A Testament To Freedom The Essential Writings Of Dietrich Bonhoeffer:

A Testament to Freedom Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 1990 Dietrich Bonhoeffer was just thirty nine years old when he was executed by the Nazis in 1945 yet his influence on Christian theology and life has been enormous A testament to freedom takes readers along a biographical historical journey that follows Bonhoeffer through the various stages of his life and career including his final years in the underground resistance against the Nazi government and his subsequent martyrdom This book features previously untranslated writings sermons and selections from his letters spanning his entire pastoral theological career including his prison letters Bonhoeffer Eric Metaxas, 2011-08-29 Who better to face the greatest evil of the 20th century than a humble man of faith As Adolf Hitler and the Nazis seduced a nation bullied a continent and attempted to exterminate the Jews of Europe a small number of dissidents and saboteurs worked to dismantle the Third Reich from the inside One of these was Dietrich Bonhoeffer a pastor and author In this New York Times bestselling biography Eric Metaxas takes both strands of Bonhoeffer s life the theologian and the spy and draws them together to tell a searing story of incredible moral courage in the face of monstrous evil In Bonhoeffer Metaxas presents the fullest account of Bonhoeffer s life including his heart wrenching decision to leave the safe haven of America to return to Hitler s Germany involvement in the famous Valkyrie plot and in Operation 7 the effort to smuggle Jews into neutral Switzerland lifelong dedication to sharing the tenets of his faith This edition revised and with a new introduction from the author shares the deeply moving story through previously unavailable documents including personal letters detailed journal entries and firsthand personal accounts to reveal never before seen dimensions of Bonhoeffer s life and work Praise for Bonhoeffer Metaxas has created a biography of uncommon power intelligent moving well researched vividly written and rich in implication for our own lives Or to put it another way Buy this book Read it Then buy another copy and give it to a person you love It s that good Archbishop Charles Chaput author First Things Metaxas tells Bonhoeffer s story with passion and theological sophistication Wall Street Journal Metaxas presents Bonhoeffer as a clear headed deeply convicted Christian who submitted to no one and nothing except God and his Word Christianity Today Metaxas has written a book that adds a new dimension to World War II a new understanding of how evil can seize the soul of a nation and a man of faith can confront it Thomas Fleming author The New Dealers War The Cambridge Companion to Dietrich Bonhoeffer John W. de Gruchy, 1999-05-13 This Companion serves as a guide for readers wanting to explore the thought and legacy of the great German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer 1906-45 The book shows why Bonhoeffer remains such an attractive figure to so many people of diverse backgrounds Its chapters written by authors from differing national theological and church contexts provide a helpful introduction to and commentary on Bonhoeffer s life work and writing and so guide the reader along the complex paths of his thought Experts set out comprehensively Bonhoeffer s political social and cultural contexts and offer biographical information which is indispensable for the understanding of his theology Major themes arising from the theology and different interpretations to it lead the reader into a dialogue with this most influential of thinkers who remains both fascinating and challenging There is a chronology a glossary and an index The Barthian Revolt in Modern Theology Gary J. Dorrien, 2000-01-01 In this history of the rise development and near demise of Karl Barth's theology Gary Dorrien carefully analyzes the making of the Barthian revolution and the reasons behind its simultaneously dominating and marginal character He discusses Barth's relationship to his predecessors and contemporaries as well as to modern theologians and argues that his approach to theology was deeply indebted to his liberal past Secret Faith in the Public Square

Jonathan Malesic, 2009-09-01 In this groundbreaking and provocative book Jonathan Malesic argues that the best way for Christians to be caretakers of their tradition and to love their neighbors selflessly is to conceal their religious identity in American public life The alternative insisting on Christianity's public visibility in politics the marketplace and the workplace risks severely compromising the distinctiveness of Christian identity Delving deep into the Christian tradition Malesic explains that keeping Christian identity secret means living fully in the world while maintaining Christian language prayer and liturgy in reserve He shows how major thinkers Cyril of Jerusalem Søren Kierkegaard and Dietrich Bonhoeffer sought to protect Christian identity from being compromised by the public sphere He then shows that Christians' dual responsibilities for the tradition and for the neighbor must be kept secret The Existential Philosophy of Etty Hillesum Meins G. S.
Coetsier, 2014-01-09 In The Existential Philosophy of Etty Hillesum Meins G. S. Coetsier breaks new ground by demonstrating the Jewish existential nature of Etty Hillesum's spiritual and cultural life in light of the writings of Martin Buber Emmanuel Levinas and Dietrich Bonhoeffer Hillesum's diaries and letters written between 1941 and 1943 illustrate her struggle to come to terms with her personal life in the context of the Second World War and the Shoah By finding God under the rubble of the horrors she rediscovers the divine presence between humankind while taking up responsibility for the Other as a way to embrace justice and compassion In a fascinating accessible and thorough study Coetsier dispels much of the confusion that assails readers when they are exposed to the bewildering range of Christian and Jewish influences and other cultural interpretations of her writings The result is a convincing and profound picture of Etty Hillesum's path to spiritual freedom

