A Song For The King Saraha On Mahamudra Meditation

Josh Bartok, Gustavo Szpilman Cutz

A Song For The King Saraha On Mahamudra Meditation:

A Song for the King Rinpoche Thrangu, 2006-04-24 Mahamudra is the basic meditation practice for many Tibetan Buddhists particularly of the Kagyu tradition. It is particularly adaptable for modern people since it involves no rituals and can be incorporated into all daily activities. Saraha's Song for the King is a short verse text from classical India that is a basis for the tradition and is widely known in Tibetan Buddhist circles. It is often the basis for teachings given in the West but there is only one outdated translation of it in print first published in 1969. Michele Martin has produced a stellar new translation which is accompanied by a commentary from the well known teacher Khenchen Thrangu Rinpoche who is uniquely skilled and concerned with making this method of meditation available to Westerners. While pithy and accessible the book easily stands up to academic scrutiny and includes the original Tibetan as well making it ideal for the popular scholarly and Tibetan audiences all at once.

Saraha Roger R. Jackson, 2024-11-05 The life and works of the mysterious Indian yogin Saraha who has inspired Buddhist practitioners for over a thousand years. Saraha the Archer was a mysterious but influential tenth century Indian Buddhist tantric adept who expressed his spiritual realization in mystic songs doh s that are enlightening, shocking and confounding by turns. Saraha's poetic verses made the esoteric ideas and practices of Vajrayana accessible to a wide audience on the Indian subcontinent and served as a basis for the exposition in Tibet of mah mudr, the great seal meditation on the nature of mind that permeates every tradition of Buddhism on the Tibetan plateau. This is the first book to attempt a thorough treatment of the context, life, works, poetics and teachings of Saraha. It features a search for the historical Saraha through evidence provided by our knowledge of the medieval Indian context in which he likely lived, the biographical legends that grew up around him in Tibet and the works attributed to him in Indic and Tibetan text collections, a consideration of the various guises in which Saraha appears in his writings as poet, social and religious critic, radical gnostic thinker and more, an overview of Saraha's poetic and religious legacy in South Asia and beyond, and complete or partial translations from Tibetan of over two dozen works attributed to Saraha. These include nearly all his spiritual songs from his well known Doh Trilogy to obscure but important expositions of mah mudr as well as several previously untranslated works.

Mahamudra Dakpo Tashi Namgyal, 2014-04-14 Mahamudra meditation is simultaneously the most profound of meditative disciplines and the most accessible for modern practitioners. Traditionally passed orally from teacher to disciple, mahamudra instructions point the meditator to the innate perfection of every experience. When it first appeared in 1986, Mahamudra: The Moonlight Quintessence of Mind and Meditation was the first presentation in English of a major Tibetan Buddhist work on meditation. This classic guide was composed in the sixteenth century by an eminent lama of the Kagyu school and is so comprehensive and practical that it is still widely used today as a manual. Divided into two major sections, it presents first the common approach and then the mahamudra approach to tranquility (shamatha) and insight (vipashyana) meditation.

Sounds of Innate Freedom Karl Brunnhölzl, 2023-04-11 The third volume in a historic six volume series containing many of the first English translations of the classic mahamudra literature compiled by the Seventh Karmapa Sounds of Innate Freedom The Indian Texts of Mahamudra are historic volumes containing many of the first English translations of the classic mahamudra literature The texts and songs in these volumes constitute the large compendium called The Indian Texts of the Mahamudra of Definitive Meaning compiled by the Seventh Karmapa Chögyal Gyatso 1456-1539. Translated, introduced and annotated by Karl Brunnhölzl, an acclaimed senior teacher at the Nalandabodhi community of Dzogchen Ponlop Rinpoche, the collection offers a brilliant window into the richness of the vast ocean of Indian mahamudra texts cherished in all Tibetan lineages, particularly in the Kagyu tradition, giving us a clear view of the sources of one of the world's great contemplative traditions. This third volume contains twenty-four texts, the bulk of which are dohas by Saraha and commentaries on them, as well as works by other renowned Indian Buddhist mahasiddhas such as Naropa, Kṛṣṇa and Śaṅkyaśrībhadra. The extensive commentaries brilliantly unravel enigmas and bring clarity to the songs they comment on, as well as to many other songs of realization in the series. These expressive songs of the inexpressible offer readers a feast of profound and powerful pith instructions uttered by numerous male and female mahasiddhas, yogis and dakinis, often in the context of ritual ganacakras and initially kept in their secret treasury. Displaying a vast range of themes, styles and metaphors, they all point to the single true nature of the mind, mahamudra, in inspiring ways and from different angles, using a dazzling array of skillful means to penetrate the sole vital point of buddhahood, being found nowhere but within our own mind. Reading and singing these songs of mystical wonder, bliss and ecstatic freedom, and contemplating their meaning, will open doors to spiritual experience for us today just as it has for countless practitioners in the past.

