118 Theories of Design[ing] Paul A. Rodgers, Craig Bremner, 2021-04-06 Theories normally seek to explain something 118 Theories of Design ing asks us to question those explanations By focusing on a broad range of somewhat overlooked and undervalued essays papers book articles words terms authors and phenomena that swirl around design ing the reader is encouraged to read reflect and question everything This original book will appeal to a global market of university faculty heads and deans museum directors design educators design researchers key design practitioners publishers members of the design media and undergraduate postgraduate and post doctoral students of design

The Hypothetical Mandarin : Sympathy, Modernity, and Chinese Pain Eric Hayot Associate Professor of Comparative Literature and Director of the Program in Asian Studies Pennsylvania State University, 2009-03-27 Why has the West for so long and in so many different ways expressed the idea that the Chinese have a special relationship to cruelty and to physical pain What can the history of that idea and its expressions teach us about the politics of the West s contemporary relation to China And what does it tell us about the philosophy of modernity The Hypothetical Mandarin is in some sense a history of the Western imagination It is also a history of the interactions between Enlightenment philosophy of globalization of human rights and of the idea of the modern Beginning with Bianchon and Rastignac s discussion of whether the former would if he could obtain a European fortune by killing a Chinese mandarin in Balzac s Le Pere Goriot 1835 the book traces a series of literary and historical examples in which Chinese life and European sympathy seem to hang in one another s balance Hayots wide ranging discussion draws on accounts of torture on medical case studies travelers tales photographs plasticized corpses polemical broadsides watercolors and on oil paintings His analyses show that the historical connection between sympathy and humanity and indeed between sympathy and reality has tended to refract with a remarkable frequency through the lens called China and why the story of the West s Chinese pain goes to the heart of the relation between language and the body and the social experience of the modern human being Written in an ebullient prose The Hypothetical Mandarin demonstrates how the network that intertwines China sympathy and modernity continues to shape the economic and human experience

Anecdotal Modernity James Dorson, Florian Sedlmeier, MaryAnn Snyder-Körber, Birte Wege, 2020-12-16 Modernity is made and unmade by the anecdotal Conceived as a literary genre a narrative element of criticism and most crucially a mode of historiography the anecdote illuminates the convergences as well as the fault lines cutting across modern practices of knowledge production The volume explores uses of the anecdotal in exemplary case studies from the threshold of the early modern to the present

The ^AHypothetical Mandarin Eric Hayot, 2009-04-24 Through readings of novels medical case studies travelers reports photographs and paintings The Hypothetical Mandarin shows that in the West the connection between sympathy and humanity and indeed between sympathy and reality has tended to refract with a remarkable frequency through the lens called China Eric Hayot through keen interpretations of myriad art forms and nonfictional writings reveals how Western responses to Chinese pain go to the heart of the relationship between language and the body the social and philosophical experience of modernity and the definition of a universal human subject In short this analysis reveals how four terms sympathy suffering economic exchange and representational exchange establish the network that frames the historical discourse on China sympathy and modernity It is a book that opens new possibilities for thinking about the West's relationship to China past and present and that establishes a new philosophical vantage from which to consider the question of empathy

Feminist Technical Communication Erin Clark, 2024-01-15 Feminist Technical Communication introduces readers to technical communication methodology demonstrating how rhetorical feminist approaches are vital to the future of technical communication Using an intersectional and transcultural approach Erin Clark fuses the well documented surge of work in feminist technical communication throughout the 1990s with the larger social justice turn in the discipline The first book to situate feminisms and technical communication in relationship as the focal point Feminist Technical Communication traces the thread of feminisms through technical communication's connection to social justice studies Clark theorizes slow crisis a concept made readable to technical communicators by apparent feminisms that can help technical communicators readily recognize and address social justice problems Clark then applies this framework to the Deepwater Horizon Disaster an extended crisis that has been publicly framed by a traditional view of efficiency that privileges economic impact Through rich description of apparent feminist information gathering techniques and a layered analysis this study offers application far beyond this single disaster making available new crisis response possibilities that consider the economy without eliding ecological and human health concerns Feminist Technical Communication offers a methodological approach to the systematic interrogation of power structures that operate on hidden misogynies This book is useful to technical communicators scholars of technical communication and rhetoric and readers interested in gender studies and public health and is an ideal text for graduate level seminars focused on feminisms social justice and cultural studies

