A Luta Continua Lizette Rabe,2020-10-16 What has media freedom entailed over the couple of centuries and successive governments of the geopolitical region that became South Africa since it was colonised by Westerners And why can media freedom be described as both pillar and cornerstone of a democracy It s simple as in the words of Nelson Mandela first state president of a democratic South Africa Press freedom is the lifeblood of democracy This book tells the tale of the various states of press freedom or unfreedom from colonial times to today from a British governor called a dictator and a despot through apartheid s pigmentocracy or sjambokkracy where the rule of law has been replaced by the rule of the whip up to the dawn of liberation with media freedom entrenched in Article 16 of South Africa s Bill of Rights And why should all of this concern you Because media freedom is not about the freedom of the media It is about your freedom As was formulated by an editor under apartheid If we don t have a public sympathetic to a free press not only will we not have a free press we won t have a democracy either Or in the words of former Sowetan editor and SANEF chair Mpumelelo Mhkabela Media freedom has nothing to do with the media but with the freedom of citizens And that is why you should know that a free media is the only guarantee for your freedom As we have seen both under apartheid and also under a democratic dispensation it is a matter of a luta continua The struggle continues But you the public are the guardian of those that guard democracy Help ensure the rights of a free media and thereby your democratic rights and a democratic South Africa     Domestic and Regional Environmental Laws and Policies in Africa Jean-Claude N. Chahine, 2025-02-28 In South Africa work integrated learning WIL excursions are crucial in preparing university students for the world of work As higher education institutions HEIs evolve to promote equity and inclusivity these excursions are continuously refined to enhance student learning outcomes This scholarly book explores how WIL excursions support self directed learning SDL and foster skills essential for the 21st century such as active learning intercultural sensitivity and epistemological access A key focus is on the 2023 WIL excursions at North West University NWU which align with South Africa's National Development Plan 2030 and the University Capacity Development Grant's UCDG goal of equipping graduates to address contemporary societal challenges The book examines first year excursions across three faculties Education Health Sciences and Law using both virtual and in person experiences to develop intercultural citizenship communication and a sense of belonging Through research based insights the chapters highlight how these excursions were designed and implemented to help students recognise personal biases deepen cultural awareness and take responsibility for their own learning Additionally the book underscores how students were encouraged to identify their learning needs and access resources that promote ongoing self directed growth By linking WIL to SDL the book provides novel perspectives on fostering inclusivity and preparing students for their academic journeys professional careers and contributions to a more socially just world

Territorial Governance and Spatial Transformation in Post-apartheid South Africa Daniel du Plessis, 2025-07-05 The book provides a reflective account of the evolution of the territorial governance structures and processes in South Africa over a period of 30 years after the transition to a post apartheid society in 1994 It also considers the role and influence of these changing governance institutions and processes and their associated outputs in the form of policies and plans on several priority dimensions of urban spatial transformation The synthesis of the experiences and lessons learnt provides the bases for contemplating important future focus areas for territorial governance such as spatial transformation towards smart cities an African perspective for future South African cities and transitioning towards a streamlined integrated territorial governance system The lessons and experiences are not only of local significance in South Africa but also globally in countries and regions faced with territorial governance and spatial transformation challenges

A typology of questions in Northeast Asia and beyond Andreas Hölzl, 2018-08-29 This study investigates the distribution of linguistic and specifically structural diversity in Northeast Asia NEA defined as the region north of the Yellow River and east of the Yenisei In particular it analyzes what is called the grammar of questions GQ i e those aspects of any given language that are specialized for asking questions or regularly combine with these The bulk of the study is a bottom up description and comparison of GQs in the languages of NEA The addition of the phrase and beyond to the title of this study serves two purposes First languages such as Turkish and Chuvash are included despite the fact that they are spoken outside of NEA since they have ties to or even originated in the region Second despite its focus on one area the typology is intended to be applicable to other languages as well Therefore it makes extensive use of data from languages outside of NEA The restriction to one category is necessary for reasons of space and clarity and the process of zooming in on one region allows a higher resolution and historical accuracy than is usually the case in linguistic typology The discussion mentions over 450 languages and dialects from NEA and beyond and gives about 900 glossed examples The aim is to achieve both a cross linguistically plausible typology and a maximal resolution of the linguistic diversity of Northeast Asia

Towards a Transformative Pedagogy for Early Childhood Care and Education Naseema Shaik, Trevor Moodley, 2024-07-12 This book addresses the priorities and possibilities towards developing transformative pedagogies in post apartheid South Africa To this end the book has assembled a group of researchers who interrogated and engaged with a variety of dimensions that warrant pedagogical change in early childhood in South Africa The book focuses on young children practitioners and leaders with intersecting discussions about envisaged systemic changes to promote transformative pedagogies The collection highlights the importance of beliefs ways of knowing and ways of being as framings that impact on pedagogical approaches The book discusses the challenges that interplay between priorities and possibilities that practitioners face in a diverse and multi cultural society like South Africa The work uses a variety of examples to show priorities One example is about how practitioners have limited knowledge about how music as a culturally responsive tool can be used to transform pedagogy in Early Childhood Care and Education The book opens up dimensions as priorities that lead to thinking about possibilities that recast adults and young children as transformative agents in a dimension for transformative pedagogies
