Literacy Research and Practice Cynthia B. Leung, Janet C. Richards, Cynthia A. Lassonde, 2014-01-01 Literacy researchers and educators are currently involved in exciting international literacy projects. However, many in the field are not aware of these initiatives. In compiling this edited volume, our intent is to provide a resource book for university instructors and research faculty with examples of international literacy projects and what was learned from the projects. Chapter contributors offer stories of real people who collaborate across nations to exchange ideas, promote literacy development, and increase global understandings. The literacy initiatives presented in this book show how literacy colleagues have provided opportunities for students and educators of different countries to communicate in meaningful ways. Through international literacy projects and research, participants work to forge relationships based on mutual respect despite their differing cultures and languages. They see their work as based on the mutual connectedness to the human community.

Career Exploration and Development in Childhood Mark Watson, Mary McMahon, 2016-10-04 Career Exploration and Development in Childhood presents chapters from leading figures in the field of childhood career exploration and development The first substantive edited collection of its kind this book makes an important contribution to our understanding of children's career development. It provides cutting edge theory research and practice for understanding and fostering career exploration and development during childhood across a wide spectrum of international settings. Divided into five sections that reflect the authors' perspectives on critical aspects of children's career development, chapters include relevant research as well as the practical application of concepts, issues, and strategies for career interventions with children. The book includes sequential sections on theory, research, contextual influences, assessment, and the facilitation of career exploration and development. Perspectives from both developed and developing world contexts consider traditional approaches to career education as well as career development learning in childhood. The collaborations evident in the chapter authorship reflect the significant internationalisation of the field of child career development. The book synthesises key issues and presents innovative recommendations that will not only enhance our understanding of children's career development but will set the agenda for the future of the field. It will be of key interest to researchers, academics, and postgraduate students in the fields of career development, career guidance, education, childhood, child development, and counselling.
