Dramaturgy Michael Evans, 2025-04-25 How are plays constructed Taking this essential question and looking at a broad range of Western plays from Greek tragedies through Ibsen we can discern a remarkably stable set of dramaturgical principles Some dramatists adhere to traditional principles to create meaning while others delight in bending or breaking these conventions seeking new ways to express meaning In this book Michael Evans discusses what he calls standard dramaturgy a set of seven principles upon which most plays from ancient Greek dramas to modern works are based He teases out seven traits found in most plays written before 1900 and many popular plays and films since then The book then looks at these key traits and how the playwrights of the Modernist era deliberately subvert them to create new methods of meaning Examining each of these traits with well chosen examples from dramatic literature the book highlights these traits and illustrates how dramaturgs can understand instances of meaning within plays Part of the Routledge Focus on Dramaturgy series this book will interest scholars and students of dramaturgy directing and theatre studies

Edward Albee: A Singular Journey Mel

Gussow,2012-11-27 In 1960 Edward Albee electrified the theater world with the American premiere of The Zoo Story and followed it two years later with his extraordinary first Broadway play Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf. Proclaimed as the playwright of his generation, he went on to win three Pulitzer Prizes for his searing and innovative plays. Mel Gussow, author, critic, and cultural writer for The New York Times, has known Albee and followed his career since its inception, and in this fascinating biography he creates a compelling firsthand portrait of a complex genius. The book describes Albee's life as the adopted child of rich, unloving parents and covers the highs and lows of his career. A core myth of Albee's life, perpetuated by the playwright, is that The Zoo Story was his first play, written as a thirtieth birthday present to himself. As Gussow relates, Albee has been writing since adolescence, and through close analysis, the author traces the genesis of Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf, Tiny Alice, A Delicate Balance, and other plays. After his early triumphs, Albee endured years of critical neglect and public disfavor. Overcoming artistic and personal difficulties, he returned in 1994 with Three Tall Women. In this prizewinning play, he came to terms with the towering figure of his mother, the woman who dominated so much of his early life. With frankness and critical acumen, and drawing on extensive conversations with the playwright, Gussow offers fresh insights into Albee's life. At the same time, he provides vivid portraits of Albee's relationships with the people who have been closest to him, including William Flanagan, his first mentor; Thornton Wilder; Richard Barr; John Steinbeck; Alan Schneider; John Gielgud; and his leading ladies, Uta Hagen, Colleen Dewhurst, Irene Worth, Myra Carter, Elaine Stritch, Marian Seldes, and Maggie Smith. And then there are, most famously, Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton, who starred in Mike Nichols's acclaimed film version of Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf. The book places Albee in context as a playwright who inspired writers as diverse as John Guare and Sam Shepard, and as a teacher and champion of human rights. Edward Albee: A Singular Journey is rich with colorful details about this uniquely American life. It also contains previously unpublished photographs and letters from and to Albee. It is the essential book about one of the major artists of the American theater.

Edward Albee as Theatrical and Dramatic Innovator, 2019-05-07 Edward Albee as Theatrical and Dramatic Innovator offers eight essays and a major interview by important scholars in the field that explore this three-time Pulitzer prize-winning playwright's innovations as a dramatist and theatrical artist. They consider not only Albee's award-winning plays and his contributions to the evolution of modern American drama, but also his important influence to the American theatre as a whole, his connections to art and music, and his international influence in Spanish and Russian theatre. Contributors: Jackson R. Bryer, Milbrey Burch, David A. Crespy, Ramon Espejo, Romero Nathan, Hedman Lincoln, Konkle, Julia Listengarten, David Marcia, Ashley Raven, Parisa Shams, Valentine Vasak.

What Playwrights Talk About When They Talk About Writing, Jeffrey Sweet, 2017-02-21 The art and craft of playwriting, as explored in candid conversations with some of the most important contemporary dramatists: Edward Albee, Lanford Wilson, Lynn Nottage, A. R. Gurney, and a host of other major creative voices of the theater, discuss the art of playwriting from inspiration to production in a volume that marks the tenth anniversary of the Yale Drama Series and the

David Charles Horn Foundation Prize for emerging playwrights Jeffrey Sweet himself an award winning dramatist hosts a virtual roundtable of perspectives on how to tell stories onstage featuring extensive interviews with a gallery of gifted contemporary dramatists In their own words Arthur Kopit Marsha Norman Christopher Durang David Hare and many others offer insights into all aspects of the creative writing process as well as their personal views on the business politics and fraternity of professional theater This essential work will give playwrights and playgoers alike a deeper and more profound appreciation of the art form they love

Edward Albee perhaps best known for his acclaimed and infamous 1960s drama Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf is one of America's greatest living playwrights Now in his seventies he is still writing challenging award winning dramas This collection of essays on Albee which includes contributions from the leading commentators on Albee's work brings fresh critical insights to bear by exploring the full scope of the playwright's career from his 1959 breakthrough with The Zoo Story to his recent Broadway success The Goat or Who is Sylvia 2002 The contributors include scholars of both theatre and English literature and the essays thus consider the plays both as literary texts and as performed drama The collection considers a number of Albee's lesser known and neglected works provides a comprehensive introduction and overview and includes an exclusive original interview with Mr Albee on topics spanning his whole career

Edward Albee and the Emergence of Difference and Diversity in US and World Theatre David A. Crespy, Les Gray, 2025-09-08

This collection of essays seeks to present articles that examine the early ventures of the 1960s and 1970s in the progressive theatre of identity with a new contemporary view considering the intersection of race gender ethnicity economic class and sexual orientation In 1964 Edward Albee and his producers Richard Barr and Clinton Wilder produced Funnyhouse of a Negro by Adrienne Kennedy and Dutchman by Amiri Baraka then Leroi Jones and by 1968 had produced the seminal gay drama The Boys in the Band by Mart Crowley No other major American playwright of this period including Thornton Wilder Arthur Miller Tennessee Williams or William Inge produced the plays of their junior colleagues with a specific focus on difference and diversity For most scholars these productions and Albee's involvement in them are a somewhat obscure footnote in theatre history But they remain important for their early support of diverse voices Even as Albee's career was skyrocketing he and his producers had begun a producing project that sowed the seeds of diversity equity and inclusion in a decidedly anti racist decolonizing and progressive move that still resonates powerfully today While this book is not a hagiography and does not intend to paint Albee as without his own critical failings in terms of diversity in his own work and that of others this volume of theatre history dramatic literature and performance essays takes a detailed critical approach to Albee's engagement with other initiating plays productions producers theatre companies theatre artists and performances in the United States that pushed the dial toward difference and diversity in the late 1950s through the late 1970s beginning the formations of new theatres of identity across the United States This volume will be of great interest to students and scholars in theatre and performance studies Edward Albee: Playwright in Protest Michael E.
