Encyclopedia of American Urban History David Goldfield, 2007 Publisher description The Representation Gap Brian Towers, 1997 This comparative study shows how since the early 1980s British and American employees have experienced a critical weakening of their defenses against the growing managerial prerogative and have borne a greater part of the business and organizational risk The author explains the growth in this representation gap primarily through the withdrawal of public policy support for collective bargaining He argues that this development has serious implications for economic efficiency and competitiveness but above all for the health of the democratic process Chronic Illness Ilene Morof Lubkin, Pamala D. Larsen, 2002 Focuses on the various aspects of chronic illness that influence both patients and their families Topics include the sociological psychological ethical organizational and financial factors as well as individual and system outcomes The Psychology of Binge Watching TV Barrie Gunter, 2024-11-22 This fascinating work provides an up to date examination of shifts in the nature and impact of TV and video watching that have largely been driven by non linear TV and video services online The book reviews research evidence from around the world about the physical and behavioural shift of viewing away from linear and towards non linear TV and video services It studies the psychological factors that underpin and drive this shift and the impact of binge watching behaviour on people s physical and psychological health and social relationships Along the way it differentiates between binge watching and heavy viewing and considers binge watching as a distinctive form of TV video use that has its own reasons of occurrence and impacts The Psychology of Binge Watching TV is aimed principally at students and academics interested in psychology media mental health and other related disciplines It will also interest any readers looking to understand more about the psychology behind binge watching and the potentially positive and negative effects on audiences Current List of Medical Literature , 1957 Includes section Recent book acquisitions varies Recent United States publications formerly published separately by the U S Army Medical Library Risk Management in Health Care Institutions Florence Kavalier, Allen D. Spiegel, 2003 Risk management for health care institutions involves the protection of the assets of the organizations agencies and individual providers from liability A strategic approach can result in significant cost savings Risk Management in Health Care Institutions A Strategic Approach offers governing boards chief executive officers administrators and health profession students the opportunity to organize and devise a successful risk management program Experts in risk management have contributed comprehensive up to date syntheses of relevant topics to assist with practical risk management strategies Public Health in the Context of Life-Limiting Illnesses: Patient-Centered Care in Advanced and Life-Limiting Illnesses Mevhibe Hocaoglu, Richard John Siegert, Rebecca Jarden, Margaret Sandham, Irene Higginson, 2024-08-01 It is estimated that at least 60% of persons dying have a prolonged advanced illness The need for palliative and end of life care will increase due to the rapidly aging world population and the increase of multiple long term conditions For these reasons palliative care is an integral part of public health and public health strategies Palliative care as holistic person centered care and has played a critical role in the recent public health emergency of the COVID 19 pandemic There is a close association between public health health promotion and palliative care and this research topic will highlight this association Through a series of multi disciplinary articles we will explore public health in the context of life limiting illnesses contributing to shaping person centered care including palliative end of life and rehabilitation This research topic will discuss advanced and life limiting illness as a public health challenge and explore the role of palliative and end of life care including rehabilitation in shaping person centered care
