Educational Media and Technology Yearbook Michael Orey, V. J. McClendon, Robert Maribe Branch, 2009-05-28 The Educational Media and Technology Yearbook has become a standard reference in many libraries and professional collections Examined in relation to its companion volumes of the past it provides a valuable historical record of current ideas and developments in the field Part I Trends and Issues presents an array of chapters that develop some of the current themes listed above in addition to others Part II Library and Information Science concentrates upon chapters of special relevance to K 12 education library science education school learning resources and various types of library and media centers school public and academic among others In Part III Leadership Profiles authors provide biographical sketches of the careers of instructional technology leaders Part IV Organizations and Associations in North America and Part V Graduate Programs in North America are respectively directories of instructional technology related organizations and institutions of higher learning offering degrees in related fields Finally Part VI the Bibliography presents an annotated listing of selected current publications related to the field For a number of years we have worked together as editors and the sixth with Dr Michael Orey as the senior editor Last year as the senior editor Orey decided to try and come up with a list of the top programs rather than just the list of all the programs This has proven to be problematic First of all bias exists when we are rating a field in which our program is within those to be rated Research in Information Studies W. Bernard Lukenbill, 2012-04-11 Research is integrated into the whole fabric of modern day society and culture It affects our lives in so many ways from finding a job to knowing how to manage our health Information studies designed to understand this array of information encompasses a wide expanse of disciplines Many of these areas draw their philosophical and research bases from a mixture of disciplines within the social sciences and the humanities This book takes a holistic view of these diverse areas and shows how they are united through the common thread of enhancing our knowledge of and understanding the world in which we all live Using Qualitative Methods , The School Library Media Facilities Planner Thomas L. Hart, 2006 This book presents timely information on designing building remodeling and equipping library media centers Chapters cover every phase of the process from assessing needs allocating space selecting furniture and working with the architect to moving into the new facility A CD view book of several Florida libraries allows the user to see and hear librarians describe the pros and cons of their individual libraries Booklist Administering the School Library Media Center Betty J. Morris, 2010-08-16 This is the most comprehensive textbook on school library administration available now updated to include the latest standards and address new technologies This reference text provides a complete instructional overview of the workings of the library media center from the basics of administration budgeting facilities management organization selection of materials and staffing to explanations on how to promote information literacy and the value of digital tools like blogs wikis and podcasting Since the publication of the fourth edition of Administering the School Library Media Center in 2004 many changes have altered the landscape of school library administration the implementation of NCLB legislation and the revision of AASL standards just to mention two The book is divided into 14 chapters each devoted to a major topic in school library media management This latest edition gives media specialists a roadmap for designing a school library that is functional and intellectually stimulating while leading sources provide guidance for further research
