Award nominee Beth Kephart's new book is an enchanting midlife meditation on aging identity and memory set against the backdrop of Chanticleer garden in Pennsylvania. On the morning of her forty-first birthday Kephart, a mother, a wife, and a writer pressured by deadlines, finds herself at Chanticleer, one of the world's most celebrated pleasure gardens. She knows little of the language of flowers. She cannot name the birds in the trees. She is a stranger among the gardeners and the people passing by. And yet she understands that she has somehow found her way to a place that can teach her about life and growth about the past and the future. Week after week she returns to Chanticleer, recalling her childhood, self-mulling over legacy and soul, striking up friendships with gardeners and conversations with other visitors. Succored by the seasons and the weather, she finds the grace in approaching middle age. There are lessons in seeds and she finds them. There are lessons in letting go. Kephart writes about questions we all ask ourselves: How do we remember who we used to be? How do we imagine who we'll become? Have we lived our lives as we set out to? What legacies do we wish to leave behind? The book spans a two-year cycle, and each chapter is accompanied by a gorgeous black and white photograph of Chanticleer by William Sulist. Ghosts in the Garden pulses with possibility and purpose with wisdom that is ageless and transcendent. My Life in Paper Beth Kephart, 2023-11-03. Highly personal and idiosyncratically historical, this book is a memoirist's guide to more than fifty paper objects including report cards, maps, menus, spreadsheets, broadsides, library cards, prescriptions, tickets, books, dictionaries, file folder, and legal tender, and an invitation to readers whose stories might be a single box or shelf away.

In Behind the Song, fourteen acclaimed young adult authors and musicians share short stories and personal essays inspired by the songs, the albums, the musicians who move them. So cue up the playlist and crank the volume. This is an anthology you'll want to experience on repeat. Wild Blues Beth Kephart, 2019-06-18. Readers will be entranced by this exceptional offering. Booklist starred review. Thought-provoking and intense. Kirkus Reviews. A survival story in its truest sense. BCCB. The threat of two escaped convicts and a missing friend lead Lizzie on a harrowing journey through the wilds of the Adirondacks in this captivating mystery from National Book Award finalist Beth Kephart. Thirteen-year-old Lizzie's favorite place in the world is her uncle's cabin. Uncle Davy's renovated schoolhouse cabin filled with antiques and on the edge of the Adirondacks, disconnected from the rest of the world, is like something out of a fairy tale. And an escape from reality is exactly what Lizzie needs. Life hasn't been easy for Lizzie lately. Her father abandoned their family, leaving Lizzie with her oftentimes irresponsible mother. Now her mom has cancer and being unable to care for Lizzie during her chemotherapy asks Lizzie where she'd like to spend the summer. The answer is simple: Uncle Davy's cabin. Lizzie loves her uncle's home for many reasons, but the main one is Matias, Uncle Davy's neighbor and Lizzie's best friend. Matias has proportionate dwarfism, but that doesn't stop him and Lizzie from wandering in the woods. Every day they go to their special spot where Matias paints with watercolors and Lizzie writes. Until one day when Matias never arrives. When news breaks about two escaped convicts from the nearby prison, Lizzie fears the worst. And when Uncle Davy goes missing too, Lizzie knows she's the only one who knows this area of woods well enough to save them. Armed with her trusted Keppy survival book, Lizzie sets out into the wilds of the Adirondacks, proving just how far she'll go to save the people she loves.

Once You Go In Carly Gelsinger, 2025-07-30 Carly Gelsinger is an awkward and lonely thirteen-year-old when she stumbles into Pine Canyon Assemblies of God, the cracked stucco church on the outskirts of her remote small town. She assimilates despite her apprehensions because she is desperate to belong. Soon she is on fire for God. She speaks in tongues, slays demons, and follows her abusive pastor's every word, and it's not until her life is burnt to the ground that she finds the courage to leave. Raw and illuminating, Once You Go In is a coming-of-age tale about the beauty and danger of absolute faith and the stories people tell themselves to avoid their deepest fears. Talking Book Topics, 2017-05 Wife | Daughter |

Self Beth Kephart, 2021-03-02 Wife Daughter Self investigates identity and the writing life through the perspective of one of the nation's top memoir teachers and critics. How are we shaped by the people we love? Who are we when we think no one else is watching? How do we trust the choices we make? The answers shift as the years go by. The stories remake themselves as we remember. Curiously inventively, Beth Kephart reflects on the iterative composite self in her new memoir traveling to lakes and rivers, New Mexico and Mexico, the icy waters of Alaska, and a hot air balloon launch in search of understanding. She is accompanied often by her Salvadoran artist husband. She spends time a lot of time with her widowed father. As she looks at them, she ponders herself and comes to terms with the person she is still becoming. At once sweeping and intimate, Wife Daughter Self is a memoir built of interlocking essays by an acclaimed author, teacher, and critic.

Imagine a Door Laura Stanfill, 2025-04-01 Foreword by Beth Kephart, author of Handling the Truth. Imagine a Door intersperses craft insights, case studies, and checklists with personal stories about publishing and the emotional complexities of sending your work into the world. Is a writing routine worthwhile? How do you pinpoint the why behind your storytelling and use it to improve your manuscript? What makes a query letter stand out? What exactly is distribution? Does success mean selling a certain number of books, or can we reframe our expectations in a less capitalistic way? While prioritizing genuine community over platform building, Laura Stanfill, publisher of Forest Avenue Press and author of Singing Lessons for the Stylish Canary, explores these questions from both sides of the desk. She peppers her material with original interviews with authors Omar El Akkad, Fonda Lee, Amy Stewart, Wendy Chin Tanner, Keith Rosson, Rosie Thor, Kesha Ajoose, Fisher Emme Lund, and agents, editors, and publishers.
