ICEL 2017 - Proceedings of the 12th International Conference on e-Learning Laurie O. Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017

Drug-resistant Mycobacterium tuberculosis Ben Gold, Helena Ingrid Boshoff, Digby Warner, 2023-06-08 Research Anthology on Citizen Engagement and Activism for Social Change Management Association, Information Resources, 2021-11-26

Activism and the role everyday people play in making a change in society are increasingly popular topics in the world right now especially as younger generations begin to speak out From traditional protests to activities on college campuses to the use of social media more individuals are finding accessible platforms with which to share their views and become more actively involved in politics and social welfare With the emergence of new technologies and a spotlight on important social issues people are able to become more involved in society than ever before as they fight for what they believe It is essential to consider the recent trends technologies and movements in order to understand where society is headed in the future The Research Anthology on Citizen Engagement and Activism for Social Change examines a plethora of innovative research surrounding social change and the various ways citizens are involved in shaping society Covering topics such as accountability social media voter turnout and leadership it is an ideal work for activists sociologists social workers politicians public administrators sociologists journalists policymakers social media analysts government administrators academicians researchers practitioners and students

Belonging Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2025-09-23 What does it mean to belong Across oceans and centuries this sweeping narrative shuttles between the corridors of the Colonial Office in London the contested streets of Durban and the changing power dynamics within the British Raj The first boatload of indentured Indians arrived in Natal in 1860 Thousands were to follow In haunting detail the book captures the plight of these labourers as well as the vicious onslaught faced by the merchant class for daring to outpace their colonial rivals At its core are the untold struggles of Indian South Africans as they confront the ever present threat of repatriation Sensitive to shifting political terrains the book weaves together seismic events the independence of India the coming of apartheid and the threat once more of mass expulsions with the texture of everyday life The granting of citizenship in 1961 is accompanied by mass relocations as the Group Areas Act rips communities from their roots Yet out of this despair barren townships on the edges of cities are turned into places of hope In the final chapters the fall of apartheid offers a moment of transcendence Yet it also asks what does it mean at last to belong It is a fascinating story of the global and the local of resistance and collaboration and undefeated optimism This is a book for anyone who has ever sought a place to

ICEL 2018 13th International Conference on e-Learning Professor Eunice Ivala, 2018-07-05 Handbook of Research on Using Global Collective Intelligence and Creativity to Solve Wicked Problems Fields, Ziska, 2020-11-27 Today s world is continually facing complex and life threatening issues that are too difficult or even impossible to solve These challenges have been titled wicked problems due to their radical and multifarious nature Recently there has been a focus on global cooperation and gathering creative and diverse methods from around the world to solve these issues Accumulating research and information on these collective intelligence methods is vital in comprehending current international issues and what possible solutions are being developed through the use of global collaboration The Handbook of Research on Using Global Collective Intelligence and Creativity to Solve Wicked Problems is a pivotal reference source that provides vital research on the collaboration between global communities in developing creative solutions for radical worldwide issues While highlighting topics such as collaboration technologies neuro leadership and sustainable global solutions this publication explores diverse collections of problem solving methods and applying them on a global scale This book is ideally designed for scholars researchers students policymakers strategists economists and educators seeking current research on problem solving methods using collective intelligence and creativity International Case Studies in Service Learning Enakshi Sengupta,Patrick

Blessinger,2022-11-16 Shedding light on how successfully service learning has been adopted to the existing curriculum and the emergence of a new breed of students who are aligned with the needs of the community and undertake collaborative work to solve real world issues Volume 47 is invaluable to both researchers teachers and scholars AIMING FOR THE STARS Dr Sphumelele Ndlovu,2018-07-13 AIMING FOR THE STARS is a memoir of Dr Sphumelele Ndlovu and his life of hardship which led him to becoming a Scientist His mother sold chickens to provide for her children never considering himself worse off than others The family was poor Sphumelele s life was also derailed when strikes caused 24 out of the 28 teachers at his school to abandon their posts in his matric year Education was Ndlovu s ticket to a better future and he knew at a young age that he wasn t going to give it up without a fight Ndlovu s PhD placed him to be part of a team of scientists set out to measure the distance between the Earth and Moon using lasers It is the sixth ever such venture but the first to be carried out by an African team A man whose horizon was once confined to the perimeter of a chicken coop now handled tools that allowed his eyes to glide over galaxies You Can't Go to War Without Song Omotayo Jolaosho,2022-07-26 You Can t Go to War without Song explores the role of public performance in political activism in contemporary South Africa Weaving together detailed ethnographic fieldwork and an astute theoretical framework Omotayo Jolaosho examines the cohesive power of protest songs and dances within the Anti Privatisation Forum APF one of many social movements that emerged in the wake of South Africa s democratic transition after 1994 Jolaosho demonstrates the ways APF members adapted anti apartheid songs and dance to create new expressive forms that informed and commented on their struggles for access to water electricity housing education and health facilities the costs of which had been made prohibitive by privatization You Can t Go to War without Song offers profiles of individual activists to amplify its central point social movements like the APF are best understood as the coming together of individuals and it is the songs and dances of the movement that bind these individual together and create opportunity for community organization Chapters on women and youth complicate such understandings of community however showing how activist live and experiences are shaped by gender and generation