Routledge Encyclopedia of Narrative Theory David Herman, Manfred Jahn, Marie-Laure Ryan, 2010-06-10 The past several decades have seen an explosion of interest in narrative with this multifaceted object of inquiry becoming a central concern in a wide range of disciplinary fields and research contexts As accounts of what happened to particular people in particular circumstances and with specific consequences stories have come to be viewed as a basic human strategy for coming to terms with time process and change However the very predominance of narrative as a focus of interest across multiple disciplines makes it imperative for scholars teachers and students to have access to a comprehensive reference resource

Making Sense of Motherhood Beth M. Stovell, 2016-02-02 Motherhood provides a crucial place for exploring human life and its meaning Within motherhood lies a deep tension between the pain crisis and association with death in motherhood and the joy transformation and life in motherhood Few metaphors in Scripture or in life stand so firmly between life and death love and loss and joy and deep pain After all motherhood s meaning in part comes again and again at these crucial crossroads Thus motherhood has powerful implications for our biblical and theological understanding Bringing together Jewish and ecumenical Christian scholars from North America Oceania and South America this edited volume provides biblical and theological perspectives on understanding motherhood The authors reflect upon a selection of biblical texts systematic theologians and Christian spiritual traditions to dialogue with the experience of maternity in its diverse manifestations The purpose of the book is to provide essays that through these biblical and theological lenses engage the question of motherhood today from the experience of pregnancy and birth to raising children to losing children and coping with grief In this way this volume helps to make sense of the complexity of motherhood

Feeling Canadian Marusya Bociurkiw, 2011-04-12 My name is Joe and I AM Canadian How did a beer ad featuring an unassuming guy in a plaid shirt become a national anthem This book about Canadian TV examines how affect and consumption work together producing national practices framed by the television screen Drawing on the new field of affect theory Feeling Canadian Television

Nationalism and Affect tracks the ways that ideas about the Canadian nation flow from screen to audience and then from body to body From the most recent Quebec referendum to 9 11 and current news coverage of the so called terrorist threat media theorist Marusya Bociurkiw argues that a significant intensifying of nationalist content on Canadian television became apparent after 1995 Close readings of TV shows and news items such as Canada A People s History North of 60 and coverage of the funeral of Pierre Trudeau reveal how television works to resolve the imagined community of nation as well as the idea of a national self and national others via affect Affect theory with its notions of changeability fluidity and contagion is the author argues well suited to the study of television and its audience Useful for scholars and students of media studies communications theory and national television and for anyone interested in Canadian popular culture this highly readable book fills the need for critical scholarly analysis of Canadian television s nationalist practices Art Theory Made Me Cry Lucy Soutter,1995 Postcolonial Theory and Autobiography David Huddart,2008-04-18 Cultural theory has often been criticized for covert Eurocentric and universalist tendencies Its concepts and ideas are implicitly applicable to everyone ironing over any individuality or cultural difference Postcolonial theory has challenged these limitations of cultural theory and Postcolonial Theory and Autobiography addresses the central challenge posed by its autobiographical turn Despite the fact that autobiography is frequently dismissed for its Western masculine bias David Huddart argues for its continued relevance as a central explanatory category in understanding postcolonial theory and its relation to subjectivity Focusing on the influence of post structuralist theory on postcolonial theory and vice versa this study suggests that autobiography constitutes a general philosophical resistance to universal concepts and theories Offering a fresh perspective on familiar critical figures like Edward W Said and Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak by putting them in the context of readings of the work of Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze and Alain Badiou this book relates the theory of autobiography to expressions of new universalisms that together with postcolonial theory rethink and extend norms of experience investigation and knowledge