Nightly Wisdom Josh Bartok, Gustavo Szpilman Cutz, 2007-11-28. Human beings the world over have always found the nighttime and its attendant activities of sleeping, dreaming and waking up mysterious, mystical and rich with meaning and metaphor. The name Buddha means the one who has awakened and enlightenment itself is often portrayed literarily as the luminous full moon lighting our way through the blinding black of night. Nightly Wisdom goes deep into the wealth of Buddhist inspirations on these powerful topics, offering encouragement and clear teaching on lucid dreaming and Tibetan dream yoga, the art of extending one's meditation practice into the boundaryless world of dreamtime, gentle guidance on relaxing into restful sleep and awakening from the suffering dream of separateness, as well as poetry and prose whose sources span time and space from ancient Japan and the Buddha himself to some of the brightest lights of Buddhism today. A book unlike any other, Nightly Wisdom is designed to be placed on the bedside table and read last thing in the evening so that one's sleep may be infused with a virtue that can be renewed in the morning and carried on throughout the day. Nightly Wisdom represents perhaps the first effort to bring all of these Buddhist inspirations together in one welcoming volume and is an ideal guide for anyone who has ever dreamed of waking up to the entirety of life or wondered how best to suffuse this wisdom into that third of our lives we all spend in bed.

Bridge of Waves W. A. Mathieu, 2010-12-14. Music is in one sense merely a series of fleeting vibrations that arise and subside. How could it be that something so insubstantial fills us and calms us and makes us weep? Because, says W. A. Mathieu, music bridges mind and heart, self and other, and affirms our place in the world. Everyone uses the bridge of music, from casual listeners to devoted professionals Mathieu's delightful and trenchant prose asks you to question what music is how it works and how to understand its value in your life in the life of your community and in the evolution of the cosmos

Thrangu Rinpoche explains in lucid detail the advanced meditation practices of Mahamudra and Dzogchen and also their similarities and differences, including advice on how to safely perform some of the more advanced Dzogchen practices. The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems by Thukten Losang Chokyi Nyima, 2017-06-06. The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems by Thukten Losang Chokyi Nyima (1737-1802) is arguably the widest-ranging account of religious philosophies ever written in pre-modern Tibet. Like most Tibetan texts on philosophical systems, this work covers the major schools of India, both Buddhist and non-Buddhist, but then goes on to discuss in detail the entire range of Tibetan traditions, as well as separate chapters on the Nyingma, Kadam, Kagyu, Shije, Sakya, Jonang, Geluk, and Bon schools. Not resting there, Thukten goes on to describe the major traditions of China, Confucian, Daoist, and the multiple varieties of Buddhist, as well as those of Mongolia, Khotan, and even Shambhala. The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems is unusual too in its concern not just to describe and analyze doctrines but to trace the historical development of the various traditions. The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems is an eloquent and erudite presentation exploring the religious history and philosophical systems of an array of Asian cultures and offering evidence that the serious and sympathetic study of the history of religions has not been a monopoly of Western scholarship.

Luminous Melodies, 2019-11-12. Essential poetic teachings from beloved Tibetan Buddhist masters in their first ever English translation. Presented here for the first time in English is a collection of dohas, or songs of realization, carefully and thoughtfully selected and translated from the large compendium, The Indian Texts of the Mahamudra of Definitive Meaning, which was compiled by the Seventh Karmapa and drawn primarily from the Tengyur. Beautiful, profound, and often outrageous, these verses were frequently composed spontaneously and thus have a moving sense of freedom, openness, and bliss. They range from summaries of the entire path of Mahamudra to pithy four-liners that point directly to the Buddha within us. The authors include famous masters such as Saraha and Naropa, dakinis, kings, and also courtesans and cobblers, showing that realization is accessible to all of us right here in our lives.

Mind Seeing Mind by Roger R. Jackson, 2019-10-29. A definitive study of one of the most important practices in Tibetan Buddhism with translations of a number of its key texts. Mahamudra, the great seal, refers to the ultimate nature of mind and reality, to a meditative practice for realizing that ultimate reality, and to the final fruition of Buddhahood. It is especially prominent in the Kagyu tradition of Tibetan Buddhism, so it sometimes comes as a surprise that Mahamudra has played an important role in the Geluk school, where it is part of a special transmission received in a vision by the tradition's founder, Tsongkhapa. Mahamudra is a significant component of Geluk ritual and meditative life, widely studied and taught by contemporary masters such as the Dalai Lama and Roger Jackson's Mind Seeing Mind offers us both a definitive scholarly study of the history, texts, and doctrines of Geluk mahamudra and masterful translations of its seminal texts. It provides a skillful survey of the Indian sources of the teaching, illuminates the place of mahamudra among Tibetan Buddhist schools, and details the history and major textual sources of Geluk mahamudra. Jackson also addresses critical questions such as the relation between Geluk and Kagy mahamudra and places mahamudra in the context of contemporary religious studies. The translation portion of Mind Seeing Mind includes ten texts on mahamudra history, ritual, and practice. Among these are the First Panchen Lama's root verses and autocommentary on mahamudra meditation, his ritual masterpiece Offering to the Guru, and a selection of his songs of spiritual experience. Mind Seeing Mind adds considerably to our understanding of Tibetan Buddhist spirituality and shows how mahamudra came to be woven throughout the fabric of the Geluk tradition.
