Application Forms Sandf 2016:

EuroKarst 2016, Neuchâtel Philippe Renard, Catherine Bertrand, 2017-01-03 This book presents the latest advances in the field of karst hydrogeology and carbonate reservoirs. These include but are not limited to geomorphology of karst flow and solute transport in karst, innovative metrology modelling, speleogenesis and geology of carbonate reservoirs, deep reservoir exploration and production, water management and protection in karst environments, contaminant migration and chemical behavior, hydrochemistry and regional aquifer studies. EuroKarst offers a platform for professional exchanges between field practitioners and academic researchers. It is the European biennial conference on the hydrogeology of karst and carbonate reservoirs. It is organized every two years by the Universities of Neuchâtel, Switzerland, Besançon, France and Málaga, Spain.

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security, political and social environment since 1994. In South Africa's changed political state, how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy? This book presents an overview of the security environment, how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement, force preparation, force employment and force sustainability. The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force, the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy, recruitment and retention of military veterans, looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment, gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged. HIV/AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness. In closing, the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation, spelling out some lessons learned. The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil-military relations of countries around the world.

Contemporary Issues in South African Military Psychology Nicole Dodd, Petrus C. Bester, Justin van der Merwe, 2020-05-13 Contemporary Issues in South African Military Psychology is a well-timed, extremely thought-provoking, imperative particular to the African context and deals with a highly contemporary issue within the people management and the management studies fields, specifically in the military field and context. This is specifically of importance as military psychology is a behavioural science that combines theory and practical application. Prof Karel Stanz, University of Pretoria.

Defence Diplomacy and National Security Strategy Ian Liebenberg, Dirk Kruijt, Shrikant Paranjpe, 2020-04-20 The post-cold war era presented security challenges that at one level are a continuation of the cold war era; at another level, these phenomena manifested in new forms. Whether the issues of economics and trade, transfer of technologies, challenges of intervention or humanitarian crisis, the countries of the South, previously pejoratively labelled Third World or developing countries have continued to address these challenges within the framework of their capabilities and concerns The volume explores defence diplomacies national security challenges and strategies dynamics of diplomatic manoeuvres and strategic resource management of Latin American southern African and Asian countries Annual Report South Africa. Replicating & Reproducing Policing Research Khadija Monk,Jacek Koziarski,2024-04-30 This book addresses the need for policing scholarship to strengthen its empirical cumulative knowledge base by replicating and reproducing earlier studies The chapters in this volume advance policing research by replicating and reproducing earlier studies investigating the generalizability of research findings and making data and research methods available to other researchers to encourage scientific exploration of previous research findings Each chapter addresses important scientific goals of validity reliability and generalizability which build our cumulative knowledge of what is known in policing research ultimately informing policymaking The book offers insights into why replicating and reproducing policing scholarship is critical from emphasizing the importance of making data and study material publicly available to facilitate replications and reproductions to reproducing studies in new contexts and cautioning against making policy making decisions based on studies that have not been replicated This volume highlights the immense value in shifting researchers priorities even slightly to focus less so on originality and innovation to make room for replications and reproductions thereby shedding light on how true empirical knowledge on policing and police practice is dependent on it This book was originally published as a special issue of Police

Practice and Research The Changing Face of Land and Conservation in Post-colonial Africa George Barrett, Shirley Brooks, Jenny Josefsson, Nqobile Zulu, 2016-03-22 The year 2013 marked the 100th anniversary of the 1913 Land Act in South Africa which legalised the violent dispossession and alienation of the African majority from the land It is common cause that the alienation of land for conservation purposes introduced to Africa under colonial rule has continued more or less uninterrupted until today However while nature conservation practices inevitably raise challenging questions relating to land and land use there has thus far been little concentrated effort to bring together scholars working on the land question particularly around issues of land tenure with those whose work focuses on questions of nature construction and the social impacts of conservation in an African context Compiled from research presented at a ground breaking interdisciplinary conference held at Rhodes University in Grahamstown South Africa in 2012 the chapters in this book made their first appearance in a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies JCAS in July 2013 The book brings critical interdisciplinary analyses of the complex interrelations between contemporary neoliberal conservation practices in post colonial Africa into conversation with the well trodden territory of land use and contested land issues on the continent Anchored by an intellectual curiosity about the extent to which past practices continue into the present and with what consequences the book provides fresh insights into the complex relationship between land and conservation in contemporary Africa

Prosecuting International Crimes: A Multidisciplinary Approach Bartłomiej Krzan, 2016-07-11 The volume edited by Bartłomiej Krzan offers different perspectives on the prosecution of international crimes The analyses contained therein reflect different backgrounds mainly legal combining several disciplines and making it a multidisciplinary study The main but definitely not the exclusive point of reference is that of international law In addition other perspectives those of legal history or sociology of law and obviously the one of criminal law both substantive and procedural provide useful alternatives or in most occasions complementary approaches to the examination of the prosecution of international crimes The book combines different views backgrounds and underlying assumptions But gathered together they it is to be hoped shed some additional useful light that might be helpful for identifying new dimensions of the reaction judicial or other towards international crimes Contributors Wadysław Czapliński Patrycja Grzebyk Witold Jakimko Wojciech Jasiński David Kohout Karolina Kremens Bartłomiej Krzan Krzysztof Maso Neringa Mickevičiūtė Robert Uerpmann Wittzack Regina Valutytė Karolina Wierczyńska Joachim Wolf Loammi Wolf and Justinas ilinskas

Cross Border Security in the Southern African Region Inocent Moyo, 2024-07-29 This book provides a sophisticated analysis of cross border challenges and problems in the southern African region It advances explanations that transcend the state centric narrative that has nationalised cross border security It provides insights from non state actors such as informal cross border traders ICBTs informal cross border transporters undocumented migrants and cross border communities It argues that security needs to be understood beyond a state centric paradigm by focusing on the political economic environmental and societal threats at macro meso and micro levels The book suggests that at the core of cross border security challenges in the Southern African region is a post colonial governmentality This drives the nationalisation of cross border security as though it is the only security leading to nation states in turn depoliticising and invisibilising the security and livelihoods of ordinary people even when nation states claim to be protecting the same The book will be a useful resource for students scholars and researchers of African Studies Border Studies Human Geography Migration Studies Development Studies International Studies International Relations Political Science and Security Studies Military