City of Men Romit Chowdhury,2023-08-11 How do men experience gender in the city Through descriptions of autorickshaw and taxi operators and their interactions with traffic police and commuters in Kolkata India this book highlights the gendered logics of cooperation and everyday morality through which masculinities take up space in cities Conscious Theatre Practice Lou Prendergast,2021-12-13 In Conscious Theatre Practice Yoga Meditation and Performance Lou Prendergast charts a theatre research project in which the notion of Self realisation and related contemplative practices including Bikram Yoga and Vipassana meditation are applied to performance Coining the term Conscious Theatre Practice Prendergast presents the scripts of three publicly presented theatrical performances examined under the three C s research model Conscious Craft writing directing performance Conscious Casting Conscious Collaborations The findings of this autobiographical project fed into a working manifesto for socially engaged theatre company Black Star Projects Along the way the research engages with methodological frameworks that include practice as research autoethnography phenomenology and psychophysical processes as well immersive yoga and meditation practice while race class and gender inequalities underpin the themes of the productions Anecdotal Evidence Sean Cubitt, 2020 Ecocritique is a practice of radical questioning as essential to the critical armoury as feminism and postcolonialism have become Like them it extends beyond judgements about texts with clear ecological themes demonstrating the significance of ecocriticism for any advanced understanding of cultural forms Anecdotal method is ecocritical because it focuses on encounters concentrated moments of crisis when social ordering and ecological forces clash The anecdote's power to produce events meanings and history forms a methodological entry to aesthetic politics Anecdotal Evidence provides an outline of the need for and principles of anecdotal method a case study of eco critical themes in Hollywood films shaped by the Global Financial Crisis and a confrontation with mass image databases of social and streaming media that due to their scale and organisation appear at first immune to anecdotal method Only because the environment has a history is it possible to intervene environmentally Because we continually misrecognise the historical production of environments the first task of ecocritique is to bring our formative concept of ecology into crisis Its final task will be to achieve the good life for everything connected by the historical implication of humans in ecology and ecology in humans No politics can be undertaken in our times except through media ecocritical humanities have a key role in rethinking ecopolitics in the 21st century Hysteria, Perversion, and Paranoia in "The Canterbury Tales" Becky Renee McLaughlin, 2020-07-20 Beginning with the spectacle of hysteria moving through the perversions of fetishism masochism and sadism and ending with paranoia and psychosis this book explores the ways that conflicts with the Oedipal law erupt on the body and in language in Chaucer's Canterbury Tales for Chaucer's tales are rife with issues of mastery and control that emerge as conflicts not only between authority and experience but also between power and knowledge word and flesh rule books and reason man and woman same and other conflicts that erupt in a macabre sprawl of broken bones dismembered bodies cut throats and decapitations Like the macabre sprawl of conflict in the Canterbury Tales this book brings together a number of conflicting modes of thinking and writing through the surprising and perhaps disconcerting use of shadow chapters that speak to or against the four central chapters creating both dialogue and interruption The Rebirth of American Literary Theory and Criticism H. Aram Veaser, 2020-11-27 The interviewees of this volume fall into three groups the main players who brought about the rise of theory Fish Gallop Spivak Bhabha a younger group of post theorists Bruce Dimock Nealon Warren the anti critique theorists Felski and new order theorists Puchner Wolfe They discuss elemental questions such as trying to grasp what was logic and what was rhetoric trying to see down the road while fog and turmoil held visibility to arm's length and trying to pick legible meanings out of the cultural blanket of deafening noise Theorists were not only good thinkers but also pioneers who were seeking profound transformations A Writing Halfway Between Theory and Fiction Miriam Wallraven, 2007 This book is focused on the surprisingly large number of feminist women writers in literary history who use different genres for their feminist ideas while subverting or transgressing established boundaries between fictional and theoretical writing In particular texts by such diverse authors as Mary Wollstonecraft Mary Hays Mary Robinson Harriet Martineau Olive Schreiner Virginia Woolf the French Feminists Hélène Cixous and Monique Wittig Margaret Cavendish and Michelle Roberts are analysed This chronological in depth reading of feminist texts is based on the interrelation of content genre and discourse The study provides the first analysis of the phenomenon of the gendering of genre and feminists troubled involvement in theory as well as literature In this way key questions concerning the emergence of feminism during the last four hundred years are presented in a new and revealing light e g for what reason did Mary Wollstonecraft not only write her famous feminist treatise A Vindication of the Rights of Woman but also a novel in which she tests the arguments of her theoretical treatise by means of fiction What is the significance of Virginia Woolf's Novel Essay The Pargiters which seeks to connect theoretical and fictional parts by juxtaposing them How can the mixture of genres be interpreted which Catherine Clement attributes to the texts of Hélène Cixous as a writing halfway between theory and fiction
