Body, Space, and Place in Collective and Collaborative Drawing Helen Gørrill, Jill Journeaux, Sara Reed, 2020-01-15 Building on the success of the first volume in this series of research on collective and collaborative drawing this book's key themes are linked through the concepts of body space and place. The location of the body in art has always been central but the exploration of it here in relation to place and space uncovers a wide range of exciting and different contexts, relationships and materials. Space is examined through the practice and theorisation of drawing through the ongoing artistic practices of the authors and the writings of Berger and Derrida in relation to making, viewing and understanding the drawing process. Place is examined through unique approaches to considering drawing through multiple consecutive and site-specific places through place as a changing and temporal site and through the idea of the non-place. The contributors in this volume include academics, artists, dancers, researchers, designers and architects from across the globe.

ITB journal of visual art and design, 2013 Scenographic Design Drawing Sue Field, 2024-07-11. This enlightening study explores the set design drawings for theatre and live performance, highlighting their unique qualities within the greater arena of drawing practice and theory. The latest volume in the Drawing In series, Scenographic Design Drawing encourages an interdisciplinary dialogue in the field of drawing with the inclusion of illustrations throughout. Scenographic design drawings visualize the images in the designer's mind's eye early in the design process. They are the initial design tool in the creative engagement with theatre, opera, dance and non-text based performance. It is in particular this body of drawings that is unique as both a performative and a theatrical representation of multiple worlds within the stage space. Sue Field illuminates this illustration process and identifies how these drawings have functioned and developed over time. Scenographic Design Drawing serves to satisfy an emerging global curiosity and a thirst for new knowledge and understanding in relation to the drawings executed by the historical and contemporary scenographer. This work addresses a critical research gap and shows how the scenographic design drawing continues to be a principal site of innovation, subjectivity, originality and authorship in theatre and live performance.

Drawing Investigations Sarah Casey, Gerry Davies, 2024-02-22. Using close visual analysis of drawings, artist interviews, critical analysis and exegesis, Drawing Investigations examines how artists use drawing as an investigative tool to reveal information that would otherwise remain unseen and unnoticed. How does drawing add shape to ideas? How does the artist accommodate to challenges and restraints of a particular environment? To what extent is a drawing complementary and continuous with its subject and where is it disruptive and provocative? Casey and Davies address these questions while focusing on artists working collaboratively and the use of drawing in challenging or unexpected environments. Drawing Investigations evaluates the emergence of a way of thinking among an otherwise disconnected group of artists by exploring commonalities in the application of analytical drawing to the natural world, urban environment, social forces and lived experience. Examples represent a spectrum of research in international contexts: an oceanographic institute in California, the archives of Amsterdam's Rijksmuseum, the Antarctic Survey, geothermal research in Japan and the Kurdish diaspora in Iraq. Issues are situated in the contemporary theory and practice of drawing, including relationships to historical precedents. By exploring drawing's capacity to capture and describe experience to sharpen visual faculties and to bridge embodied and conceptual knowledge Drawing Investigations offers a fresh critical perspective on contemporary drawing practice
