A Simplicity Of Faith My Experience In Mourning:

A Simplicity of Faith William Stringfellow, 2005-08-01 In 1980 lawyer theologian William Stringfellow experienced the loss of his close friend and companion poet Anthony Towne. Totally unexpected, Towne's death brought Stringfellow face to face with his most personal encounter with grief. These pages eloquently record his year of mourning, thus becoming both a tribute to Towne and a way of celebrating life past and future. Five of Towne's poems appear here, brilliantly capturing the mood and tone of Stringfellow's text. Through the course of Stringfellow's dialogue with grief, he teaches us that bereavement can be a special source of inner peace. We discover that to know life in its fullest is to know and face death. A Simplicity of Faith is a spiritual odyssey of rare intensity. It is a convincing argument that biography reflected upon becomes theology. Though in many aspects focused on death, it is a powerful statement of what it means to be totally alive. Blessed Are Those Who Ask the Questions J. Goosby Smith, Erin D. Renslow, 2021-04-01 Today's organizational environment is characterized by high levels of cross-cultural, cross-national, and cross-religious communication, conflict, collaboration, and commerce. This environment produces myriad encounters between individuals who embrace different ideologies, religions, and spiritual practices. As such, unanswered and even unasked questions about management, spirituality, and religion abound. This book seeks to advance our understanding by asking the big questions. Blessed are Those Who Ask the Questions: What Should We be Asking About Management, Spirituality, and Religion in Organizations? is intended to be provocative in nature. Its chapters address novel ways that leadership organizations and organizational stakeholders mutually impact each other by their similarities and differences in religious, spiritual, and ideological traditions, cultures, and practices. Interdisciplinary in nature and firmly grounded in scholarly literature, this book identifies and maps out bold new trajectories for advancing the study of management, spirituality, and religion, including but going far beyond Western Christian conceptualizations of religion. Sometimes universal, sometimes quite specific, this volume identifies unexplored, underexplored, or unresolved issues in the field and proposes new streams of research. Diverse conceptual, empirical, theoretical, and critical treatments that honor a variety of inquiry styles and research methods push the boundaries of MSR research. Prophet of Justice, Prophet of Life Robert Boak Slocum, 2014-01-29 Who was William Stringfellow? Like most prophets, he was brilliant. But he was also like most prophets: difficult, irascible, suspicious, contentious, and full of courage. He was a lawyer, a social activist, and a dedicated communicant of the Episcopal Church. He graduated from Harvard Law School in the 1950s but put aside the promise of a lucrative career and went to work in East Harlem, one of New York City's poorest neighborhoods. At the height of the Vietnam War, he took the Reverend Daniel Berrigan into his home and was indicted for harboring a fugitive. In the 1970s, while the Episcopal Church was struggling with such issues as the ordination of women and the funding of programs for minorities, he accused the ecclesiastical hierarchy of arrogance, duplicity, and lack of leadership. Everything William Stringfellow said and did was grounded in his profound belief in the Incarnation and the Eschaton. He knew Jesus Christ to be the Word of God who is in all things and who challenges the powers and principalities of this world calling people and institutions to repentance and newness of life In Prophet of Justice Prophet of Life editor Robert Boak Slocum has gathered a diverse group of clergy legal scholars and seminary faculty to produce this stimulating and provocative series of essays on the life and work of William Stringfellow Evil and the Problem of Jesus Gary Commins,2025-01-30 Approaching the problem of evil from an alternative angle Evil and the Problem of Jesus offers a Christ centred approach as an antidote to traditional theodicy Gary Commins discussion provides original insights into divine power presence and love allowing readers to reengage with the God whom Jesus reveals and the evil that Jesus challenges In this study Jesus stands as a model for full humanity crafting new ways to imagine personal relationships with God and with evil Evil and the Problem of Jesus draws on pastoral experiences of tragedy suffering and evil alongside philosophical and biblical insights and Jesus own complex interactions with evil Commins offers thoughtful conceptual frameworks to help the reader live more faithfully compassionately wisely and justly in response to evils around us and within us Joy to the World! Robert Boak Slocum,2025-09-02 An uplifting devotional for those seeking comfort and hope during the seasons of Advent Christmas and Epiphany In this beautifully designed devotional priest Robert Slocum offers heartwarming devotions for the seasons of Advent Christmas and Epiphany From the miraculous conception of Jesus to the visit of the Magi Joy to the World explores the wonders of the God s coming into the world and how we can embrace the Incarnation in our everyday life even 2 000 years after Jesus s birth Each devotion comes bolstered with uplifting passages from scripture thought provoking questions and soulful prayers to help us as we contemplate God s steadfast presence and love in our lives The Teachings of Modern Protestantism on Law, Politics, and Human Nature John Witte (Jr.),John Witte, Frank S. Morris,2016-05-20 What pray tell does a faithful urban ministry require if not a triadic relationship of prayer justice and hope Could such a theologically conjunctive relationship of prayer justice and hope fortify urban ministry and challenge students and practitioners to ponder and practice beyond the box Frequently justice is collapsed to charity hope into wishful thinking or temporarily arrested despair and prayer a grasp at quick fix interventions An urban ministry's steadfast public and prophetic witness longs for the depth and width of this triad Via three countries decades of endeavors one chapter brainstorms urban ministry practices while another's literature survey signals crucial convictions Amid many seminal theologians are summoned to ground urban ministry intimations and implications Niebuhr on justice Moltmann on hope and Merton on contemplative prayer Evident is passion that fuels compassion in the service of justice hope that engages despair and prayer that draws from the contemplative center of it all thankful resources for long haul ministry The triad presses to illumine a concrete ministry's engagement of relentless forced option issues yet with significant networks resourcing Contrast awareness animates endurance The summary exegetes the original grace based serenity prayer Hence hope vitally balances realism's temptation to cynicism Realism saves hope from irrelevancy

