Pets Erica Fudge,2014-12-05 When I play with my cat who knows if I am not a pastime to her more than she is to me Michel de Montaigne Why do we live with pets Is there something more to our relationship with them than simply companionship What is it we look for in our pets and what does this say about us as human beings In this fascinating book Erica Fudge explores the nature of this most complex of relationships and the difficulties of knowing what it is that one is living with when one chooses to share a home with an animal Fudge argues that our capacity for compassion and ability to live alongside others is evident in our relationships with our pets those paradoxical creatures who give us a sense of comfort and security while simultaneously troubling the categories human and animal For what is a pet if it isn t a fully fledged member of the human family This book proposes that by crossing over these boundaries pets help construct who it is we think we are Drawing on the works of modern writers such as J M Coetzee Elizabeth Marshall Thomas and Jacques Derrida Fudge shows how pets have been used to think with and to undermine our easy conceptions of human animal and home Indeed Pets shows our obsession with domestic animals that reveals many of the paradoxes contra dictions and ambiguities of life Living with pets provides thought provoking perspectives on our notions of possession and mastery mutuality and cohabitation love and dominance We might think of pets as simply happy loved additions to human homes but as this captivating book reveals perhaps it is the pets that make the home and without pets perhaps we might not be the humans we think we are For anyone who has ever wondered like Montaigne what their cat is thinking it will be illuminating reading Gold Dan Rhodes,2008 In a coastal village in Wales Miyuki a young Welsh Japanese woman spends a month every winter staying in a nearby cottage away from her female partner Grindl with whom she runs a decorating business as a lesson in not taking each other for granted Her appearance in the local pub is welcomed by all but this year she becomes more involved in the local community than usual The Herald ,2012 Anthropology Dan Rhodes,2010 Although he started it third and finished it second this was Dan Rhodes first book to be published It was written between October 1997 and November 1998 while he was working on Cherry Gardens Farm in Kent Sussex border country Rhodes would write the stories in his head while tying in rows of raspberries or picking gooseberries often in the driving rain Sometimes they would let him drive the tractor First Friend Katharine Rogers,2010-04 Dogs have shared our homes for as long as we can remember and in return have guarded us helped us hunt and herded our livestock They have generally been our friends as well that is what most of them are today Canine friends give us uncritical affection free of the ambivalence that plagues human relationships Dogs figure prominently in literature starting with Homer s Argus the hound who remembered Odysseus after twenty years Victorian novels are full of vivid canine characters Ms Rogers is impressively thorough best of all the author knows and respects dogs Steve Goode Washington Times Rain Taxi Review of Books ,2003 Marry Me Dan Rhodes,2013-01-31 MARRY ME by Dan Rhodes is the sequel to his ANTHROPOLOGY AND 100 OTHER STORIES It s ten years on Dan still loves love He still loves very short stories This time he s married Bookforum ,2003 How to Get a Break as a Writer Neil Nixon,2011-03-01 How to Get a Break as a Writer deals with an area of writing for a living that remains virtually untouched by most other titles This is a book about getting breaks making your own luck and getting hopeful writers to the stage of being taken seriously It is not a book that tells you how to write your novel but instead focusses on the range of paid writing opportunities that exist for budding writers Honest insightful and challenging How To Get a Break as a Writer tells it like it is pulls no punches and delivers a series of chapters setting out the problems faced by aspiring writers Packed with examples of success and failure How to Get a Break as a Writer could be your ticket to a new dimension in your writing life The Publishers Weekly ,2006 The Nation ,2003 When the Professor Got Stuck in the Snow Dan Rhodes,2015-09-25 Described as a zippy little farce by The Guardian When the Professor Got Stuck in the Snow is a laugh out loud satire on dogma A farce that spins like a carousel Sunday Herald Everybody at the Women s Institute in the village of Upper Bottom is eagerly awaiting the arrival of a very special guest speaker the world famous evolutionary biologist Professor Richard Dawkins But with a blizzard setting in their visitor finds himself trapped in the nearby town of Market Horden with no choice but to take lodgings with the local Anglican vicar Will the professor be able to abide by his motto cordiality always while surrounded by Christians Will he ever reach Upper Bottom And can his assistant Smee save the day World Authors, 2000-2005 Jennifer Curry,2007 Representing a broad range of ethnic diversity these in depth profiles present fascinating accounts of lives and careers the
