Animals And Society An Introduction To Human Animal Studies:

Animals and Society Margo DeMello, 2012 This textbook provides a full overview of human animal studies It focuses on the conceptual construction of animals in American culture and the way in which it reinforces and perpetuates hierarchical human relationships rooted in racism sexism and class privilege

Animals and Society Margo Demello, 2021-02-16 Human animal studies is an interdisciplinary field that explores the spaces that animals occupy in human social and cultural worlds Margo DeMello provides a broad overview of this rapidly growing field This second edition is fully updated and expanded throughout enhancing the book s relevance for student and activist readers alike

Humans, Animals, and Society Nik Taylor, 2013 Whereas animals have played a central part in human society over the years when it comes to the social sciences they have largely been neglected However interest in Human Animal Studies HAS has grown exponentially in recent years giving rise to university and college courses around the world specifically on this compelling and vital subject Considering topics ranging from the human animal bond meat eating and animals in entertainment this book presents key concepts in simple and easy to understand ways as it covers the breadth of empirical work currently being done in the field Through an examination of ideas such as anthropocentrism and the social construction of animals it looks at how animals are symbolically transformed presented and re presented as part of human culture Ultimately the book argues that there is nothing natural about our social relations with animals but that animals are made use of and understood through a human lens Humans Animals and Society spans the diverse interests of the HAS community and is necessary reading for students and the general public looking to better understand our relationship with animals

Human-Animal Studies Margo DeMello, 2012-04 An exhaustive listing of books journals articles films conferences college programs organizations and websites from the new and exciting discipline of Human Animal studies The information was gathered by leading academics in the humanities the social sciences and the natural sciences this is the only reference of its kind This project was completed in conjunction with the book Teaching the Animal

Animals and Society Margo DeMello, 2021-04-13 Human animal studies is an interdisciplinary field that explores the spaces that animals occupy in human social and cultural worlds It examines the interactions humans and animals have with each other and the ways animal lives intersect with human societies Since existing social orders rely on the exploitation of animals to serve human needs the questions posed by human animal studies touch upon a wide range of fundamental issues Animals and Society provides a broad overview of this rapidly growing field Margo DeMello offers students and scholars a holistic and comprehensive picture of the state of inquiry into the relationships that exist between humans and other animals She considers interactions between animals and humans in social organizations such as the family the legal system and political and religious institutions A major focus is the social construction of animals in world cultures and the way in which these social meanings are used to reinforce and perpetuate hierarchical human relationships such as racism sexism and class privilege The book also examines how different human groups construct a range of identities for themselves and for others through animals This second edition of Animals and Society is fully updated and expanded throughout enhancing the book's relevance for student and activist readers alike It includes many new international examples all new case studies and updated supplementary readings Humans, Animals, and U.S. Society in the Long Nineteenth Century: A Documentary History Dominik Ohrem, 2025-11-18 Volume IV comprises two sections dealing respectively with the development of pet culture and its evolution as a cultural institution over the course of the long nineteenth century and with the variegated presence of domesticated and feralised animals in U.S. cities Closely tied to the antebellum rise of the American middle class family and the sentimentalisation of certain human animal relationships by the turn of the twentieth century American petkeeping had become the target of an expansive industry that offered everything from gourmet pet foods and fashionable accessories to healthcare and boarding services This proliferation of companion animals also had a significant impact on urban life Besides walking sitting or lying on sidewalks and being sold in city stores and on street corners in cases of abandonment the animals swelled an ever increasing population of canine and feline strays Together with horses pigs cows chicken and urban wildlife these animals fundamentally shaped the routines rhythms and general experience of nineteenth century urban life for human city dwellers Companion Animals in Everyday Life Michał Piotr Pręgoski, 2016-09-14 This book is an interdisciplinary collection shedding light on human animal relationships and interactions around the world The book offers a predominantly empirical look at social and cultural practices related to companion animals in Mexico Poland the Netherlands Japan China and Taiwan Vietnam USA and Turkey among others It focuses on how dogs cats rabbits and members of other species are perceived and treated in various cultures highlighting commonalities and differences between them Animals and their Relation to Gods, Humans and Things in the Ancient World Raija Mattila, Sanae Ito, Sebastian Fink, 2019-03-11 While Human Animal Studies is a rapidly growing field in modern history studies on this topic that focus on the Ancient World are few The present volume aims at closing this gap It investigates the relation between humans animals gods and things with a special focus on the structure of these categories An improved understanding of the ancient categories themselves is a precondition for any investigation into the relation between them The focus of the volume lies on the Ancient Near East but it also provides studies on Ancient Greece Asia Minor Mesoamerica the Far East and Arabia Concise Encyclopedia of Applied Ethics in the Social Sciences Tuija Takala, Matti Häyry, 2024-04-12 Covering a vast array of disciplines this prescient Encyclopedia analyzes the many roles that applied ethics plays in the social sciences Entries scrutinize the various manifestations of ethics across a range of disciplines and subdisciplines such as animal studies criminology and global health The Cultures of Entanglement Suzanne Anker, Sabine Flach, 2024-03-04 The symbolic meaning of plants their relevance to religion and the metaphorical provocations in the order of knowledge culture and political power underline the role of plants as something more than passive objects Current theoretical and artistic discourses have been seeking access to the world independently of man by focusing on the nonhuman other The contributors to this volume examine the historical philosophical and scientific findings that generate this idea In what way are such perspectives manifest in contemporary art Do artists develop a particular approach that enables nonhuman life forms like plants insects or animals to have an impact

Reimagining Animal Sheltering: Support Services and Community-Driven Sheltering Methods Julie Levy, Kevin Horecka, Peter Joseph Wolf, E. Susan Amirian, 2022-10-21 Animals in the Sociologies of Westermarck and Durkheim Salla

Tuomivaara, 2019-09-04 This book explores why animals at some point disappeared from the realm and scope of sociology The role of sociology in the construction of a science of the human has been substantial building representations of the human sphere of life as unique Within the sociological tradition however animals have often been invisible even non-existent Through in-depth comparisons of the texts of prominent early sociologists Emile Durkheim and Edward Westermarck Tuomivaara shows that despite this exclusion representations of animals and human-animal relations were far more varied in early works than in the later sociological canon Addressing a significant gap in the interdisciplinary field of animal studies Tuomivaara presents a close reading of the historical treatment of animals in the works of Durkheim and Westermarck to determine how the human-animal boundary was established in sociological theory The diverse forms in which animals and the animal appear in the works of early classical sociology are charted and explored alongside the sociological themes that bring animals into these texts Situated in contemporary theory from critical animal studies to posthumanism this important book lays the groundwork for a disciplinary shift away from this sharp human-animal dualism

Teaching the Animal Margo DeMello, 2010 Split into three sections Teaching the Animal provides in-depth analysis of the nature of the discipline the resources available expectations of students and faculty and a number of sample curricula in the fields of humanities social sciences and the natural sciences

Animals and Business Ethics Natalie Thomas, 2022-04-24 This book engages with some of the most pressing ethical issues that arise from the use of animals in various business practices providing interdisciplinary approaches to improving the nonhuman and human lives in animal-related industries The chapters in this volume provide conceptual theoretical and practical analyses of these issues that will shape the future direction of business ethics to more fully reflect the impacts and implications of animal-based businesses on society its members and nature The authors in this volume engage with topics including animal suffering and emotions the commodification of animals vegetarian and vegan businesses and diets technological innovations such as gene editing and lab-cultured meat as well as captivity corporate disclosure of animal welfare policies and the possibility of humane jobs as well as the consideration of animals as stakeholders
