverse backgrounds Its chapters written by authors from differing national theological and church contexts provide a helpful introduction to and commentary on Bonhoeffer's life work and writing and so guide the reader along the complex paths of his thought Experts set out comprehensively Bonhoeffer's political social and cultural contexts and offer biographical information which is indispensable for the understanding of his theology Major themes arising from the theology and different interpretations to it lead the reader into a dialogue with this most influential of thinkers who remains both fascinating and challenging There is a chronology a glossary and an index The Spirit of Conscious Capitalism Michel Dion, Moses Pava, 2022-10-20 This book provides a constructive criticism of the emerging practice of conscious capitalism from the perspective of world religions and spiritualities Conscious capitalism to many of its adherents represents an evolutionary step forward beyond the dominant neo liberal paradigm where it often appears that just about everything is for sale Is conscious capitalism consistent with the values inherent in religious and spiritual world views and does it provide a better fit for bringing out the best that business has to offer This book answers these questions and many more An appealing read for researchers in business ethics as well as any reader critical of the excrescences of capitalism The Oxford Handbook of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Michael Mawson, Philip G. Ziegler, 2019 This Handbook offers an overview of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's 1906 1945 biography and intellectual context his contributions to all areas of doctrinal theology ethics and public life the significance of his thought for some contemporary issues and debates and an evaluation of some existing resources for studying Bonhoeffer Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Neo-Calvinism in Dialogue George Harinck, Brant M. Himes, 2023-11-28 This book is a collection of scholarly essays that place Dietrich Bonhoeffer in conversation with the Dutch Neo Calvinist tradition of Abraham Kuyper and Herman Bavinck The essays engage in theological ethics and historical theology in an effort to frame ongoing dialogue in relation to issues of public theology While Bonhoeffer and Neo Calvinism represent distinct theological traditions there is value in placing their respective ideas in conversation for the purposes of creative insight theological understanding and practical application Contributors represent perspectives from North America and the Netherlands Taken together the essays offer an important contribution to this unique field of theological inquiry

Cooper, 2008-12-01 Trappist monk and best selling author Thomas Merton battled constantly within himself as he attempted to reconcile two seemingly incompatible roles in life As a devout Catholic he took vows of silence and stability longing for the security and closure of the monastic life But as a writer he felt compelled to seek friendships in literary circles and success in the secular world In Thomas Merton's Art of Denial David D Cooper traces Merton s attempts to reach an accommodation with himself to find a way in which the silence of the monk could live compatibly with the racket of the writer From the roots of this painful division in the unsettled early years of Merton's life to the turmoil of his directionless early adult years in which he first attempted to write he was besieged with self doubts Turning to life in a monastery in Kentucky in 1941 Merton believed he would find the solitude and peace lacking in the quotidian world But as Merton once wrote An author in a Trappist monastery is like a duck in a chicken coop And he would give anything in the world to be a chicken instead of a duck Merton felt compelled to choose between life as either a less than perfect priest or a less prolific writer Discovering in his middle years that the ideal monastic life he had envisioned was an impossibility Merton turned his energies to abolishing war It was in this pursuit that he finally succeeded in fusing the two sides of his life converting his frustrated idealism into a radical humanism placed in the service of world peace Here is a portrait of a man torn between the influence of the twentieth century and the serenity of the religious ideal a man who used his own personal crises to guide his youthful ideals to a higher purpose Religious Perspectives on Business Ethics Thomas O'Brien, Scott Paeth, 2007 In the first anthology of its kind Thomas O Brien and Scott Paeth have gathered unique pieces from across religious perspectives to illustrate the growing influence and contribution of religion to the field of business ethics Tackling such wide ranging subjects as Jewish environmental ethics Zen in the workplace and Christian social Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Christian Ethics Susan ethics this text is a valuable addition to business ethics courses Bonhoeffer Clifford J. Green, 2018-09-15 Prompted by the 2017 commemoration of the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation this book examines the legacy of Martin Luther in the life work and reception of Dietrich Bonhoeffer the most widely read modern Lutheran theologian Framing the commemoration of the Reformation in conversation with Bonhoeffer's legacy places much more than Bonhoeffer's connection to Luther at stake Given the fraught relationship of the Lutheran Bonhoeffer with the German Protestant Church under National Socialism the question inevitably arises What happened to Luther's church in Germany This in turn prompts the question How did the Protestant tradition play out in public life in other nations And these historical issues in turn encourage reflection on a question that exercised both Luther and Bonhoeffer What will be the shape of the church in the future In these pages an international group of scholars and practitioners from both church and state pursues these questions Ethics in Ministry Walter E. Wiest, 1989 An ethical guide for clergy and laypersons who deal with the vexing questions that arise in the daily life of a minister at work The authors discuss salaries truth telling surviving church politics confidentiality the unmarried pastor the two clergy family accepting gifts working with other church staff and more Bonhoeffer Stephen Plant, 2010-07-15 One of the best known Christians of the twentieth century Dietrich Bonhoeffer is admired as a theologian for his unparalleled independence of mind creativity and brilliance by liberals and conservatives alike His death at the hands of the Nazis is an extraordinary tale of courage and Christian discipleship However Bonhoeffer was also a serious theologian who while indebted to the liberal tradition of the University of Berlin was also influenced by the new thinking of Karl Barth that challenged the consensus Plant has written a critical exploration of Bonhoeffer's writings that illuminates his ethical theology showing that what linked all his work was the attempt to listen to God's word in to and for the secular world Applied Business Ethics, Volume 1 Brian Keen, 2012-06 The Truth can be known with Theanthropic Ethics which is one of the few scientific ethical categories Dr Brian Keen has researched numerous ethical categories and has found only Theanthropic Ethics understands that there is one universally applicable Truth The Truth has practical application in every enterprise business or profession Any business enterprise or profession operating in an ethical manner will have the necessary POWER to succeed Accounting is featured since accountants as professionals must utilize scientific methodologies Businesses and

Reed, 2018-08-23 This volume frames the question of responsibility as a problem of agency in relation to the systems and structures of globalization According to Ricoeur responsibility is a shattered concept when considered too narrowly as a problem of act agency and individual freedom To examine this Esther Reed develops a short genealogy of modern liberal and post liberal concepts of responsibility in order to understand better the relationship dominant modern framings of the meanings of responsibility Reed engages with writings by major modern Schleiermacher Hegel Marx Weber and post liberal Buber Levinas Derrida Badiou Butler Young Critchley theorists to illustrate the shift from an ethnic responsibility built on notions of accountability and attributions to an ethic responsibility that starts variously from the other Reed sees Dietrich Bonhoeffer as the most promising partner of this theological dialogue as his learning of responsibility from the risen Christ present now in the global church is a welcome provocation to new thinking about the meaning of responsibility learned from land distant neighbour global church and the bible Bonhoeffer's reflections on the centre boundaries and limits of responsibility remain helpful to Christian people struggling with an increasingly exhausted concept of accountability Conspiracy and Imprisonment 1940-1945 Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 2006-06-12 This volume published in the year of the one hundredth anniversary of Bonhoeffer s birth documents Bonhoeffer s life under the increasing restraints and fateful events of World War II Germany In hundreds of letters including ten never before published letters to his fiancee Maria von Wedemeyer as well as official documents short original pieces and a few final sermons the volume sheds light on Bonhoeffer's active resistance to and increasing involvement in the conspiracy against the Hitler regime his arrest and his long imprisonment Finally Bonhoeffer's many exchanges with his family fiancee and closest friends demonstrate the affection and solidarity that accompanied Bonhoeffer to his prison cell concentration camp and eventual deat2