A Faithful Public-Prophetic Witness Barry K. Morris, 2020-03-20 This book hails from decades of challenging trial and error work abundant reading and an enduring obligation to ministers activists and unsung lay heroes whose legacies matter As there is little that actually addresses the elusive meanings if not the dangers inherent in pursuing alleged spoils of success it is kairos time Seemingly scarce resources and competition to make and maintain ministries in the city challenge those of us in the field or on the sidelines to speak write and communicate clearly and convincingly not only for ourselves and our people past and present but for those who come along soon to receive the baton or wear the mantle Concretely narrated with unique case studies a cast of dozens contribute their earthy earnest testimonies and are at long last energetically affirmed Specifically this work proffers constructive attention to the critical cautions concerning subtle temptations to succeed including commodification cooptation communalism clientelism and cowardice and not bailing on fierce charity justice tensions with benevolence protectively dominant Narrative analysis and biography as theology social ethics biblical theology and recent church history give apt attention to how a compelling case is possible for success if justice is practiced given a hopeful realism and perspective of prophetic eschatology

An Alien in a Strange Land Anthony Dancer, 2011-01-01 This unique theological biography traces the emergence of William Stringfellow's theology and the place of biblical politics within it It highlights the centrality of life and work to his theology and the inseparability of one from another It tells the story of an ordinary life made less ordinary radicalized through becoming a biblical person Amidst periods in America of threat and prosperity 1950s and later dissent and protest 1960s Dancer examines not only how Stringfellow held America to account but the way in which he offered a hopeful alternative in which the place of the Bible and the world were both central It explores the way Stringfellow learned that the Bible makes sense of us and not us of it This is biblical politics a radicalizing organizing engagement with the person and the world of which the church seems to sadly have lost both sight and interest The advocacy of Karl Barth his love of the circus his scholarship to LSE the National Conference on Religion and Race his love for his parable of hope Anthony Towne and his prophetic confrontation with Johnson's Great Society all offer clues and insights into this radicalizing force at work in

A New Conversation Robert Boak Slocum, 2018-02-22 In these twenty nine essays Episcopalians consider the tradition and the future of their church its theology its polity its missiology These new conversations come from ministers of every order bishop priest deacon laity and from practiced hands at many ministries education theology music chaplaincy and spiritual direction Several essayists write urgently that the Episcopal Church must change if it is to survive Others contend with equal fervor that American Anglicanism can work if Episcopalians will reclaim and reaffirm their liturgical spiritual and theological heritage Between these views are other writers who suggest that points of supposed opposition might indeed coexist in the church of the future taking vibrant and perhaps paradoxical new forms

The Slavery of Death Richard Beck, 2013-12-23 According to Hebrews the Son of God appeared to break the power of him who holds the power of death that is the devil and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death What does it mean to be enslaved all our lives to the fear of death And why is this fear described as the power of the devil And most importantly how are we as individuals and as faith communities to be set free from this slavery to death In another creative interdisciplinary fusion Richard Beck blends Eastern Orthodox perspectives biblical text existential psychology and contemporary theology to describe our slavery to the fear of death a slavery rooted in the basic anxieties of self preservation and the neurotic anxieties at the root of our self esteem Driven by anxiety enslaved to the fear of death we are revealed to be morally and spiritually vulnerable as the sting of death is sin Beck argues that in the face of this predicament resurrection is experienced as liberation from the slavery of death in the martyrological eccentric cruciform and communal capacity to overcome fear in living fully and sacrificially for others
