Apply For Practical Or Training At Baragwanath Hospital:

Baragwanath Hospital, Soweto Simonne Horwitz, 2013-09-01 Baragwanath Hospital Soweto illustrates how this rapidly growing underfunded but surprisingly effective institution found the niche that allowed it to exist to provide medical care to a massive patient body and at times even to flourish in the apartheid state The book offers new ways of exploring the history of apartheid apartheid medicine and health care The long history of Chris Hani Baragwanath Hospital its full current name or Bara as it is popularly known has been shaped by a complex set of conditions Established in the early 1940s Bara stands on land purchased by the Cornish immigrant John Albert Baragwanath in the late nineteenth century He set up a refreshment post trading store and hotel on the site in what is now Soweto which was a one day journey by ox wagon from Johannesburg The hotel became affectionately known as Baragwanath Place the surname is Welsh from bara meaning bread and gwenith meaning wheat The land was then bought by Corner House Mining Group and later taken over by Crown Mines Ltd but was never mined The British government bought the land in the early 1940s to build a military hospital but by 1947 Baragwanath ceased to operate as a military hospital and under the auspices of the Transvaal Provincial Administration a civilian hospital was opened with 480 beds Patients were transferred from the non European wing of the Johannesburg General Hospital in the white area of Johannesburg Links were immediately forged with the University of the Witwatersrand and Bara would over time become one of its largest teaching centres This link brought medical students and their teachers into direct contact with apartheid in the medical sphere This book will contribute to studies of the history of apartheid that have begun to provide a more nuanced account of its workings The history of Baragwanath and of the doctors and nurses who worked there tells us much about apartheid ideology and practice as well as resistance to it in the realm of health care South African Scope, 1968 SAMJ, 1997 Bantoe, 1974 WITS: The 'Open' Years Bruce Murray, 2022-09 In the period between the outbreak of World War II in 1939 and the enactment of university apartheid by the Nationalist Government in 1959 the University of the Witwatersrand Johannesburg Wits developed as an open university admitting students of all races This the second volume of the history of Wits by historian Bruce Murray has as its central theme the process by which Wits became open the compromises this process entailed and the defence the University mounted to preserve its open status in the face of the challenges posed by the Nationalist Government The University's institutional autonomy is highlighted by Yunus Ballim in his preface to the centenary edition of WITS The Open Years He writes The emerging posture of a university willing to rise in defence of academic freedom was important because this was to become infused into the institutional culture of Wits The book looks at the University's role in South Africa's war effort its contribution to the education of ex volunteers after the war its leading role in training job seeking professionals required by a rapidly expanding economy and the rise of research and postgraduate study Students feature prominently through their political activities the flourishing of a student intelligentsia the heyday of the Remember and Give Rag parade rugby intervarsity and the stunning success of Wits sportsmen and women

WITS The Open Years paints a vivid picture of the range of personalities who enlivened the campus among them some well known figures in the new South Africa The book includes chapters by Alf Stadler who was Professor of Political Studies at Wits and the author of The Political Economy of Modern South Africa and Jonty Winch former Sports Officer at Wits and the author of Wits Sport Ethical Issues in Social Work Practice Sandu, Antonio, Frunza, Ana, 2017-12-15 Today's practitioners and researchers are looking now more than ever at the ethical issues that are raised through the practice of social work and social services As such it is crucial that they are up to date on the latest data on how to address manage and overcome ethical issues in their practice Ethical Issues in Social Work Practice is a pivotal reference source for the latest research on the role of moral values within social work and the ethical dilemmas that arise in the profession Highlighting extensive coverage among a variety of applicable perspectives and themes such as governing principles of social work practice ethical analysis of social work cases and individual and social responsibility in social services this book is ideally designed for professionals and researchers working in the field of social work and social services as well as academics and upper level students seeking cutting edge research on ethics in the practice of social work Cumulated Index Medicus ,1995

Country Market Survey ,1983 Lahlekile Doreen Merle Foster, 2007 The South African nursing experience over 90 years has been adequately documented and may be found on the shelves of public libraries university libraries and hospital libraries as well as between the pages of struggle literature such as Critical Health This book does not attempt academic analysis per se rather is it an authentic oral and written account of the experiences which shaped the careers of black nurses The sample of respondents was picked at random across the country as time and private purse allowed They were assured anonymity in that only first or nicknames would be used as a rule except where a surname carries historical significance In 1994 when the winds of changes blew democracy across the political landscape the South African nursing profession too was gusted along the road of revolution It was no longer a question of whether change would come but when Nonceba Lubanga in her chapter Nursing in South Africa has been given a detailed account of the struggle of black nurses referring to them as the unsung heroes of the African struggle in South Africa P 4 of cover History's Economic Heavyweights Conrad Riker, 101-01-01 Ancient Men Built Empires Modern Men Build Resumes Which One Are You Why did Rome's legions conquer continents while your HR department can't handle a pronouns workshop Are you tired of being shamed for ambition in a world that rewards mediocrity What if toxic masculinity is the same force that engineered aqueducts pyramids and Silicon Valley Discover why empires rise on male aggression and collapse on inclusivity The forbidden link between gladiator markets and crypto anarchists Reverse engineer Sparta's 8 step system to dominate in a beta male world How colonial era infrastructure still outperforms modern sustainable projects Escape the marriage plantation turn beta bucks into alpha assets Why ESG scores are the new Roman decadence and how to hack them Data backed proof that meritocracies crush diversity quotas every time Reclaim the 60 hour workweek that built pyramids not participation trophies If you want to trade woke pity
