Mixed Methods Applications in Action Research Nataliya V. Ivankova, 2015 This text outlines and explains in detail the necessary steps in designing conducting implementing and reporting an action research study with a solid mixed methods foundation

The Routledge Handbook for Advancing Integration in Mixed Methods Research John H. Hitchcock, Anthony J. Onwuegbuzie, 2022-05-10 This groundbreaking edited book The Routledge Handbook for Advancing Integration in Mixed Methods Research presents an array of different integration ideas with contributions from scholars across the globe This handbook represents the first major volume that comprehensively discusses this topic of integration Perhaps the most fundamental and longstanding question in mixed methods research is How does one best integrate disparate forms of information to produce the best form of inquiry Each of the 34 seminal chapters in this handbook accelerates the discussion of integration across a broad range of disciplines including education arts based analyses and work in the Global South as well as special topics such as psychometrics and media research Many of the chapters present new topics that have never been written about before and all chapters offer cutting edge approaches to integration They also offer different perspectives of integration leading the introductory chapter to offer a new and comprehensive definition for integration as follows referring to the optimal mixing combining blending amalgamating incorporating joining linking merging consolidating or unifying of research approaches methodologies philosophies methods techniques concepts language modes disciplines fields and or teams within a single study The concluding chapter offers a meta framework that accounts for this definition and is designed to help scholars think more about integration in a way that represents a continuous dynamic iterative interactive synergistic and holistic meaning making process This handbook will be an essential reference work for all scholars and practitioners using or seeking to use mixed methods in their research

Critical Pedagogy Primer Joe L. Kincheloe, 2008 The second edition of the Critical Pedagogy Primer not only introduces the topic but also provides a vision for the future of the critical pedagogy Kincheloe's notion of an evolving criticality makes sure that critical pedagogy will continue to be a vibrant and creative force that makes a powerful difference in education and in the world in general As it prepares readers for the challenges of the future it focuses on the traditions and individuals who have helped construct the discipline This attention to the past and the future provides readers with an introduction unlike most initiations into academic disciplines In a richly textured but direct manner Kincheloe captures the spirit of critical pedagogy in a language accessible to diverse audiences Both the uninitiated and those with experience in critical pedagogy can learn from this unique and compelling perspective on the field

Action Research Jerry W. Willis, Claudia Edwards, 2014-08-01 The first three chapters of Action Research Models Methods and Examples covers the history foundations and basics of conducting action research projects In those chapters you will learn about the origins of action research as well as about the different methods and models of action research from the original approaches used by Kurt Lewin and his students in the 1940s and 1950s to the diversity of current approaches to AR that are used to develop both solutions to real world problems and to construct a better understanding of important issues and concern in communities schools businesses and organizations The nine chapters in the second part of the book illustrate the many ways action research is practiced today Those chapters illustrate the use of action research methods to accomplish everything from individual personal professional development to changing policies and practices in large organizations and systems The chapters detail many specific methods of doing AR such as participatory action research emancipatory action research
