American Sniper Script:

The Films of Clint Eastwood Matt Wanat, Leonard Engel, 2018-05-15 The indefatigable Clint Eastwood the great old man of American film is still controversial after all these years Many of the critical essays in this collection focus on Eastwood's 2014 American Sniper a particularly controversial film and a devastating personal account of the horrors of war Additional essays within the collection address his films that deserve more recognition than they have received to date The chapters vary by topic and identify themes ranging from aging race and gender to uses of Western conventions and myth to the subtleties of quieter themes and stylistic choices in Eastwood's body of cinematic work As a collection these essays show that none of these themes account for Eastwood's entire vision which is multifaceted and often contradictory dramatizing complex issues in powerful character driven narratives

Monstrous Fantasies Leila K. Norako,2024-08-15 Monstrous Fantasies asks why medieval romances reimagining the crusades ending in a Christian victory circulated in England with such abundance after the 1291 Muslim reconquest of Acre the last of the Latin crusader states in the Holy Land and what these texts reveal about the cultural anxieties of late medieval England Leila K Norako highlights the impact that the Ottoman victory and subsequent massacre of Christian prisoners at the battle of Nicopolis in 1396 had on intensifying the popularity of what she calls recovery romance These two episodes inspired a sense of urgency over the fate of the Holy Land and of Latin Christendom itself resulting in the proliferation of romances in which crusading English kings like Richard I and anachronistic legends like King Arthur not only reconquered Jerusalem but committed genocidal violence against the Muslims These romances which as Norako argues also influenced Geoffrey Chaucer s Canterbury Tales conjure fantasies of an ascendant global Christendom by rehearsing acts of conquest and cultural annihilation that were impossible to realize in the late Middle Ages Emphasizing the tension in these texts between nostalgia and anticipation that fuels their narrative momentum Monstrous Fantasies also explores how the cultural desires for European and Christian hegemony that recovery romances versified were revived in the wake of the so called wars on terror in the twenty first century in such films as Kingdom of Heaven and American Sniper

America's Addiction to Terrorism Henry A. Giroux, 2016 In the United States today the term terrorism conjures up images of dangerous outside threats religious extremists and suicide bombers in particular Harder to see but all the more pervasive is the terrorism perpetuated by the United States itself whether through military force overseas or woven into the very fabric of society at home Henry Giroux in this passionate and incisive book turns the conventional wisdom on terrorism upside down demonstrating how fear and lawlessness have become organizing principles of life in the United States and violence an acceptable form of social mediation He addresses the most pressing issues of the moment from officially sanctioned torture to militarized police forces to austerity politics Giroux also examines the ongoing degradation of the education system and how young people in particular suffer its more nefarious outcomes Against this grim picture Giroux posits a politics of hope and a commitment to accurate and radical historical memory He draws on a long distinguished career developing the tenets of critical pedagogy to propose a cure for our addiction to terrorism a kind of public pedagogy that challenges the poisoned narratives of America's dis imagination machine

Hymns for the Fallen Todd Decker, 2017-02-28 This book describes in detail how music and sound function as a constituent part of the prestige combat film's larger work of memorialization in the cultural realm of commercial cinema As Rikke Schubart and Anne Gjelsvik note historians must deal with the complexity of history war heroism patriotism memory and the process of their representation Hymns for the Fallen traces an expressive sonic continuity in this process of representation for serious war films The three elements of the soundtrack dialogue sound effects music are treated in detail in the chapters which follow although music proves to be of particular interest Site de l'éditeur

Ripping England! Roger Rawlings, 2017-12-04 Examines an all too often neglected period of postwar British cinema and popular culture Ripping England investigates a fertile moment for British satire the period between 1947 and 1953 which produced the films Passport to Pimlico Kind Hearts and Coronets and The Lavender Hill Mob as well as the seminal radio program The Goon Show Against the postwar background of fading empire universal rationing and the implementation of a welfare state these satires laid the foundation for a new British cultural identity later fleshed out by the Angry Young Men the Movement poets the Social Realists and those involved in the satire boom of the 1960s which lives on even to this day The peculiarity of these satires and the British identity they shaped is better understood when seen in relief against postwar cinematic cultures of Italy France and the United States Roger Rawlings places postwar British film in the context of contemporaneous European national film movements and contrasts it with Hollywood's comedies and satires of the same period British satires of the late forties and early fifties held up a mirror to a nation that was in the throes of change moving from a colonial empire to an inward turning island culture Ripping England looks at the all too often neglected miracle of postwar British cinema and popular culture

Clint Eastwood's Cinema of Trauma Charles R. Hamilton, Allen H. Redmon, 2017-10-13 Throughout his directorial career Clint Eastwood's movies have presented sympathetic narratives of characters enduring personal trauma as they turn to violence to survive calamity or sustain social order a choice that leaves them marginalized rather than redeemed In this collection of new essays contributors examine his films from The Outlaw Josey Wales to Sully as studies on PTSD that expose the social conditions that tolerate or trigger traumatization and in his more recent work imagine a way through individual and collective trauma
