War Trash By Ha Jin:

War Trash Ha Jin, 2005 Captured by enemy forces Yu Yuan a Chinese army officer serving in Korea in 1951 takes on the role of interpreter due to his proficiency in English a role that places him in a conflict between his fellow prisoners and their captors

Ha Jin Marc Schumann, 2013-08-01 Ha Jin is a contemporary Chinese American poet and novelist who is most commonly associated with the Misty Poetry movement His contributions to the world of fiction have been awarded with such honors as the National Book Award and the Townsend Prize for Fiction This Guggenheim Fellow was a young child in China under communist rule and was only 14 years old when he became a member of the People's Liberation Army In this riveting book about this celebrated author critical analysis of his works are presented Your readers will engage deeply with this volume by learning how to identify themes analyze how elements in the text interact and how to identify the informational context behind the fictional treatment Jin uses with his chosen words

The Intimacies of Conflict Daniel Y. Kim, 2020-11-03 Winner 2020 Peter C Rollins Prize given by the Northeast Popular American Culture Association Enables a reckoning with the legacy of the Forgotten War through literary and cinematic works of cultural memory Though often considered the forgotten war lost between the end of World War II and the start of the Cold War the Korean War was as Daniel Y Kim argues a watershed event that fundamentally reshaped both domestic conceptions of race and the interracial dimensions of the global empire that the United States would go on to establish He uncovers a trail of cultural artefacts that speaks to the trauma experienced by civilians during the conflict but also evokes an expansive web of complicity in the suffering that they endured Taking up a range of American popular media from the 1950s Kim offers a portrait of the Korean War as it looked to Americans while they were experiencing it in real time Kim expands this archive to read a robust host of fiction from US writers like Susan Choi Rolando Hinojosa Toni Morrison and Chang rae Lee and the Korean author Hwang Sok yong The multiple and ongoing historical trajectories presented in these works testify to the resurgent afterlife of this event in US cultural memory and of its lasting impact on multiple racialized populations both within the US and in Korea The Intimacies of Conflict offers a robust multifaceted and multidisciplinary analysis of the pivotal but often unacknowledged consequences of the Korean War in both domestic and transnational histories of race

East-West Montage Sheng-mei Ma, 2007-11-06 East West Montage possesses a unique vision that promises to push discussions of globalization cultural production ethnic identity and bodily metaphors in powerful new directions Ma is to be praised for his sound scholarship and innovative interpretations Indeed where others specialize in either the collection of details or the unpacking of text Ma weaves a strong analytic exegesis rooted in thorough research Richard King Washington State University Approximately twelve hours difference lies between New York and Beijing The West and the East are literally night and day apart Yet East West Montage crosscuts the two in the manner of adjacent filmic shots to accentuate their montage like complementarity It examines the intersection between East and West the Asian diaspora or more specifically Asian bodies in diaspora and the cultural expressions by and about people of Asian descent on both sides of the Pacific Following the introduction Establishing Shots the book is divided into seven intercuts which in turn subdivide into dialectically paired chapters focusing on specific body parts or attributes The range of material examined is broad and rich the iconography of the opium den in film noir the writings of Asian American novelists the swordplay and kung fu film Japanese anime the Korean Wave including soap operas like Winter Sonata and the cult thriller Oldboy Rogers and Hammerstein s Orientalist musicals the comic Blackhawk the superstar status of the Dalai Lama and the demise of Hmong refugees and Chinese retirees in the U S Highly original and immensely readable East West Montage will appeal to many working in a range of disciplines including Asian studies Asian American studies cultural studies ethnic studies film studies popular culture and literary criticism

Sound and Script in Chinese Diaspora Jing Tsu, 2011-01-15 What happens when language wars are not about hurling insults or quibbling over meanings but are waged in the physical sounds and shapes of language itself Native and foreign speakers mother tongues and national languages have jostled for distinction throughout the modern period The fight for global dominance between the English and Chinese languages opens into historical battles over the control of the medium through standardization technology bilingualism pronunciation and literature in the Sinophone world Encounters between global languages as well as the internal tensions between Mandarin and other Chinese dialects present a dynamic interconnected picture of languages on the move In Sound and Script in Chinese Diaspora Jing Tsu explores the new global language trade arguing that it aims at more sophisticated ways of exerting influence besides simply wielding knuckles of power Through an analysis of the different relationships between language standardization technologies of writing and modern Chinese literature around the world from the nineteenth century to the present this study transforms how we understand the power of language in migration and how that is changing the terms of cultural dominance Drawing from an unusual array of archival sources this study cuts across the usual China West divide and puts its finger on the pulse of a pending supranational world under literary governance

Asia in the Old and New Cold Wars Kenneth Paul Tan, 2023-02-06 This is a collection of essays marking the 30th anniversary of the historic Cold War s formal conclusion in 1991 It enriches Cold War studies a field dominated by Political Science International Relations and History with insights from Sociology Anthropology Cultural Studies and Film and Media Studies Through critical analysis of newspaper and magazine articles films novels art exhibits museums and other commemorative sites that engage with the themes of conflict violence trauma displacement marginalization ecology and identity the book provides rich and diverse perspectives on the complex relationship between the historic Cold War and its legacies on the one hand and on the other their impact on Asia its plural histories and peoples and their shifting identities ideological beliefs and lived experiences Today we often speak of an Asian century and witness intensifying concerns over new cold wars or Cold War 2 0 A United States in decline and a China on the rise create conditions for a new superpower rivalry with a trade war already being fought between the two competitors Russia continues to flex its geopolitical muscles launching a full scale invasion of neighbouring Ukraine in 2022 as its strongman leadership yearns nostalgically for the good old days of the USSR As grand narratives and strategies of the Cold War jostle to make sense of high level geopolitical events this book descends to the level of lived experience zooming in on ordinary and marginalized peoples whose lives and livelihoods have been affected over the decades by the Cold War and its legacies

The Theological and the Political Mark Lewis Taylor, 2011 Princeton s Mark Lewis Taylor has always worked at the intersection of the political and theological Now in this intense and exciting work he explores in a systematic way how those two dimensions of human reality can be conceived anew and together Taylor argues that the decline of political discourse the justification of torture and preemptive war mass incarceration the misuse of religion to justify atrocity and most especially the sheer weight of suffering in the world all these developments urge us to reconceive theology itself In conjunction with the latest insights of political theory decolonial thought and spectral theories in contemporary philosophy Taylor suggests that the political is the context of the theological and a realm in which we can discern beyond simple categories of transcendence and immanence a transimmanence that is theologically illuminative and politically liberating Publisher description

Settler Garrison

Jodi Kim, 2022-04-07 In Settler Garrison Jodi Kim theorizes how the United States extends its sovereignty across Asia and the Pacific in the post World War II era through a militarist settler imperialism that is leveraged on debt as a manifold economic and cultural relation undergirded by asymmetries of power Kim demonstrates that despite being the largest debtor nation in the world the United States positions itself as an imperial creditor that imposes financial and affective indebtedness alongside a disciplinary payback temporality even as it evades repayment of its own debts This debt imperialism is violently reproduced in juridically ambiguous spaces Kim calls the settler garrison a colonial archipelago of distinct yet linked military camptowns bases POW camps and unincorporated territories situated across the Pacific from South Korea to Okinawa to Guam Kim reveals this process through an analysis of how a wide array of transpacific cultural productions creates antimilitarist and decolonial imaginaries that diagnose US militarist settler imperialism while envisioning alternatives to it
