Encyclopedia of Television Shows, 1925 through 2010, 2d ed. Vincent Terrace,2014-01-10 This fully updated and expanded edition covers over 10 200 programs making it the most comprehensive documentation of television programs ever published In addition to covering the standard network and cable entertainment genres the book also covers programs generally not covered elsewhere in print or even online including Internet series aired and unaired pilot films erotic series gay and lesbian series risqué cartoons and experimental programs from 1925 through 1945 The Chinese Dream:

China, I Love You Martin Avery,2016-02-09 The Chinese Dream China I Love You is an omnibus edition with three short novels and a short story all about love featuring a Canadian doctor who changes his name to Bethune and goes to China taking a cure for cancer with him to make millions going against the mainstream Western medication establishment and saving millions while making millions Exemplary Tales of Love and Tales of Disillusion María de Zayas y

Sotomayor,2010-07-15 At the height of Mar a de Zayas s popularity in the mid eighteenth century the number of editions in print of her work was exceeded only by the novels of Cervantes But by the end of the nineteenth century Zayas had been excluded from the Spanish literary canon because of her gender and the sociopolitical changes that swept Spain and Europe Exemplary Tales of Love and Tales of Disillusion gathers a representative sample of seven stories which features Zayas s signature topics gender equality and domestic violence written in an impassioned tone overlaid with conservative Counter Reformation ideology This edition updates the scholarship since the most recent English translations with a new introduction to Zayas s entire body of stories and restores Zayas s author s note and prologue omitted from previous English language editions Tracing her slow but steady progress from notions of ideal love to love s treachery Exemplary Tales of Love and Tales of Disillusion will restore Zayas to her rightful place in modern letters Play the Way You Feel Kevin

Primitives A. Elisabeth Reichel, 2021-08 Writing Anthropologists Sounding Primitives re examines the poetry and scholarship of three of the foremost figures in the twentieth century history of U S American anthropology Edward Sapir Margaret Mead and Ruth Benedict While they are widely renowned for their contributions to Franz Boas s early twentieth century school of cultural relativism what is far less known is their shared interest in probing the representational potential of different media and forms of writing This dimension of their work is manifest in Sapir s critical writing on music and literature and Mead s groundbreaking work with photography and film Sapir Mead and Benedict together also wrote more than one thousand poems which in turn negotiate their own media status and rivalry with other forms of representation A Elisabeth Reichel presents the first sustained study of the published and unpublished poetry of Sapir Mead and Benedict charting this largely unexplored body of work and relevant selections of the writers scholarship In addition to its expansion of early twentieth century literary canons Writing Anthropologists Sounding Primitives contributes to current debates about the relations between different media sign systems and modes of sense perception in literature and other media Reichel offers a unique contribution to the history of anthropology by synthesizing and applying insights from the history of writing sound studies and intermediality studies to poetry and scholarship produced by noted early twentieth century U S American cultural anthropologists Access the OA edition here
