reveal rampant corruption among their leaders who for their own selfish ends retard legislations which are absolutely imperative for the general welfare It is not necessary to mention other ways in which the people are being daily betrayed for this is sufficient to render any thinking person despondent and pessimistic The causes of the decadence of nations are not the laws which have been enacted but the flagrant violation of these very laws actuated by greed avarice and commercialism which are generated in the individual in power About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

An Anglo-American Alliance Gregory Casparian,2022-06-02 British and American Utopian Literature, 1516-1985 Lyman Tower Sargent,1988 Dreamworlds of Race Duncan Bell,2022-06-07 How transatlantic thinkers in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries promoted the unification of Britain and the United States. Between the late nineteenth century and the First World War an ocean spanning network of prominent individuals advocated the unification of Britain and the United States. They dreamt of the final consolidation of the Angloworld. Scholars, journalists, politicians, businessmen and science fiction writers invested the Anglo Saxons with extraordinary power. The most ambitious hailed them as a people destined to bring peace and justice to the earth. More modest visions still imagined them as likely to shape the twentieth century. Dreamworlds of Race explores this remarkable moment in the intellectual history of racial domination, political utopianism and world order. Focusing on a quartet of extraordinary figures, Andrew Carnegie, W T Stead, Cecil J Rhodes and H G Wells, Duncan Bell shows how unionists on both sides of the Atlantic reimagined citizenship, empire, patriotism, race, war and peace in their quest to secure global supremacy. Yet even as they dreamt of an Anglo dominated world, the unionists disagreed over the meaning of race, the legitimacy of imperialism, the nature of political belonging and the ultimate form and purpose of unification. The racial dreamworld was an object of competing claims and fantasies. Exploring speculative fiction as well as more conventional forms of political writing, Bell reads unionist arguments as expressions of the utopianism circulating through fin de siècle Anglo American culture and juxtaposes them with pan Africanist critiques of racial domination and late twentieth century fictional narratives of Anglo American empire. Tracing how intellectual elites promoted an ambitious project of political and racial unification between Britain and the United States, Dreamworlds of Race analyzes ideas of empire and world order that reverberate to this day.

The Routledge Anthology of Global Science Fiction

Origins Bill Gillard, 2025-11-28. The Routledge Anthology of Global Science Fiction: Origins brings together short stories from writers of science fiction from all over the world who were at the vanguard of the genre from 1872-1942. Beginning with a dynamic and engaging introduction, Bill Gillard provides accessible introductions to each text to offer key insights into the historical and cultural conditions that led to their publication. The collection features work from a wide range of authors, many for the first time in English translation, including less familiar voices from the early days of the emergent tradition and invites an exciting recontextualization of the more well known texts. Authors include Karel apek Xu Nianci, Franz Kafka, Adela Zamudio, Leopoldo Lugones, Juza Unno, Tawfiq al Hakim and others. The first anthology focused on global science fiction during this pivotal era, and this collection offers vital new perspectives on the field by featuring the forerunners of science fiction. It is an invaluable resource for students and teachers of both science fiction and world literature.
