

SWOT ANALYSIS

The SWOT Analysis is a study undertaken by an organization to identify its internal strengths and weaknesses, as well as its external opportunities and threats.

Explain in detail what strengths, weaknesses, threats, and opportunities your business has.

We understand that if a correct SWOT analysis is carried out for our business, we will have the ability to position our business to optimize our strengths, leverage opportunities that will be available to us, reduce our risks as well as be prepared to face our threats.

Business Name involved the services of core specialists to help the firm in creating a well-run handmade soap company that can positively compete in the market.

As a result, the team of consultants was able to work well with the management of our company in carrying out a SWOT analysis. The SWOT analysis is as follows:

Strengths:

The primary strength our company has is the variety of handmade soap scents and shapes that both men and women will like. The packaging is also made up of eco-friendly sustainable material. Business Name includes offering workshops for consumers to learn how to create handmade soaps on their own.

Weaknesses:

Business Name is a new business, and we may not have the financial means to sustain the kind of publicity we want to give our business. As a new business, we are also quite aware that it will take time for us to build our customers base of returning customers.

To improve upon these weaknesses, we plan to focus on securing financing to meet our growth goals moving forward. We believe our strengths of great variety of scents and shapes.
