EBOOK: Women in Later Life: Exploring Race and Ethnicity Haleh Afshar, Myfanwy Franks, Mary Ann Maynard, Sharon Wray, 2008-05-16 The authors argue that much of the research into later life has neglected ethnic and cultural variation Their aim is to help us to understand what is important in older women's lives across a range of ethnic groups They have certainly achieved this in what is a readable and detailed analysis of their findings Highly recommended Nursing Standard the first book to comprehensively examine the lives of older women from ethnic minorities in the UK as well as non migrant White women The authors draw on extensive qualitative research to provide novel ways of looking at the priorities and concerns of older women providing insights into what enhances their quality of life Mary Maynard and colleagues have written an outstanding book Women in Later Life will be essential reading for students on undergraduate and postgraduate courses on gender ethnicity and later life Sara Arber University of Surrey what is it like to be an older person and particularly an older woman This carefully crafted and wide ranging book seeks to answer this question The book reminds us that age is a social construct one which profoundly disadvantages women For minority ethnic women where this book makes an important contribution to a largely unexplored territory the situation is even more dire The authors have opened up a huge area of policy demonstrating despite the rhetoric of government how badly we treat our elders Professor Gary Craig University of Hull Britain along with other Western and industrialized countries has an ageing population We already live in one of the demographically oldest societies to have ever existed and the population is going to get older By 2020 it is estimated that one third of the population will be aged over 50 Furthermore older women outnumber older men since men tend to die at a younger age than women In the academic mainstream relatively little is known about older women from minority ethnic communities This groundbreaking book is based on interviews and focus groups with women of different backgrounds and ethnicities whose lives illustrate the strength of character and optimism that have often enabled them to live through hard times but who in general view later life positively In seeking to understand the relationships between age gender and ethnicity the authors focus on a number of key themes including Family and networks Health and well being Religion faith and spirituality Income pensions and housing The meaning of identity and life course events Death and dying Women in Later Life will be key reading for students and practitioners with an interest in gender and or issues surrounding later life

Ebook: Sociological Theory George Ritzer, Jeff Stepnisky, 2014-10-16 The ninth edition of Sociological Theory by George Ritzer gives readers a comprehensive overview of the major theorists and schools of sociological thought Key theories are integrated with biographical sketches of theorists and are placed in their historical and intellectual context Written by one of the foremost authorities on sociological theory this text helps students better understand the original works of classical and modern theorists and enables them to compare and contrast the latest substantive concepts Cooking in Other Women's Kitchens, Enhanced Ebook Rebecca Sharpless, 2013-02-01 As African American women left the plantation economy behind many entered domestic service in southern cities and towns Cooking was one of the primary jobs they performed feeding generations of white families and in the process profoundly shaping southern foodways and culture In Cooking in Other Women's Kitchens: Domestic Workers in the South, 1865-1960 Rebecca Sharpless argues that in the face of discrimination long workdays and low wages African American cooks worked to assert measures of control over their own lives As employment opportunities expanded in the twentieth century most African American women chose to leave cooking for more lucrative and less oppressive manufacturing clerical or professional positions Through letters autobiography and oral history Sharpless evokes African American women's voices from slavery to the open economy examining their lives at work and at home The enhanced electronic version of the book includes twenty letters photographs first person narratives and other documents each embedded in the text where it will be most meaningful Featuring nearly 100 pages of new material the enhanced e book offers readers an intimate view into the lives of domestic workers while also illuminating the journey a historian takes in uncovering these stories

Ebook: An Introduction to Family Therapy: Systemic Theory and Practice Rudi Dallos, Ros Draper, 2024-06-06 Systemic family therapy owes a debt of gratitude to Rudi Dallos and Ros Draper who have delivered a fifth edition of the book that has provided essential scaffolding for systemic family therapists for over two decades. This latest edition holds onto its original clear and coherent telling of the development of systemic family therapy. Rachel Watson, Institute of Family Therapy, London, UK. Like a well-constructed remix, Rudi Dallos and Ros Draper have provided a tour through the landscape of family therapy and systemic practice from its historical beginnings through to the here and now. I recommend this book without hesitation and reservation. This remix should be listened to and returned to many times as it keeps on giving. Dr Ram n Karamat Ali, MSc Research Lead, Manchester, UK. Director of Training and Development at KA Conversations Ltd. With genuine enthusiasm, I wholeheartedly recommend An Introduction to Family Therapy 5th edition by Dallos and Draper. Dr Sonam Pelden, Academic Lead for Counselling School of Arts and Humanities, Edith Cowan University, Australia. The fifth edition of the bestselling An Introduction to Family Therapy provides a comprehensive overview of the core concepts informing family therapy and systemic practice, covering the development of this innovative field from the 1950s to the present day. The book considers both British and International perspectives and includes the latest developments in current practice, regulation and innovation, examining these developments within a wider political, cultural and geographical context. The fully revised fifth edition also contains new material on Developments in Neuropsychology and Trauma Theory and its relevance for family therapy practice. Illustrations of the techniques of the core schools of Family Therapy. Updates on the research basis of Family Therapy. This book is key reading for students and practitioners of family therapy and systemic practice as well as those from the fields of counselling psychology, social work and the helping professions who deal with family issues.
