Can He Play? A Look at Baseball Scouts and their Profession Jim Sandoval, 2011-11 They dig through tons of coal to find a single diamond They spend countless hours traveling miles and miles on lonely back roads and way too much time in hotels Their front offices expect them to constantly provide player reports and updates So much of their time is spent away from family and friends missing birthdays anniversaries and holidays Their best friend is Rand McNally Always asking the question CAN HE PLAY Such is the life of a professional scout CAN HE PLAY collects the contributions of 26 members of the Society for American Baseball Research on the subject of scouts including biographies and historical essays The book touches on more than a century of scouts and scouting with a focus on the men and the occasional woman who have taken on the task of scouring the world for the best ballplayers available In CAN HE PLAY we meet the King of Weeds a Ph D we call Baseball's Renaissance Man a husband and wife team pioneering Latin scouts and a Japanese American interned during World War II who became a successful scout and many many more The legendary Tom Greenwade and the development of the New York Yankees scouting system interviews with former players Johnny Pesky and Fernando Perez about being scouted and much more

2005 Rotisserie Baseball Scouting Report: for 4x4 NL Only Leagues Henry Lee, 2005 What differentiates this new series of books from the books and magazines people have used in the past is that each of the six books focuses on a different league 5x5 mixed AL only NL only 4x4 mixed AL only and NL only The projections and dollar values for players can vary up to 50% from league to league Drafting with the help of a magazine not tailored to your league specifications is a recipe for disaster yet millions of people do so every year With your Rotisserie Baseball Scouting Report in hand you can rest assured that your projections are accurate Each book also has special Quick Lists designed to help you find what you need in the limited time you have between picks Players are ranked by actual scoring category points so you can compare players intelligently and quickly Categories like ERA WHIP and BA are weighted for IP and AB vitally important but often overlooked Also included is a unique quantitative analysis of the best prospects for 2005 Lights, Camera, Fastball