Reforming the Monastery Greg Peters, 2013-11-12 Richard Froude wrote in 1833 to John Henry Newman that the present state of things in England makes an opening for reviving the monastic system Seemingly original words at the time Yet monasticism is one of the most ancient and enduring institutions of the Christian church reaching its zenith during the High Middle Ages Although medieval monasteries were regularly suppressed during the Reformation and the magisterial Reformers rejected monastic vows the existence of monasticism has remained within the Reformation churches both as an institution and in its theology This volume is an examination of Protestant theologies of monasticism examining the thought of select Protestant authors who have argued for the existence of monasticism in the Reformation churches beginning with Martin Luther and John Calvin and including Conrad Hoyer John Henry Newman Karl Barth and Donald Bloesch Looking at the contemporary church the current movement known as the New Monasticism is discussed and evaluated in light of Protestant monastic history Pacifism, Just War, and Tyrannicide David M. Gides, 2012-03-02 Dietrich Bonhoeffer's perplexing and controversial shift from admitted pacifism to tyrannicide has been the source of scholarly and popular inspiration and criticism How could an admitted Christian pacifist be involved in a plot to assassinate a political figure Is there a way to understand and explain this phenomenon comprehensive enough to encompass all relevant data One that takes into account the nuances of Bonhoeffer's theology and all of the elements of his complex historical and personal contexts This study attempts to offer an explanation by linking Bonhoeffer's political thinking and action with his understanding of the church world relationship and by evaluating the changes in that thought action dyad as his life progressed What emerges is a portrait of a bold and visionary thinker and political agent whose church world theology while discontinuous is consistent enough to be authentic and yet flexible enough to meet the extraordinary challenges presented by Nazism and its intrusion into the churches Gides suggests that it is actually Bonhoeffer's malleable church world thinking that ultimately distinguishes him from his theological and ecclesial contemporaries and even from the mass of German church persons and citizenry it allowed him to confront evil by reaching beyond the constraints of traditional Lutheran thinking Radical Discipleship Jennifer M. McBride, 2016-12-15 Reminiscent of Bonhoeffer's Discipleship Jennifer McBride's Radical Discipleship utilizes the liturgical seasons as a framework for engaging the social evils of mass incarceration capital punishment and homelessness arguing that to be faithful to the gospel Christians must become disciples of not simply believers in Jesus The book arises out of McBride's extensive experience teaching theology in a women's prison while participating in a residential Christian activist and worshipping community Arguing that disciples must take responsibility for the social evils that bar beloved community Martin Luther King's term for a just social order the promised kingdom of God McBride calls for a dual commitment to the works of mercy and the struggle for justice This work seeks to form readers into an understanding of the social and political character of the good news proclaimed in the Gospels Organically connecting liturgy with activism and theological reflection McBride argues that discipleship requires that privileged Christians place their bodies in spaces of social struggle and distress to reduce the distance between themselves and those who suffer injustice and stand in solidarity with those whom society deems guilty despises and rejects which makes discipleship radical as Christians take seriously the Jesus of the Gospels Who am I? Bernd Wannenwetsch, 2011-11-03 It has often been noted that poetry is a particularly suitable medium when it comes to understanding the connection between theology and biography Needless to say that this is particularly exciting in the case of Dietrich Bonhoeffer and the poems he wrote during his imprisonment by the Nazis Although any one of his ten poems should be read within their respective historical and biographical context they are also rounded self sufficient pieces of work that cannot be explained by the biographical and theological prose that surrounds them They rather serve as a sort of creative and perhaps sometimes even critical interlocutor to these contexts This is why the contributors to this volume have not been asked to explain the poems but to facilitate this conversation the conversation between the reader and the poems between the individual poems as well as between the poems and Bonhoeffer's life and his theology These poems lend themselves ideally as an entry point into Bonhoeffer's theology in that each one of them resonates with a particular central theological concept that Bonhoeffer was developing in his prison years Themes and concepts such as friendship religion identity freedom representative action and others are not only represented in these poems but often expressed in the dense and compelling fashion that only poetic language affords As such they deserve the thorough and imaginative engagement of the international line up of first class theological authors gathered in this book

Readings on Human Nature Peter Loftson, 1998-02-04 This anthology brings together 45 selections by a wide range of philosophers and other thinkers and provides a representative sampling of the approaches to the study of human nature that have been taken within the western tradition The selections range in time from the ancient Greeks to the 1990s and in political orientation from the conservative individualism of Ayn Rand to the liberalism of John Rawls Classic writings from the sixteenth through nineteenth centuries are here Descartes Machiavelli Hobbes Rousseau and so on but so are a wide range of twentieth century writings including a number of feminist voices the biological theory of Edward O Wilson and the cultural materialist theory of Marvin Harris A substantial selection of Christian views of human nature is a central part of the anthology The anthology is as notable for its depth as it is for its breadth an important editorial principle has been to include a variety of substantial selections thus allowing the reader to engage more readily with some of the complexities of each approach

