Action Leadership Towards A Participatory Paradigm Professional And Practice Based Learning:

Action Leadership Ortrun Zuber-Skerritt, 2011-04-15 Action leadership is a creative innovative collaborative and self developed way to lead It eschews the hierarchical structure usually associated with leadership and is based instead on the democratic values of freedom equality inclusion and self realization It take responsibility for not control over people through networking and orchestrating human energy towards a holistic outcome that benefits the common interest Action leaders are passionate people who abide by the motto that Learning does not mean to fill a barrel but rather to ignite a flame in others And in this time of rapid economic political technological social and ecological changes action leadership and action leaders are precisely what s needed to improve how people and organizations engage constructively to address the myriad complex issues challenging society at all levels Action Leadership Towards a Participatory Paradigm explains and illustrates how action leadership can be developed through participatory action learning and action research PALAR It addresses real life issues by people who choose to work collaboratively towards shared goals while developing their learning insights knowledge people skills and personal relationships through involvement in a PALAR project The book provides a conceptual framework for action leadership and for the integrative practical theory of PALAR and examples of applications in higher education management education for organization development and community development Readers are encouraged to adopt adapt and further develop the evolving concepts of action leadership and PALAR in a participatory paradigm of learning research and development

Action Learning in Practice Mike Pedler, 2016-03-23 Previous editions of Action Learning in Practice established this authoritative overview of action learning around the world Over the last decade the move towards action based organizational learning and development has accelerated and action learning is now an established part of the education and development mainstream in large and small organizations Fully revised and updated this fourth edition covers the origins of action learning with Reg Revans ideas and looks at their development and application today Action learning is self directed learning through tackling business and work problems with the support of peers and colleagues A professional and diverse workforce attracted influenced and developed in this way is more able to deal effectively with the growing complexity and pressures of working life As the limits of conventional training and development become more obvious leaders are increasingly attracted to action based approaches to learning when seeking better outcomes and returns on investment

Democratising Participatory Research Carmen Martinez-Vargas, 2022-01-20 In this book Carmen Martinez Vargas explores how academic participatory research and the way it is carried out can contribute to more or less social justice Adopting theoretical and empirical approaches and addressing multiple complex intersectional issues this book offers inspiration for scholars and practitioners to open up alternative pathways to social justice viewed through a Global South lens Martinez Vargas examines the colonial roots of research and emphasises the importance of problematising current practices and limitations in order to establish more just and democratic participatory research practices Although practitioners have been challenging the Western roots of research and participatory research for decades their goals can be compromised by pluralities and contradictions in the field This book aims not to replicate past participatory research approaches but to offer an innovative theoretical foundation the Capabilities Approach and an innovative participatory practice called Democratic Capabilities Research Democratising Participatory Research is not only timely and relevant in South Africa but also in the Global North owing to the current crisis of values jeopardising the peaceful existence of diverse societies The book gives essential recommendations for capabilities and human development scholars to reframe their perspectives and uses of the Capabilities Approach as well as for participatory practitioners to critically reflect on their practices and their often limited conceptualisation of participation