Sustainable Urban Futures in Africa

Michael Addaney, Patrick Cobbinah, 2021-12-30 Sustainable Urban Futures in Africa provides a variety of conventional and emerging theoretical frameworks to inform understandings and responses to critical urban development issues such as urbanisation climate change housing slum informality urban sprawl urban ecosystem services and urban poverty among others within the context of the sustainable development goals SDGs in Africa This book addresses topics including challenges to spatial urban development how spatial planning is delivered how different urbanisation variables influence the development of different forms of urban systems and settlements in Africa how city authorities could use old and new methods of land administration to produce sustainable urban spaces in Africa and the role of local activism is causing important changes in the built environment Chapters are written by a diverse range of African scholars and practitioners in urban planning and policy design environmental science and policy sociology agriculture natural resources management environmental law and politics Urban Africa has huge resource potential both human and natural resources that can stimulate sustainable development when effectively harnessed Sustainable Urban Futures in Africa provides support for the SDGs in urban Africa and will be of interest to students and researchers professionals and policymakers and readers of urban studies spatial planning geography governance and other social sciences Prediabetes and Endocrine Function Sam Dagogo-Jack, Andile Khathi, 2023-09-12 Expanding Approaches to Bible Translation James A. Maxey, 2025-05-22 The assertion in this book included within the BPC series is that translation is as fundamental to biblical material as performance both in its history as well as in its research approaches Translation in this sense is more than a transferal of meaning from one linguistic system to another Bible translation highlights innovative connections and conceptions to biblical texts in their promulgation reception and ever changing nature A predominant theory used throughout this book is social semiotic multimodality This communication theory informs an approach to translation that expands beyond words to other semiotic resources Sign Language embodied performance social media theater materiality and many other types of multimodal communications inform translation It is important to understand that the Bible is a translated experience Translation reflects the various ways in which the Bible has been mediated and appropriated throughout history It follows therefore that Bible translation as a global activity has been and continues to be influenced by the political and economic flows of history Race class ethnicity gender sexual orientation and other elements of our social locations directly influence the enterprise and results of Bible translation A History of the Present Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2019-09-12 Through the long 20th century Indian South Africans lived under the whip of settler colonialism and white minority rule which saw the passing of a slew of legislation that circumscribed their freedom of movement threatened repatriation and denied them citizenship all the while herding them into racially segregated townships This volume chronicles the broad outlines of this history Taking the story into the present it provides an analysis of how Indian South Africans have responded to changes wrought by the remarkable collapse of apartheid and the holding of the first democratic elections in 1994 Drawing upon archival records in depth interviews and ethnography this study examines the ways in which Indian South Africans define themselves and the world around them and how they are defined by others It tells of the incredible journey of Indian South Africans many of whom are fourth and fifth generation towards being recognized as citizens in the land of their birth and how while often attracted by and seeking to explore their roots in India they continue to dig deeper roots in African soil How Social Movements Imagine Bobby Luthra Sinha, 2024-08-30 This book examines how micro contextual issues inspire collective social action forms against everyday situations of crises and crimes through an inter disciplinary ethnographic and comparative research conducted among Bishnois and Indian South Africans Exploring the role of the publics that practise and mobilise their social movement imaginations the work delves into peoples ability to move beyond their immediate contexts and politicise multiple social spaces and discursive spheres around them to project their causes Mapping an anti poaching movement spearheaded by the Bishnois of Western Rajasthan in India and an anti substance abuse movement led by the historical Indian diaspora of South Africa the author argues that such contemporary forms of organised social action replete with alternative frames symbols and repertoires possess key requisites to be understood as the Newer Social Movements of the Global South The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of social and protest movements migration and diaspora studies political science social anthropology and ethnography