Redeeming the Broken Body Gabriel A. Santos, 2009-01-01 This book examines how repertoires of speech and action that are often considered to be mutually exclusive those of church and state clash or unite during the postdisaster period as local communities and cities struggle to establish a stable collective identity Based on an analysis of forty in depth interviews with disaster response participants and over 325 print media sources this study explores first the extent to which ministers and citizens challenge statist narratives in order to publicly relay theological views second the cultural processes by which local places are nationalized and theologized and third the ecclesiological convictions necessary to peaceably advance the work of Christ's body after disasters

Encyclopedia of Global Justice Deen K. Chatterjee, 2012-01-23 This two volume Encyclopedia of Global Justice published by Springer along with Springer's book series Studies in Global Justice is a major publication venture toward a comprehensive coverage of this timely topic The Encyclopedia is an international interdisciplinary and collaborative project spanning all the relevant areas of scholarship related to issues of global justice and edited and advised by leading scholars from around the world The wide ranging entries present the latest ideas on this complex subject by authors who are at the cutting edge of inquiry The Encyclopedia sets the tone and direction of this increasingly important area of scholarship for years to come The entries number around 500 and consist of essays of 300 to 5000 words The inclusion and length of entries are based on their significance to the topic of global justice regardless of their importance in other areas Karl Barth in Conversation W. Travis McMaken, David W. Congdon, 2014-02-18 Karl Barth was an eminently conversational theologian and with the Internet revolution we live today in an eminently conversational age Being the proceedings of the 2010 Karl Barth Blog Conference Karl Barth in Conversation brings these two factors together in order to advance the dialogue about Barth's theology and extend the online conversation to new audiences With conversation partners ranging from Wesley to i ek from Schleiermacher to Jenson from Hauerwas to the Coen brothers this volume opens up exciting new horizons for exploring Barth's immense contribution to church and world The contributors who represent a young new generation of academic theologians bring a fresh perspective to a topic the theology of Karl Barth that often seems to have exhausted its range of possibilities This book proves that there is still a great deal of uncharted territory in the field of Barth studies Today more than forty years since the Swiss theologian's death the conversation is as lively as ever Christian Ethics in a Technological Age Brian Brock, 2010-06-28 Through close analysis of the historical and conceptual roots of modern science and technology Brian Brock here develops a theological ethic addressing a wide range of contemporary perplexities about the moral challenges raised by new technology More Than A Pretty Face Joel Oesch, 2017-07-18 The online social network phenomenon has forever changed the way we think about ourselves in relation to our neighbors But do these massively popular networks actually build community More Than a Pretty Face invites us to consider the present and future challenges of the Digital Age and offers resources from Lutheran theology notably from Dietrich Bonhoeffer that call into question many of the assumptions that support a disembodied understanding of community What remains is a genuine call for a vibrant theology of embodiment By recognizing the distinctive features of physical communities Christians can discern which digital social technologies embrace a view of humanity that necessarily includes the body There is no need for either the polar extremes of neo Luddism or the uncritical embrace of all things digital Rather Christians are called to respond to needs of the community with empathy intimacy and physicality Shaping the Journey Daniel Ethan Harris, 2025-08-21 How do the theological impulses of evangelical pietism and contemplative monasticism converge in the modern spiritual formation movement Shaping the Journey brings John Wesley and Thomas Merton into critical dialogue examining their distinct yet complementary contributions to Christian spirituality With Wesleyan evangelicalism as a thesis and Mertonian monasticism as antithesis this study argues that the spiritual formation movement represents a meaningful synthesis of these traditions Central to this synthesis is the work of M Robert Mulholland Jr whose integrative vision of spiritual formation clearly reflects the influences of Wesley and Merton and the evangelical and monastic traditions they represent Engaging history theology and spirituality this work offers a vital resource for understanding the roots and trajectory of Christian spiritual formation Street Signs David P. Leong, 2012-07-01 Street Signs is an engaging missiological inquiry into the cultural and theological meaning of the city Through the lens of Seattle's Rainier Valley one of the most ethnically and socioeconomically diverse communities in the US this work constructs an urban missional and contextual theology that is shaped by the local realities of urban neighborhoods but relevant to cities everywhere Focused on the themes of incarnation confrontation and imagination Street Signs explores the contours of missional theology in urban contexts marked by physical density social diversity and economic disparity In addition to examining contextualization and cultural theory Street Signs also utilizes creative research methods like urban exegesis cultural semiotics and theology of the built environment For the urban ministry practitioner or the theologian in the city this work aims to engage thoughtful Christians with missiological and theological reflections on place neighbor and community

Bonhoeffer Stephen Plant, 2010-07-15 One of the best known Christians of the twentieth century Dietrich Bonhoeffer is admired as a theologian for his unparalleled independence of mind creativity and brilliance by liberals and conservatives alike His death at the hands of the Nazis is an extraordinary tale of courage and Christian discipleship However Bonhoeffer was also a serious theologian who while indebted to the liberal tradition of the University of Berlin was also influenced by the new thinking of Karl Barth that challenged the consensus Plant has written a critical exploration of Bonhoeffer's writings that illuminates his ethical theology showing that what linked all his work was the attempt to listen to God's word in to and for the secular world