participatory research techniques including methods that can be operationalised at scale approaches to engaging the poorest and most marginalised and ways of harnessing technologies to increase the scope of participation amongst others Actions of Their Own to Learn ,2017-01-01 What does it mean to take actions of one s own to learn How do human beings create meaning for themselves and with others How can learners active efforts to build knowledge be encouraged and supported In this edited compilation scholars from a diverse range of academic and professional backgrounds address these questions grounded in the conviction that the ability to take effective action of one s own to learn is itself an essential form of knowledge In an era of dramatic social environmental and political change the need to access vast amounts of information to make decisions demands that learners become active agents in their own knowledge development Educators are transforming ideas about their role s as they strive to provide guidance to help learners take the lead in their own learning Learners are building new ideas about their capacities to gather and organize information while working with others No longer simply consumers of information they are beginning to see themselves as capable and effective researchers Researchers are also expanding ideas about their knowledge gathering work and identities No longer simply reporters of information researchers are seeing themselves as learners as they engage in deeper more collaborative ways with participants in their research Chapter authors describe their dedicated and often career long journeys to show the vital connections between knowledge acting to learn identity and being To engage in this work means disrupting traditional ideas about how knowledge is most effectively acquired This book will inspire researchers educators and educational planners as they build the kinds of new participative structures needed to support individual and collective actions to learn See inside the book Navigating the Coaching and Leadership Landscape: Strategies and Insights for Success Wefald, Andrew J.,2024-03-07 In today s rapidly evolving leadership landscape a glaring gap exists between theory and practice in coaching and leadership While scattered research attempts to shed light on this critical intersection a comprehensive resource remains elusive leaving practitioners and scholars needing a unified framework to navigate this complex terrain The absence of a holistic understanding hampers the efforts of leaders striving to cultivate effective coaching practices and impedes scholarly progress in this burgeoning field Navigating the Coaching and Leadership Landscape Strategies and Insights for Success poised to bridge the divide between theory and practice in coaching and leadership By meticulously examining the theoretical underpinnings and practical applications of coaching within leadership contexts our comprehensive volume offers a long awaited solution to this pressing problem From elucidating the foundational connection between coaching and leadership to providing actionable insights into implementing coaching practices each chapter serves as a guiding beacon for practitioners and scholars alike International Handbook on Geographical Education Rod Gerber,2013-03-09 I am very pleased to have been asked by Rod Gerber to provide a preface to such a book Not least because of the twenty four chapters eight are written by former students or colleagues with whom I have worked in the past and whom I still meet at conferences on geographical education It is with a certain pride and joy that I note the progress which has been made in geographical education both in its day to day teaching and in research in the twenty years following the end of my term of office as Chair of the Commission on Geographical Education of the International Geographical Union CGEIUG My successors Joe Stoltman Hartwig Haubrich Rod Gerber and now Lea Houtsonen have done much and are continuing to work hard to foster the development of geographical education This book is proof if proof were needed that the international collaboration in this field is alive and well with contributions coming from all the continents except Antarctica It would be a moribund subject that remained unaffected in one way or another by developments on the great world stage as Fairgrieve 1926 would have put it And as Rod Gerber shows the issues of globalisation of cultural encounters of differing value systems of new technologies of variable economic development and of environmental quality all feature as topics which influence and are influenced by geographical education

Paradigm Shift in Education Yin Cheong Cheng, 2019-02-18 As social contexts and demands change in the 21st century pedagogies and policies must adapt to keep up Increasing emphasis on global preparedness competitiveness and holistic education alongside a fast paced ever changing environment may make policy implementation difficult However

Cheng asserts that it is only by understanding the current trends visions and issues in education policy implementation and research that we can reflect adapt and improve future initiatives To that end Cheng elucidates the different paradigm shifts in classrooms and pedagogy all over the world In his exploration of third wave paradigm shifts in education he charts the rationales concerns and effects in topics such as contextualized multiple intelligences integrated learning national education in globalization teacher effectiveness and development school based management and systemic education reform This book is a promising referential resource for any policy maker academic and educator who knows that the only way to progress is to look at and learn from the current issues and future trends globally

Learning Teaching Pete Boyd,Barry

Hymer,Karen Lockney,2025-02-28 This essential and aspirational text is aimed at all beginning teachers whatever your training route age phase and setting It explicitly adopts and builds on a new metaphor for teachers professional learning as interplay between the body of public knowledge and the practical wisdom of teachers within a particular school setting It also accepts that telling you how to teach is ineffective you need to become a teacher because it involves identity and practice Inquiry based critically reflective learning with a clear focus on the learning of pupils is proposed as the core strategy by which you can build your knowledge and skills to become an outstanding teacher Core topics including planning inclusion teaching assessment and professional development are tackled in an accessible and refreshing way using key research informed evidence The focus is relentlessly on learning rather than performance in order to support you becoming an excellent professional teacher rather than a competent technician who makes a difference to learners colleagues schools and policy Think of this book as a temporary or additional mentor challenging you with different ways of thinking about learning and providing strategies to guide your professional learning It takes 10 years or more to begin to be a brain surgeon but sometimes we get 1 3 years at most before we are allowed to work with children s brains as teachers So we need inspirational teachers and this is the focus of this compact powerful and insightful book It is wonderfully designed around five of the most critical dilemmas in our classrooms belief vs ability autonomy vs compliance abstract vs concrete feedback vs praise and collaboration vs competition The power of the book is that it illustrates the new move to focus on learning power and such a focus permits every student to become smarter through effort and deep practice as they struggle with the high challenge learning activities in the presence of inspirational impactful and passionate teachers The perfect book for those who want to make most of their opportunity to enhance students brain power John Hattie Director Melbourne Education Research Institute
